

THE LATEST IN FASHIONS

SHOULDER SEAMS ARE OUT OF FASHION. Bodice and sleeve in one, with an undersleeve of transparent stuff—this is the fad now; and dressy costumes are built in this way. This sleeve and shoulder in one demands some break in the bodice in order to give the arm freedom. Sometimes the upper bodice is met by a high girde; in this case the break is made with an attractive little bib or bolera, which is embroidered effectively, the embroidery being repeated on the pointed over-skirt drapery. Gown and embroidery are of wood-brown crepe meteor, coral pink inserts being introduced under the embroidered motifs.

OVER THE TEA CUPS

ENTERTAINS AT CARDS.
Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Johnston had the members of the N. P. Whist club as their guests at a very pleasant party last evening at their home in South Hohman street. It was the first meeting after the long summer vacation and all the members were present. Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Hudson and Mrs. Henry Bicknell have been admitted as new members of the club since the last meeting and they were among the guests last evening. The evening was devoted to card games and the guests played bridge whist at small tables in the parlors. A prettily arranged picnic luncheon was served following the games and the remainder of the evening was spent in an enjoyable social way. The next party will be given in two weeks on Friday evening and Mrs. Frances Kingsley will entertain at her home in Webb street. Mr. and Mrs. Johnston had as their only invited guest last evening, Mrs. J. H. Wagner of Chicago and the following members were present: Messrs and Mesdames T. W. Oberlin, H. E. Sharrer, W. Paxton, A. Murray Turner, G. H. Austin, W. F. Bridge, V. S. Reiter, O. A. Kribbill, P. W. Hudson, Mrs. Henry Bicknell and Mrs. Frances Kingsley.

MENU IS COMPLETED.
The members of the Ladies' Aid Society of the First Methodist church have completed the arrangements for the chicken pie supper which they will serve next Tuesday evening, Oct. 5. The supper will be served in the dining room of the church between the hours of 5 and 8 o'clock. The public is cordially invited to attend as the proceeds will be used for the benefit of the church. The following menu has been chosen:
Chicken Pie, Potatoes, Salad, Pickles, Home-Made Bread, Jelly, Apple Pie Ala Mode, Coffee.

A COMMITTEE MEETING.
The members of the history committee of the Hammond Woman's club will hold their first meeting for the year 1909-10 Monday afternoon, Oct. 4 at 3:30 p. m., at the home of the chairman, Mrs. J. S. Blackmun, 46 Carroll street. Printed programs containing an interesting and instructive year's work will be given out among the members of the committee, which has a membership of more than seventy active members. The study at Monday's meeting will be "Vacation Reminiscences" as it has been the privilege of several of the members to take extended trips this summer. The following ladies will act on the program committee: Mesdames M. M. Bruce, M. Rothschild, J. K. Stinson, W. J. MacAleer and Julius Dunsing. The members who will compose the social committee are Mesdames J. S. Blackmun, J. Arthur Davis, Henry Burk, Adolph Hirsch and A. F. Rohrer.

ATTEND RECEPTION.
Mrs. Jacobs and Miss Lucy Barry of East Chicago came to Hammond last evening to attend the reception at the Masonic temple, given complimentary to the new teachers in Hammond.

AN EVENING RECEPTION.
A very charming society function occurred last evening in the Masonic temple at which the faculty of the Hammond high school and teachers in the grades entertained at an evening reception, complimentary to the new teachers in Hammond this year. An affair of this kind is planned for the opening of each school year to meet the new teachers, but the reception last evening was one of the most delightful entertainments of the series. An invitation to attend was extended to all friends and patrons of the Hammond school and several hundred people responded to the invitations. The receiving hours continued between 8 and 11 o'clock and in the reception line were the principals of the ward schools. Among those who were in the line were: Mr. F. D. McElroy of the Central building, Miss Nina Pettit of the Washington building, Miss Blanche Nixon of the Wallace building, Miss Rena Ames of the Lafayette school, Miss Lulu Symmes of the Lincoln school, Miss DeEtta Curry of the Riverside school and Miss Alta Adkins of the Irving school. They were assisted by Miss Margaret Blake and Miss Marie Stout. The guests began to arrive at 8 o'clock and met in the parlors of the temple for conversation during the first hour. The high school orchestra, directed by Professor Clark Learning, was stationed in the large banquet hall and played during the evening. Their selections from the light operas were especially enjoyed and many of their numbers were heartily applauded. Their program was one of the enjoyable features of the evening. At 10 o'clock the guests were served with a two-course luncheon in the large banquet hall. Several young ladies of the high school were chosen to serve. They were all attractively gowned in dainty summer dresses.

