

THE LATEST IN FASHIONS

VISITING COSTUME OF SILK AND CHIFFON CLOTH.

Soft silk of a pale blue shade forms the greater portion of this diaphanous looking afternoon costume. The semi-trained skirt, which is broadly banded about the bottom, is trimmed with parallel insertions of chiffon cloth embroidered in self tone, while the straight tunic of cel blue chiffon cloth is shirred into the waistband and widely bordered with black chiffon cloth. The round-necked bodice of blue chiffon cloth, which has a yoke and sleeve caps of satin-edged satin, is soutache-braided and satin button-trimmed to match the moderately-sized bishop sleeves. A black satin-faced cel cloth hat garnished with black satin ribbon and a blue chiffon-covered sunshade complete the costume.

OVER THE TEA CUPS

A COMMITTEE MEETING. The members of the literature committee of the Hammond Woman's club will meet Tuesday afternoon, March 22, at the home of Mrs. Harry Voigt in Williams street. It is the regular study meeting and Mrs. Charles Wilson will be chairman of the program committee for the day. The study subject will be "Pierre," by Sir Gilbert Parker. A very interesting program has been prepared with readings and talks by several of the members. A general discussion will follow.

ENTERTAIN AT DINNER.

Mr. and Mrs. Julius Hess very delightfully entertained a company of relatives and friends at their home, 38 Mason street, yesterday in honor of the confirmation of their son, Walter Hess. The guests were invited to a 2 o'clock dinner. They were served with an elaborate course dinner in the dining room. The decorations were prettily carried out in pink and white. A center-piece of pink and white carnations arranged with ferns was chosen for the table. During the afternoon the guests met in the parlor and listened to a program of music. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Paul Conrad of Tolleston, Mr. and Mrs. Julius Hess, Mr. and Mrs. Julius Wiese, Mr. and Mrs. Gus Muenich, Mr. and Mrs. Lemon, Miss Emma Hess and Mr. James Conrad.

A CHRISTENING. The christening of the little son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Adelsperger occurred yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock at St.

A DOUBLE CELEBRATION.

Very delightful society event occurred yesterday afternoon and evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Schofield in Hanover street, when a number of friends and relatives gathered to celebrate Mr. Schofield's thirty-first birthday anniversary and the twelfth birthday anniversary of Walter Ray of Lowell, who was here on a visit. A large number of guests came from Hammond and Lowell to extend their best wishes and congratulations and the guests of honor received many very pretty and valuable gifts. Among the gifts to Mr. Schofield was a cornet. At 1 o'clock the guests were invited into the dining room and served with an elaborate course dinner. Mrs. Schofield was assisted in serving her guests by Mrs. O. L. Schofield. The table was beautifully decorated with cut flowers and ferns, carrying out a color scheme in green and white. At the close of the dinner the guests were entertained in the parlor. The same decorations of flowers and potted ferns and palms were chosen for the parlor. A musical program was one of the enjoyable features of the afternoon and the remainder of the time was spent socially with other diversions. Among the guests were Messrs. and Mesdames T. C. Ray of Lowell, T. S. Rhodes, J. P. Schofield, H. W. Veach, E. E. Schofield, C. H. Schofield, Mrs. J. H. Custy and Mr. O. Grady, Misses Leona Ray, Gladys Rhodes, Marie Schofield, Florence Schofield and Ruth Veach, Master Alvin, Roy and Erwin Rhodes, Pulver and Eldon Veach, Danie and Leroy Schofield.

MR. AND MRS. HAMER ENTERTAIN.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hamer were host and hostess yesterday afternoon and evening at their home, 236 Lewis street, to a large number of friends and relatives in honor of their daughter, Miss Eva's confirmation. The parlors were prettily decorated with cut flowers and ferns, carrying out a dainty color scheme. During the afternoon the guests met pleasantly in the parlor for music and social conversation, after which they were invited into the dining room and served with a supper. The supper was prettily served in three courses. The table was attractively arranged with bunches of cut flowers and ferns. Miss Hamer was presented with many beautiful gifts in remembrance of the day. The invited guests included Messrs. and Mesdames A. Sievers of Chicago, H. Hamer, C. Crosby, C. Grady, F. Grady, Mesdames Knapp, Lehman, J. Koehler, Hauf, Haase of Hegewisch, and Mr. H. Hamer Jr., Misses Elin Hamer, Eva Hamer, Iva Sievers, Hazel Hamer, Della Crosby, Margaret Lehman, Louise Knapp, Doratha Knapp, Masters Herbert Sievers, Carl Grady, Ray Crosby and Theodore Crosby.

AN ENJOYABLE MEETING.

An enjoyable meeting of the members of the Dorcas Rebeckah lodge took place last Saturday evening in the L. O. O. F. hall on State street. The Odd Fellows were also invited to be present and there was a large attendance. Many visitors were in attendance from out of the city, among them the deputy grand master, H. E. Jones of Crown Point. The meeting was in the nature of a donation party and the members prepared a box to send to the Odd Fellows home. Several weeks have been devoted to the work of preparing the box, which contained many valuable and substantial articles. A short musical and literary program was rendered, after which a banquet was served. The entertainment was a very enjoyable one.

CLASS IS PHOTOGRAPHED.

The German Lutheran confirmation classes, after their morning church services, called at the Johnson studio on Palm Sunday and had groups and photographs taken. The studio had been decorated with plants and flowers.

Young People Surprise Their Friends.

Miss Ferrol Dickover and William Whitaker Are Wed in Chicago
Last Saturday Afternoon.

Cupid has been quietly occupied during the last season of Lent with preparations for a wedding of particular interest to Hammond people on account of the prominence of the young people. The parents of William Whitaker and Miss Ferrol Dickover received the first information of their marriage and announcement has been made in the younger society sets where they have many friends. The details of the ceremony have not been received by the Hammond relatives, although it is known that they left Hammond last Saturday for Chicago and were married there. There were no attendants and the ceremony was kept secret until yesterday when the parents received telegrams that they had been married and would leave Chicago Monday for Lansing, Mich. They will remain in Lansing indefinitely where Mr. Whitaker has secured a position. The bride, formerly, Miss Ferrol Dickover is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Dickover of Ruth street until a few weeks ago she attended the Hammond High school and was in her Junior year. She left school for the purpose of devoting her time to music and social life.

William Whitaker is the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Whitaker of State street. He was a member of the 1909 graduating class of the Hammond high school and in September entered Hanover College. He returned to Hammond only last week and his marriage to Miss Dickover followed. He was a prominent athlete in both high school and college circles, being a member of the track and basket ball teams. The announcement of their marriage will be a surprise to many of their friends and acquaintances in Hammond and vicinity, who will wish them all happiness in their new home.

although an approaching marriage of the young people was anticipated by the many school friends, it was not thought to be so soon.

The bride came to Hammond from Wabash, Ind., and entered high school where she has always been very prominent in the social and musical circles. She has been pianist for the high school orchestra and glee club during her residence here and has assisted on many high school programs.

She has also been a member of the Wood-Be-Good Club, composed of twelve high school girls.
