

MY! BUT IT WAS A BAD DAY

Thirteen Disorderly Gentlemen Are Taken to the City Bastile on All Sorts of Charges, Chiefly Intoxication, However.

Plain and fancy drunks, youths charged with disorderly conduct and violators of the city ordinances, thirteen in number, were arraigned before Judge Fred Barnett in the city court this morning. This was the largest number that has faced the court yet in his six months' career as judge. The weather was undoubtedly responsible for the conduct of some of the offenders. The drunks were disposed of in short order without any favoritism, each being assessed one dollar and costs. They gave their names as follows: Michael Sullivan, Hammond; Frank Hart, Kane, Pa.; Mike Marsh, Hammond; C. D. Schneelous, Mike Liddy, West Hammond; R. H. Wigginton, Hammond; George Frannett, GGH; S. V. Connors, Buffalo, William Jones, Bloomington, Ill.; John McDonald, Chicago. Most of them paid their fines. George Frannett was permitted to pay his fine after he had promised to let the "booze" alone, but an hour later he was back again, literally stiff with liquor.

Marchant in the Cooler.
Bernard Davidovich, Standard Steel Car foreigner was fined $25 and costs having been found guilty of stealing a bicycle which was the property of Otto Bailing, 435 Morton avenue. His own evidence which was very convincing, convicted him. The police, however, do not believe that he is connected with the gang that has been stealing the bicycles around town.

Harry Marchant, the well-known drayman, was fined $10 and costs for not having had a drayman's license. He had been warned repeatedly by the police since January, but paid no attention to them. The police say that he has shown no disposition to get a license, not even offering to pay fifty cents a month. Instead of permitting a levy on his horse and wagon he preferred to stay in jail, but after he has been there a day and a night he may change his mind about being a guest of the public.

Disorderly Conduct.
D. M. Hudson, a young Hammond man, was fined five dollars and costs on the charge of disorderly conduct. He got into an argument with the conductor on the Hammond, Whiting & East Chicago street car line yesterday. He was finally put off the car and pleaded guilty to the charge this morning.

H. B. Prevot, a young man around town was arraigned on the charge of disorderly conduct, George Brahms of the Palace of Sweets having been the complaining witness. The case was continued until 3 o'clock this afternoon.

MARTIN FINDLING SAYS HE WAS ASSAULTED

Victim Declares He Will Prosecute Assaulter If He Can Be Found.

While Martin Findling, who is employed at the plant of the F. S. Betz Co., was walking down the street with a young lady friend last Saturday night he was called to one side by Leslie Vaughn who, it is alleged, assaulted him in the presence of the young lady and gave him a terrific beating.

After the assault had taken place Findling was informed that he was charged with wounding the Palace of Sweets and that he had been beaten up for that reason.

Findling was on the way to a public concert and was compelled to forego the pleasures that he had anticipated. He was taken to the office of Dr. H. C. Groman where his injuries were dressed.

When called up on the telephone today Findling stated that he had made arrangements to secure the services of one of the best attorneys in the city and that the case would be prosecuted to the limit.

Findling is the fourth man who claims to have been assaulted and beaten by the wrecking crew of the electrical workers. The others are Tom Burke, a man by the name of Schapp, and Harry Heyworth who was recently initiated into the Elks lodge in this city. One of the victims was sent to the hospital as a result of injuries he received.

It is understood that Vaughn is not to be found but he will be arrested as soon as he can be located.

WHITING MAN ON A BAD RAMPAGE

Vicious Assault Made on Peter Harko by Mike Streachka.

(Special to THE TIMES).
Whiting, Ind., June 13.—What came almost being a cold blooded murder, occurred in Whiting on Saturday night, when Mike Streachka seriously injured Peter Harko.

Early in the evening Saturday, Streachka came to the station, and swore out a warrant for Harko, his brother in law, charging him with provocation. Officer Hughes was sent out to serve the warrant, but going to the Streachka home, 465 John street where Harko boarded, was surprised to find that he had made his disappearance, and could not be found.

About 11 p. m. Sergeant Collins and Officer Vacha, were in the station, and were startled by screams. Going out they followed in the direction from whence the noise emanated, and when about up to it, they flashed their lights, and could see there Streachka with an ax, assaulting his brother in law, and so loud was the noise that every time he would bring down the ax, and hit the man, the officers could hear the thud. They jumped over the fence, and yelled for him to stop, and

TANGLE IN CENSUS BY INJUNCTION

Tolleston Kept Out of Gary Count by Action of Seekers of Injunction, and Supervisor Doran Is in Bigger Tangle Than Ever.

Gary is once more the puzzle of the United States census bureau. Besides being such a problem that it takes 45 more days to enumerate this city than it did the biggest metropolis on the American continent, New York, with its 4,600,000 people, Director Durand at Washington has a new angle to work out.

