LONG TOP COAT AND BEAVER HAT.

Very well equipped for shopping, business or traveling is this young woman who wears a smart new beaver hat trimmed with fur and one of the extremely popular long topcoats—the latter a model in mixed homespun. Velvet collar, revers and cuffs add a dressy touch to this coat, which removes it several degrees from the plainer utility coat for stormy days. Under such topcoats are worn dainty one-piece frocks of wool and mohair.

RISTINE-OSBORNE.
Crawfordsville, Ind., Oct. 7.—One of the most fashionable weddings of the autumn season in Crawfordsville was solemnized at 3:30 o'clock Tuesday evening at Center Presbyterian church, when Miss Helen Osborne, daughter of Prof. and Mrs. James H. Osborne, became the bride of Harley Theodore Ristine, son of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Ristine, of this city. Five hundred invited guests witnessed the ceremony, which was performed by Dr. Clarence Hall Wilson, pastor of the Center Presbyterian church.

The altar was banked with palms and ferns. Prior to the ceremony Miss Mary Peck Thomson of Chicago sang. The bride party entered to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march, played by Kirby Davis of Wabash. The ushers were Emory Osborne, brother of the bride; Theodore C. Frazier of Warsaw and Henry Crane Ristine of Crawfordsville, cousins of the bridegroom; Carroll Ragan of Chicago and Roger Wilson of Wabash. Frank H. Ristine of this city, brother of the bridegroom, was the best man; Miss Alice Rondthaler of Chicago, formerly of Indianapolis and Miss Louise Milligan of Indianapolis were bridesmaids; Mrs. W. L. Forbes of this city, matron of honor, and Miss Elsie Osborne, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Immediately following the ceremony a reception in honor of the newly wedded couple was given at the home of the bride's parents, who live in the Wabash college campus.

Mr. Ristine is a graduate of Wabash college with the class of 1902. After attending Harvard university law school, he began the practice of his profession in Crawfordsville. He was the republican candidate for prosecuting attorney of Montgomery county at the last election. He is a member of the Beta Theta Pi fraternity and the best man and the five ushers were all members of his fraternity. Tax collector of Beta Theta Pi attended the ceremony in a body.

The bride is the daughter of Prof. James H. Osborne, an alumnus of Wabash and for many years an instructor in the college. She is a graduate of the Crawfordsville high school and a musician of ability. Mr. and Mrs. Ristine will live in Crawfordsville.

RETURN HOME.
