WHITE MOHAIR SUIT FOR COACHING WEAR.
The day of the coaching parade early in May was so bright and pleasant that many charming costumes were in evidence. A woman on the box seat of one of the coaches wore this smart little suit of snow white mohair, accompanied by a big black hat brightened by a touch of deep blue and silver Persian embroidery. The suit, as will be observed, has a modified Russian blouse which is held in to figure by an arrangement of cords passing under stitched straps of the material. White braid trimming and white satin buttons make the little coat rather dressy, but the skirt is a perfectly plain skirted model.

Days News In Gary

Wedding Is Revealed.

This is July 12 and it's going to be a day to be remembered by Edward G. Pariseau of the Club cigar store. Today Mr. Pariseau begins married life at 640 Broadway. Not that Mr. Pariseau becomes a benedict today. He is one already and June 13 was the day that the knot was spliced. The place being the Twenty-sixth Street Lutheran church, Chicago.

The bride was Miss Villa McCament of Bladensburg, Ohio, and early this morning Mr. Pariseau went into Chicago to meet her and bring her to their future home in Gary. Their marriage has been kept a secret until today the bridegroom told the story. The young couple first became acquainted while attending the University of Calparaiso.

Who Is Behind This?

Now who wants to locate the $125,000 federal building at Eighth avenue and Broadway or in Broadway between Eighth and Eleventh avenues?

Some one does but who it is no one knows. A resolution passed by the mysterious unknown has been laid before the city council asking them to endorse the location and then tell Uncle Sam about it. But the council knows that Uncle Sam does not take advice and anyhow each of the seven councilmen want the building located in their ward so there will be no getting together on the proposition.

Steel Is Satisfactory.

An improvement is noted in the conditions in the Gary steel plant. General Superintendent Gleason is now operating fourteen open hearths and six of the eight blast furnaces are in commission.

Blast furnaces number eleven and twelve are out of operation as they are being relined. As soon as the repairs are completed they too will be placed in commission.

Last week the production of iron was fifty per cent less than this week's and the improvement is very gratifying as it means additional business in the open hearth, rail, structural and axle mills.

Church Closed Temporarily.

Rev. L. W. Applegate, rector of the Gary Episcopal church will leave on his vacation in a few days to be gone six weeks. During his absence there will be no services and they will not be resumed until the new church is completed.

While he is away the church will be built under the superintendence of Harry Hall who constructed the Savage syndicate buildings.

This is Rev. Applegate's first vacation in eleven years and his congregation believes that he is well deserving of some recreation. In all that period of time the minister has missed but two Sunday services. He founded the Gary parish more than three years ago. Rev. Applegate says that he will drop into Gary occasionally to watch the building progress of the new edifice. Mrs. Applegate will spend part of her vacation with him.

New Reynolds Building.

Construction work has been started on the Reynolds apartment store building at Fifth avenue and Harrison street. Chief Consulting Engineer James Reynolds of the steel corporation is the owner. He is also the owner of the arcade building, bearing his name which is located at 524-25 Broadway.

Mr. Reynolds' new structure will be built by the Indiana Construction Company. It will be three stories in height and will have two store rooms and four flats. The fifth avenue frontage will cover two lots and the Harrison street side will have a depth of sixty feet. The cost will be $17,000 and the structure will be of brick and steel construction.

From Other Steel Cities.

At least one hundred men from other steel communities have arrived in Gary during the past few days. Some come to seek employment in the various plants of the steel corporation while others are in the city to invest money.

Among those who arrived yesterday are the following: H. Hillhouse, Birmingham, Ala.; E. W. Sommers, Pittsburgh; Sig. E. Kohn, Cleveland, and Gut Gestman, South Bethlehem, Pa.

New Club Started.

Tollstone, Ind., July 12.—(Special)—The Harmony Club was organized at the home of Mrs. E. Culver on Eleventh avenue Saturday afternoon. Mrs. Culver is president and Mrs. J. Roberts was elected secretary. Twenty ladies joined the club. After having selected the name, which designates what the club's intentions are, and chosen green and pink for colors, a contest was given. Mrs. Phillips won first honors, Mrs. Wildermuth received the consolation prize. The ladies then drew for the month in which they were to entertain in pairs the second Thursday of each month. The next meeting will be held August 11th at the home of Mrs. T. Wildermuth assisted by Mrs. W. G. Osborn.