Injunction Creates Tangle.
Saturday morning when the announcement was made that Tolleston was ready to become a part of Gary and not fight the annexation proceedings Mayor Knotts was jubilant as the city's population would be increased by 2,500. Then, like a thunder bolt out of a clear sky came the injunction from the hands of his old friend, Attorney E. G. Ballard, who served a peremptory order on the mayor and city officials not to kidnap Tolleston until the pleas of a citizen of that town, John D. Robbins, was heard before Judge McMahon.

Superior Doran is in a quandary about it. Today the remonstrance was directed to be withdrawn by the town board of the dissolving community and four-year-old Gary was ready to receive her 60-year-old town with open arms.

Can't Place 2,500 People.
With all of the injunctions and legislation Tolleston does not know whether it is Gary or itself. Neither has Mr. Doran been able to solve the tangle. He is now staying up nights to determine whether the town is on the map or not. It is not, then Gary can add 2,500 to her population. And if it is, a resolution of the Gary common council and the town board of Tolleston tells him that he is right, but on the other hand, the injunction of the Crown Point judge stays the hand at the counting machine. Thus the census bureau doesn't know where to put 2,500 people.

Citizens' Committee Meets Tonight.
Saturday night's session of the citizens' voluntary committee which is assisting the census enumerators in the work of getting the people they missed was poorly attended. Chairman H. E. Corbett announces that another meeting will be held this evening in the real estate offices of Pittman and Watson, Feuer building, Broadway.

CLARENCE SCHREIBER DANGEROUSLY ILL

Clarence, the eight-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. August Schreiber is in a very critical condition resulting from tetanus. He injured his foot some time ago but the accident was very slight. His condition was serious until Saturday when antitoxin was administered. His condition later grew worse and another dose had to be administered, and even then there was little hope for him.

SORE-THUMBED FANS RESTING EASILY

Bankers and Lawyers Line Up in an Awful Mess at Park on Saturday.

There was never anything like it, and promises only to be duplicated next Saturday. What? Why, the banker-lawyer baseball game last Saturday afternoon at Harrison park in Hammond. After comparing the various reports about scores, which were to the effect that the lawyers trimmed the bankers twelve to two, and vice versa the bankers the lawyers thirteen to three and that Attorney John Stinson asked that the game be started anew after the seventh inning when the score was twelve to twelve. The Times baseball expert does it out that the score was fourteen to twelve in favor of the bankers. This statement he makes without fear of successful contradiction.

J. Cannon Krost.
John F. Krost was the umpire, and was according to the statements of both sides a veritable Joe Cannon in the box. He used all known rules of baseball by his decisions and in a number of instances threatened to fine obstreperous players very heavily. He over ruled the lawyers and quashed their indictments and permitted no filing of demurrers. For the bankers he served notice that their accounts were over drawn, that they could get no credit despite good collateral security. For them he charged up everything to profit and loss.

Rheumatic gout is nothing compared with the way the members of the teams, especially the lawyers, feel even today. If it were not for the fact that they thought it would detract from their appearances they would hobble around today on crutches.

The Line-Up.
The line-ups were as follows:
Bankers: T. Bauer, C. J. Rippe, P. T. Well, ss; Wm. Ripps, 1st b; Paul Pedder, 2d b; A. Baker, 3d b; E. Ebert, r. f.; Ed. Engbreck, c. f.; L. Emmerling, l. f.
Lawyers: Craig, c; Bob McAleer, p; R. Ross, ss; T. Klotz, 1st b; L. Bomber, 2d b; Judge Barnett, 3d b; L. Modjeska, r. f.; E. Branden burg, c. f.; LeGrand Meyer, l. f.

The Report Was Wrong.
Having been informed that the program given at the West Hammond public schools last Friday was in connection with the closing of the schools, The Times in its edition of Saturday said so, but much to the disappointment of the little boy, it was an error. The program was given in connection with the annual exhibit.

Principal Deaver of the schools stated to The Times today that the school would not close until the 28th of this month.

The examinations will begin next Monday and will last a week. The graduating exercises will be held on Monday evening, June 27, at the school, and on the following day there will be a picnic on the school lawn.

ORGANIZED GANG STEALING BICYCLES

One Youth Is Fined $25 and Costs by City Judge Barnett Today.

Five minutes after Judge Barnett had assessed a fine of twenty-five dollars and costs against Bernard Davidovich this morning for stealing a bicycle, another theft was reported to the police, the victim being Ray Moors of Walter street. The machine was standing in front of the Gas and Electric Light office at the time.

The police are more convinced than ever that the work is carried on by an organized gang and the bicycles are being taken out of town.

WHAT IS TEDDY GOING TO DO THEN?

Hammond Men Are Interviewed by Times Reporters on Question That Is of Interest to the People of United States Just Now.

