CHURCH SOCIAL A SUCCESS.

The Christian church social held last evening at the Langseth home on East Carroll street was a success in every way. The attendance was good, the lawn prettily decorated with flags, bunting and Japanese lanterns, and the program very attractive. Pugh's band furnished enjoyable music. Refreshments were served at small tables on the lawn.

MRS. ERLEFEIN HOSTESS.

Sewing Circle No. 2 of St. Margaret's Hospital was very pleasantly entertained yesterday by Mrs. Erlewein of outh Hohman street. Progressive pedro was played, Mrs. Young received first prize, Mrs. J. A. Emmerling second and Mrs. Eder consolation. The guest prizes were given to Mrs. M. Krichen and Mrs. William Phillips of Chicago. A delicious luncheon was served. In two weeks the club will meet with Mrs. William Bieker, 108 Ogden street.

MRS. F. A. BULL ENTERTAINS.

Mrs. F. A. Bull had the members of the Good Will Club at her home on East State street yesterday. Mrs. Smith received the hostess prize, Mrs. Smith took second, Mrs. Bull, third, while Mrs. T. Hart received the consolation prize. The luncheon was served at small tables. Mrs. Hart will entertain the club at its next meeting at her home on Sheffield avenue.

MRS. HUBER "AT HOME."

The No Name Card Club met yesterday with Mrs. Huber and spent a very pleasant afternoon. The first prize was claimed by Mrs. H. L. Dorton, the second by Mrs. May Huber, and the consolation by Mrs. Ryan. Refreshments were served in the dining room. Miss Anna Rohman of State street will be the next hostess.

MONROE STREET CHAPEL AID.

The Monroe Street Chapel Ladies' Aid met yesterday afternoon with Mrs. Olsen of Van Buren street. A good attendance is reported. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Stuart on Conkey avenue, September 8th.

J. F. F. CLUB TONIGHT.

Miss Georgia DeWeese will have the club at her home, 5 Rimbach avenue tonight.

CELEBRATING GOLDEN WEDDING.

Mr. and Mrs. David Dickson of 262 Sibley street are celebrating today their fiftieth anniversary. About fifty relatives are at the Dickson home today, where for many days active preparations have been going on to render the affair a pleasant success. Many of the out of town relatives were there to enjoy a one o'clock luncheon, while all were present at the big six o'clock dinner. The evening will be spent with music and conversation, which of course will recall many interesting recollections of early Hoosier days when Mr. Dickson came to Henry county from Canada sixty years ago. He was married to Miss Elizabeth Burris July 29, 1860 near Knightstown, Ind., where they made their home until they came to Hammond in 1883. Having lived here for twenty-seven years they are thoroughly competent to speak with authority on the evolution of Hammond from a tiny, sandy hamlet to a thriving industrial city in a comparatively short time. The relatives from Burdick of Woodlawn, Mrs. L. C. Arling of Wilmette and Mr. and Mrs. Sarah Hanlon of Crown Point.

HERE FROM LAFAYETTE.

C. I. AND S. ANNUAL PICNIC.

The employees, their families and friends will picnic at Spring Hill Grove,

St. John on Saturday. Trains will leave Chicago in the morning and at noon, gathering up parties along the various stations. A fine time is expected.

SHIRT WAIST DANCE A SUCCESS.

The H. A. A. dance given last evening at the club rooms was one of the pleasant social affairs of midsummer season. The party was very informal, the music by McKelvey and Haveli of East Chicago was excellent, and the attendance good. Frappe was served during the evening. Announcement was made that another "shirt waist dance" will be given August 15th at the club rooms.

COLONIAL CLUB MEETING.

Mrs. Julius Dunsing was "at home" to the Colonial Club yesterday and her guests spent a very enjoyable afternoon. Besides the members of the club, Mrs. Dunsing had as her guests Miss Ina Perry of Winamac and the Misses Edna and Forrest Walton of Lafayette, Ind. Late in the afternoon refreshments were served. Announcement will be made later as to the next place of meeting.

BOYS' CLUB TONIGHT.

Lloyd Hess will have the Boys' Club at his home this evening.

THE JUNIOR LEAGUE MEETING.

A meeting of the Junior League of St. Paul's Lutheran church was held last evening at the school building. Mr. Linsemann had charge of the meeting.

MARTHA SOCIETY MEETING.

The Martha Society of the First Christian church met yesterday afternoon in the parlors of the new church. It was strictly a business meeting yesterday. Plans were made to spend next Thursday afternoon in the Harrison Park, holding the regular meeting there and serving refreshments on the lawn.

STATE BOARD MEETING.

Dr. Mary E. Jackson will leave on Sunday for Indianapolis to attend the meeting of the State Board of Odd Fellows and Rebeccas, of which she is a member.

FROM ERIE, PA.

Miss K. G. Reilly of South Hohman street will have for her guest Miss Anna Burgermeyer of Erie, Pa. who will remain for a few days.

TO GO TO NIAGARA FALLS.

Miss Reader of the C. I. & S. Railway office will leave tomorrow for a trip to Niagara Falls and many eastern cities.

STANDARD CHILDREN TO LAKE.

The young men and ladies of the Baptist church will chaperon a party of about fifty children from the East Hammond Mission tomorrow afternoon. They will leave Hammond at 1:00 o'clock for Lake Front Park. The children are representatives of several nationalities, including Russian, Polish, Serbian, Slavish, Roumanian and Hungarian. The little folks will be "ticketed," and will undoubtedly enjoy the fine time being planned for their pleasure. The trolley trip, the picnic dinner, races and games in the park and wading in the lake will make the affair a feast of good things to these little people.

PERSONAL.

Mrs. Catherine Kaufman and little grandson William Palmer of East Chicago spent yesterday with Mrs. Mary Hansen and family.

Julian Youche of Crown Point is a Hammond visitor today.