A SURPRISE PARTY.
Among the enjoyable social events of the week was a party given last evening by members of the congregation of the First Christian church in honor of the Rev. and Mrs. C. J. Sharp at their home, 750 Summer street. The party was given as a surprise to the Rev. Sharp and as a farewell before he leaves for the east for a short visit. About thirty friends were in attendance during the evening and they met in the parlors for conversation. A short musical program was also an enjoyable feature of the evening and several of the guests took part and rendered musical and literary selections. At the close of the evening a dainty course luncheon was served. While the guests were being served the members of the church orchestra serenaded the guests and played an attractive program of music. The guests then departed, having spent a very enjoyable time.

WILL MEET WEDNESDAY.
The members of the Jewish Ladies' Aid society will meet Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. William Elmer, 48 State street. A social program will follow the business meeting and it is desired that many attend.

CARD OF THANKS.
We wish to sincerely thank all of our friends for their kindness in our recent bereavement. Also the Rev. Wail, Knights and Ladies, Odd Fellows, Germania D. R. Sangerbund, quartette and Mrs. Diederich and Elster for music and floral offerings.
MRS. HENRY OTTO AND CHILDREN.

LEAVES ON A VISIT.
The Misses Hilda and Augusta Klein left today for Jacksonville, Ill., where they will spend a few weeks visiting friends and relatives.

AN ENJOYABLE PARTY.
Mrs. George Rawling and Mrs. John M. Turner entertained the members of the Eritham club very pleasantly yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Turner in Truman avenue. All the members could not attend on account of illness and visits out of the city, but those who were present reported having had a very enjoyable time. There were guessing contests and social games during the afternoon, after which a dainty course luncheon was served. The arrangements for the next meeting have not been completed, but a party will probably be given in two weeks.

AN INTERESTING MEETING.
The members of the civics club of the Hammond Woman's club met last evening for their regular meeting at the home of Mrs. J. S. Blackmun, 46 Carroll street. The program for the evening was as follows:

Cases Are Continued.
The fifteen cases which were filed by Leon Berezniak against the W. B. Conkey Co. in Judge Ames' court were continued yesterday until next Tuesday. Attorney Joseph Ibach appeared for Mr. Conkey and Attorney Berezniak appeared for the men who were discharged from the Conkey plant and are bringing suit for their wages. In the complaint Attorney Berezniak asks for the amount of the men's wages, $10 for attorney's fees and $1 a day for every day they were compelled to wait for their pay.

Had Two Hunter's Licenses.
Sylvester Radon was arrested by deputy Game Warden Charles Merryweather on the charge of hunting in Indiana without a resident hunter's license. He had a resident hunter's license in both Indiana and Illinois. The resident hunter's license costs but $1, while the nonresident's license costs $15. The game warden says that he cannot possibly be a resident of both states. In fact, he will be able to prove that he is a resident of Illinois. The fine for the offense is $45. The defendant gave bail for his appearance Monday.

Named the Wrong Davis.
Dr. W. H. Davis is a dentist. His office is over the Model Clothing store. Dr. J. A. Davis is a dentist. His office is over Ruff's hardware store. The initials of the two Davises were interchanged in the story telling that Dr. J. A. Davis had moved from over Ruff's hardware store to the Rimbach block. Dr. W. H. Davis wants it distinctly understood that he is not Dr. J. A. Davis; that he did not move to the Rimbach block, and that he is not a dentist of the "antiseptic painless" variety.

Edward Gray Missing.
The police department in Hammond today received word that a man 37 years of age is missing from his home, 2237 Washington boulevard, Chicago. He has a crooked nose as a result of having it broken, and has a scar on the top of his head. One toe is crippled and he has been operated on for appendicitis. The old house number is given as 878 Washington boulevard.