TIMES BUREAU.

AT STATE CAPITOL.
Indianapolis, Ind., June 13.—There is still much interest in whether Roosevelt will make campaign speeches in Indiana. It is certain that he will be invited but not absolutely sure that he will accept the invitation. The republicans are all hoping that he will accept, for they realize the great work he could do in Indiana if he should come in and help the republican ticket.

There has been a lot of democratic talk to the effect that the republicans who are opposed to Senator Beveridge's course on the tariff would try to defeat him for re-election even if they had to elect a democratic legislature. This talk, however, has disappeared, and in its place there has come talk to the effect that this element of the republican party will not do anything of the kind. One of the republicans of the old line, as the democrats like to call them, said the other day that there are no republicans who will vote against the legislative ticket.

"I do not hesitate to say what I think of the situation," he said. "I belong to the old line of the party, as it is called, and I am sure that if there is anything in the wind looking to the defeat of the legislative ticket I would know it for I have been campaigning for years in Indiana. But I have yet to hear of the first republican who is going to vote against the legislative ticket. We are all going to support the republican ticket from end to end and we believe we will be able to elect it. After the republican legislature has been elected the question of electing a United States senator will be taken up. It may be best for the party to send Senator Beveridge back to the senate. If that appears to be the best for the party it will be done. If, on the other hand, it appears to be best for the party to send some one else in his place that will be done. But the general belief is that Senator Beveridge will be sent back."

This same expression has been heard from several of the republicans who have been counted as unfriendly to Beveridge, and from the way they talk there seems to be little left for the democrats to take comfort in along that line.

A. F. KNOTTS SENDS INVITATIONS TO BAR

The members of the Lake county Bar association have been invited by President A. F. Knotts to visit his farm at the Knotts Mineral Springs at some time before court adjourns, July 1, and have a picnic and a regular country dinner.

It is expected that an entire Saturday will be spent in the outing and a great time is promised. The Knotts mineral springs are said to be one of the most attractive places in the country and the members of the Bar Association anticipates a good time.

The following attorneys were admitted to the Bar Association this morning, J. D. Kennedy, John F. Sawyer, C. B. Tinkham, John F. Reilly and Walter Hardy.

Gets a Good Order.
It is reported that the Standard Steel Car company in this city has secured a good order of cars from the Baltimore & Ohio railroad. The local plant is said to be in good working order and a lack of steel and the difficulty in securing carpenters is all that is holding the output back.

SHRINERS HAVE BULLY TRIP TO GARY

Orak Shrine of Hammond Has One of the Biggest Times in All Its History Last Saturday; Affair Concluded With Banquet.

The members of Orak Shrine in Hammond are a unit in the opinion that the affair last Saturday was one of the most successful that has ever been held in this city and Chairman Walter Hammond of the committee on arrangements has received many compliments on his management of the affair.

The automobile trip to Gary was one of the most pleasant features of the days entertainment. In all there were fifteen automobiles filled with shriners and after their arrival in Gary they all assembled at the Gary hotel.

The people of Gary were on the lookout for them and a large crowd welcomed the visitors. The members of the Shrine state that the automobile trip was splendid. The return was made through Indiana Harbor and East Chicago.

"WELL ITS ALL OFF WITH ME NOW"

Roseland, Ill., Youth May Die as Result of Flipping a Train.

(Special to THE TIMES).
Whiting, Ind., June 13.—Edward Jernberg, aged 21 years old Roseland, Ill., was most seriously injured yesterday, when attempting to get on a Lake Shore freight. It is thought that Jernberg was trying to get a ride home trying to alight from the train at Roseland, near the entrance to Lake front park.

The victim was taken to the office of Dr. Lauer and Hosking in a buggy, where after finding that he had broken his back he was taken to St. Margaret's hospital in Helwig's ambulance.

An operation will be performed on him, in the hopes of saving his life. Jernberg's coat was torn to shreds, and when being taken off of the buggy to the doctor's office he is said to have remarked, "Well I guess its all off with me now."

POLES HAVE CELEBRATION YESTERDAY

Yesterday was a red letter day in the history of the Poles, it having been the five hundredth anniversary of the battle of Grunewald, when 112,000 Poles routed the Knights of the Cross, who had settled as crusaders in what was then Polish, but now German, territory.

The day was observed with great pomp in Hammond, a big celebration having been held in Kendall's Grove. Poles marched in parade headed by three bands, their course having been down Hoffman street and then north on Sheffield avenue. In the parade were loyal Poles from Hammond, East Chicago, Indiana Harbor, Whiting, Gary and Michigan City. While there was plenty of music there was no dancing or festivities of that nature, the celebration having been more of a serious order. The annual celebration is only in its infancy and the movement in Hammond was greatly fostered by Father John of the north side.