The following ladies are members: Mesdames E. Culver, G. Hanford, W. Williams, C. Osborn, C. Burns, T. Strider, J. J. Roberts, C. Bania, G. Meyers, I. S. Pansile, W. Phillips, E. Regan, W. B. Gorrell, C. Elser, F. C. Willie, F. E. Harms, J. Gordon, W. G. Osborn, T. Wildermuth, W. G. Osborn.

HINTS ON CITY BEAUTIFUL.

Harking back again to the question of the moral aspect of the city beautiful we come to the question of the general use of profanity on the streets. People often wonder where little children pick up the profane expressions to which their innocent lips often give utterance. One need not wonder long, however, when one reflects that men passing up and down the streets give vent freely to the evil in them and that men also, commonly reputed to know better, swear indiscriminately in the presence of women and children, who are strangers to them, and who yet would hesitate to use the same language in the presence of those near and dear to them.

Hammond is comparatively well policed, and yet, if there are ordinances against the use of unclean and profane language in public they are not enforced or even attempted. It may seem like butting one's head against a stone to endeavor to institute reform along these lines, and yet a large majority of men would refrain from offending in this respect if they were really convinced of the harm that they are likely to do and the offense they may give along these lines.

HEARD BY RUBE

In yesterday's Post the editor insists on having Fourth avenue "clean through" to Fillmore street. Henry Coldbottle suggests that it be made clean all the way.

Crop reports indicate that the weather has taken a good deal of spring out of the corn.

Oh, well, if Miller wants to entertain itself by talking so much why should we care?

BY OUR AEROPLANE EDITOR.

From this date the Rube column will be given added luster by the contributions of our aeroplane editor. Garyites who travel in the air are recommended to read the following rules:

1. Passengers must not throw peanut shells overboard, as they are liable to hit Alderman Castleman.

2. As this line does not get its franchise from the city council, city employees will have to pay.

3. Real estate agents not accepted as passengers. Whenever the air gets too hot the craft capsize.

4. Passengers will please refrain from talking to the motorman or puncturing the gas bag.

5. In case the airship is wrecked passengers are requested to land in tree tops or in some soft spot. A compliance with this rule will meet with the favor of the company, as it will prevent damage suits.

New Item.—The funeral of thirty-five Pidos, Rovers and Taxies, killed in the big Newman massacre, were held this morning.

An attempt was made to burn a morgue in Gary yesterday morning. Two corpses are being held pending an investigation.

PLANS WATER TRIP

(Special to The Times.)

Indiana, Harbor, July 12.—Matt Sternberg, Jr., is planning on a pleasant two weeks' outing in his father's launch the SyGyZy. He and Tom Lewis will take a cruise about Lake Michigan and the Michigan rivers, leaving at noon today. They will put in at Michigan City, which is their first destination. St. Joe and other lake ports, stopping at hotels over night and getting up early in the morning so as not to miss an hour of the sport. At St. Joe they will be joined by Miss Flo Sternberg, a sister of Matt and Miss Minnie Kaufman and the young women will accompany the Messrs. Sternberg and Lewis on their river expeditions, taking in Grand Haven, South Haven and other points of interest. They will be gone two weeks. Mr. Sternberg however, returning in time for next Sunday's ball game at Indiana Harbor. After the same he will join his party at whatever point they may be stopping in at the time.

Friction Bearings or Ball Bearings—Which?

L. C. Smith & Bros. Typewriter

The ordinary friction bearing will wear loose. Each revolution or vibration grinds out a small portion of the bearing surface. After a while it wobbles—adjustment permanently ruined.

The New Model

L. C. Smith & Bros. Typewriter

is fitted with Ball Bearings throughout. Every vital wearing part—typebar joints, carriage, and typebar segment—has the kind of bearings that thousands of operations cause to run even smoother than at first.
