

FROM NEIGHBORING TOWN AND CITY

NEWS OF THE COUNTY SEAT

Death of F. Camp.

Dr. and Mrs. Charles Tinkham received the sad intelligence Thursday evening from Mrs. Tinkham's home in Bennett, Ill., that Fred Camp, a brother of Mrs. Tinkham, had passed away from the effect of a critical operation which he underwent in a Chicago hospital some time ago, and from which he never rallied. Mr. Camp was about 30 years of age and was well-known in Crown Point, having made numerous visits with the Tinkhams here. The many friends of the family will be grieved to hear of the untimely death of the young man who made a friend with everyone he came in contact with.

Fire on Joliet Street.

The Volunteer Fire department and practically the whole of Crown Point were called out last evening to extinguish a blaze on West Joliet street which started in a barn on the Peter Mitchell place, the house being occupied by Ed Lamphier and family. The barn and its contents and all the surrounding sheds and buildings were burned to the ground, but through the efficient work of the firemen they managed to save the house. Quite a little hay and a number of chickens were burned in the conflagration and considerable loss will be sustained by the owner and renter of the buildings.

Good Scoring Done.

Some good scoring was done at the weekly contest of the Crown Point Gun club yesterday and the improvement in the shooting of the members over last year is marked. John Thomas won the medal this week, not on average shooting, but highest number broke. Jake Horst won the average shoot with 27 out of 28 shot at. The scoring of the contest is as follows:

Shot at. Broke.

Thomas 27 27

Horst 26 24

Swartz 25 24

Wirtz 24 24

Foss 23 23

Kelser 22 23

Stuhlmacher 21 23

Schmidt 20 20

BURNHAM.

Mr. and Mrs. Hunter are greatly indebted to one of the ladies of the neighborhood for performing an operation on their boy's foot. The boy got a cordwood stick stuck in his foot and would allow no one to touch it until the aforesaid lady happened to drop in when he, not only allowed her to extract the stick, but seemed to enjoy it. As a surgeon the lady is hard to beat, and if she would hang out her shingle she would undoubtedly make a large practice and some skids. The kid is now looking for some more silvers, and even tries to make the lady think he has one in his foot when he has not. "Can you blame him?"

President Whitney and Trustees Rau and Leedy were in Chicago yesterday.

Henry Wise, rural mail carrier, killed the first rattlesnake killed in this vicinity for a number of years yesterday, when he dispatched one lying in the middle of the road between Judge McMahon's farm and the halfway house on the Cedar Lake road. The reptile was over two feet long and had six rattles. Wise's horse, which he was driving, became frightened several rods before Wise could see the reptile in the road, but he soon became aware of the cause, when he heard the snake's warning. Wise brought the rattler to town to substantiate his tale, which, however, is unnecessary, as Harry has never been known to see them when they were not existent.

The Health of Your Horse will be best promoted—best preserved—if you are ready to give the proper remedy at the proper time. The proper remedy for all strains, sprains, or colic is Perry Davis' Painkiller. The proper time to use it is when the trouble first shows itself. Be prompt and you'll not only save the horse suffering, but you'll spare yourself trouble and expense—maybe save a long time waiting. You ought to have a bottle ready. The new 50-cent bottle costs 35 cents; one larger, 50 cents. Be sure your druggist gives you Perry Davis'.