Among the speakers were Judge Harry B. Tuthill of Michigan City, who is now a candidate on the republican ticket for judge of the appellate court, Prof. Plontkowski of Chicago, the Rev. Karpinski, who is assistant to Father John, P. B. Lipinski and Father John.

Attend Banquet.
A number of Hammond graduates of the Valparaiso university went to Valparaiso Saturday to attend the annual banquet of the alumni. The faculty kept open house in the afternoon. A nice program was carried out in connection with the reunion.

JUDGE H. B. TUTHILL WILL VISIT EUROPE

Republican Candidate For Judgeship Will Prepare for Campaign Abroad.

Judge Harry B. Tuthill of Michigan City was in Hammond Saturday to attend the Shrine meeting here. He informed his friends here that he will soon leave on his second trip to Europe.

He will visit England, Holland, Germany, Austria-Hungary, where he will see the passion play at Ober Ammergau, Russia, Finland, Norway and Sweden.

Judge Tuthill and wife started for Europe last year and while they were gone Mrs. Tuthill's mother died. Mrs. Tuthill's father is still living and for fear that he might become ill during her absence she will not accompany her husband.

Judge Tuthill will be accompanied by his brother Victor M. Tuthill of Grand Rapids. Judge Tuthill stated that he has looked over the political situation over the state and that the outlook is brighter every day. The judge is a candidate for the appellate judgeship.

RECORD IS MADE IN AFFIDAVITS

Neighborhood troubles figured largely in Judge Prest's court last Saturday. Over on Hanover street Ellen Kistler got into trouble and called upon the judge to issue a number of affidavits.

In a short time after the first affidavits had been filed the neighbors came in and 27 affidavits in all were made. Finally the judge called a halt and refused to issue any more affidavits.

The outcome of the case was that Ellen Kistler was fined $1 and costs and the cases against Mary Borden and William Kimble were venued to Judge E. P. Ames' court.

David H. Judah, the secret service man for the Elgin, Joliet and Eastern railroad had Mrs. Joe Key, Mrs. Mary Fink, Mrs. Alberta Cox, Lottie Peterson and Louise Yarak arrested on a charge of malicious trespass.

They were charged with stealing grain and with tearing out the linings of cars. Each was fined $11.70.

TWO ARRESTS ARE MADE

Robert Mercer Stripped of Star and Weapons and Head Badly Cut.

(Special to THE TIMES).

Crown Point, Ind., June 13.—Cedar Lake's first beautiful summer day was turned into a sensational and shameless riot because of the picnic crowd which came out from Chicago to hold revelry at Monon Park. An officer was badly hurt and several rioters were injured.

special police was so badly cut about the head that he had to be brought to Crown Point to have his wounds dressed. Two arrests were made by the sheriff's deputies and the men arrested jailed in Crown Point.

The affair took place where so many of its predecessors have occurred at Monon Park the Monon railway's pretty park on the west side of the lake where seven coach loads of picnickers came out from Chicago to spend the day. The picnic was given by one of the painters unions from Chicago.

BRAWL STARTS IT.

A drunken brawl started the melee. Two men engaged in a fight and Mercer sought to bring an end to the hostilities. Then a wholesale battle started in which the unfortunate officer was maltreated, a swarm of picnickers hastened to the rescue of the men Mercer sought to arrest. Mercer was stripped of his gun, club and star. Several men took his part and the conflict became general. Mercer was surrounded and badly beaten. His head was laid open with a beer bottle and a number of the rioters were beaten up pretty badly. A number of officers of the law then got busy and Sheriff Grant's deputies made several arrests. Mercer was taken to Crown Point where Dr. W. F. Houk was called up to dress his wounds. The arrested rioters were jailed and will have a hearing tomorrow before Judge Nicholson.

ANNEXATION CASES UP IN COURT TODAY

Judge Virgil S. Reiter announced today in Hammond that the trial of the Miller annexation case would be taken up at once. The attorneys in the case stated that it would take two or three days to try the case.

Attorneys Crumacker and Crumacker appeared for the remonstrators and Attorney Harvey Curtis of Gary appeared for the city of Gary.

Judge John H. Gillett withdrew his appearance in the Tolleston annexation case but it is understood that Attorney E. G. Ballard of Gary will carry on the fight for the Tolleston property owners.

Judge Reiter announced that there would be a resetting of the cases next Monday. This is made necessary by the fact that there have been so many delays that a resetting will be necessary.

The Lake County Bar Association held a meeting on the call of President A. F. Knotts after the call had been made. The court room was crowded with attorneys from all over the county. There were in the neighborhood of 75 present.

Comes Up Tomorrow.

The West Hammond election contest comes up in one of the Chicago courts tomorrow. Martin Fineran has been advised by his attorneys to be present at the hearing.

At this time the question as to whether or not the present town officials, or those on the democratic ticket, will be permitted to hold office will be decided.
