

TIMES FASHION DEPARTMENT

SMART RECEPTION GOWN OF FOULARD.

This beautiful princess fouldard in built with a suggestion of the Empire. This is emphasized by the employment of the 'Directoire' sash, and the crushed belt running just below the bust. This costume is of touch length in front, with a short train in the back. The long sleeves and the front show a trimming of narrow braid, and there is a fall of fluted chiffon at the front of the corsage. The picture hat worn with the costume is trimmed with a mass of beautiful paradise aigrettes.

A PRETTY WEDDING.
A very large and beautiful church wedding occurred yesterday in St. Mary's Catholic church in Crown Point, when Miss Emma Krost, daughter of Mrs. M. M. Krost, and Mr. Edward Eder of Hammond, were united in marriage. The church was filled with friends and relatives of the bride couple, many of whom came from a distance to be present at the ceremony. A very beautiful program of bridal music was played as the guests arrived at the church and at 9 o'clock the Lohengrin wedding march was played for the entrance of the bride procession. They came down the long central aisle to the altar where they were met by the Rev. Father Guethoff, who read the nuptial high mass. The ring ceremony of the church was served. At the altar where the ceremony was performed the bride colors were very beautifully carried out in green and white. Garden flowers and ferns were used to bank the altar. The hour for the ceremony was 9 o'clock. The bride had as her only attendant, Miss Rose Eder, a sister of the groom, who served as maid of honor. The groom had as his only attendant, Gerald Krost, the youngest brother of the bride. The bride was attired in a very handsome white lingerie gown, richly trimmed with lace. She wore a long tulle veil caught to her hair with a wreath of flowers and carried a beautiful shawer bouquet of bride's roses and orange blossoms. Miss Eder, as maid of honor, wore a very pretty white lingerie gown and carried an arm bouquet of red roses. At the close of the church ceremony the members of the bridal party, the relatives and many invited friends were received at the beautiful residence in Main street. About one hundred invitations were issued to attend the reception. The day was given to the congratulations of the young couple and at 1 o'clock an elaborate course wedding luncheon was served. The home was very beautifully decorated, carrying out the bride's colors of green and white. The large reception hall and stairway were beautiful with their decorations, the stairway having garlands of the white garden flowers and ferns artistically arranged. The other rooms where the guests met had large vases of the flowers. Mr. and Mrs. Eder left during the afternoon for a few weeks' wedding visit, but will return to Crown Point to make their home. The bride is a daughter of Mrs. Mary Krost of Crown Point and has made her home there for several years. She is one of the leading society young ladies at Crown Point, being prominent in the social clubs of the city. She is a graduate of St. Mary's Academy at South Bend, Ind. Mr. Eder is a son of Mr. and Mrs. George M. Eder of Condit street, this city, but for the past few years has had a splendid position with the Abstract company in Crown Point. He is known in business circles in the county and the young people have a host of friends who will extend their congratulations and wishes. Among those who attended from Hammond were Mr. and Mrs. George M. Eder and family, Mr. and Mrs. J. Fred Krost and Mrs. John Idjorak.

A PLEASANT MEETING.
The Misses Emily and Bertha Ebert very pleasantly entertained the members of the N. N. Embroidery club last evening at their home in South Hohman street. It was the regular weekly meeting of the club members and several were present. The evening was spent with social conversation and embroidery work until a late hour when the guests were served with a dainty course luncheon. Miss Lillie Fiedler will be the hostess at the next party and will entertain at her home in State street next Tuesday evening.

ATTENDS THE MATINEE.
Mrs. W. G. Paxton of Rimbach avenue went to Chicago today to join a party of friends and attend a matinee.

A QUIET WEDDING.
A wedding that will be of interest to many people in Hammond and Lake county occurred in Chicago yesterday when Mrs. Blanche McNeill and Mr. Charles Robert Curd of Minnesota were married. The ceremony was celebrated at a Catholic rectory, the corner of Sixty-fifth place and Harvard avenue, Englewood. The Rev. Father Murray officiating at the ceremony, using the ring ceremony of the church. The ceremony was very quiet, only a few relatives being in attendance. Mr. and Mrs. Curd came to Hammond last evening and will remain for a short visit with Mrs. Curd's sister, Mrs. Harry MacElfresh, at her home in Cameron street. They expect to leave for their home in Gramath, Minn., Friday of this week and will make their home there in the future, where Mr. Curd has business interests. Mrs. Curd for several years conducted a large millinery parlor in the Hammond building, the room now occupied by the Orr & Townd shoe company. She left Hammond and since then has been in business in Streator, Ill. She frequently visits friends and relatives in Hammond and Chicago and her friends will extend her their best wishes and congratulations.

RESUMES WORK.
Mrs. Mattie Bonney resumed her duties at Ruhstatts department store yesterday after a pleasant ten days' vacation spent with friends and relatives in Chicago.

A PLEASANT MEETING.
The regular meeting of the members of Progressive Court, No. 155, Tribe of Ben Hur, took place last evening in the K. of P. hall. There was a very good attendance of members and the routine business was disposed of early in the evening. Plans were also made for a social evening when dancing will be one of the principal features of entertainment to take place Thursday evening, Sept. 30, in Long's hall on State street. The public is cordially invited to attend the social and are assured of a pleasant time. A social hour was enjoyed at the close of the business meeting.
