

SOCIETY AND WOMAN'S WORLD

THE LATEST IN FASHIONS

FUR IS THE FAD OF THE WINTER.

One positively cannot buy anything just now in Paris that has not somewhere upon it a touch of fur. All the gowns—even those intended for evening wear—have a soupçon of furry trimming. This stunning restaurant gown, with sable trimming, has three tunics, one above the other. The outer tunic is of chiffon and lace. Beneath that is a tunic of pale blue liberty satin, and this in turn falls over a satin slip in pale apricot pink. The sable bands are very narrow, and add greatly to the richness and beauty of the costume. The odd, scraggy ornament on the hat is in the form of a butterfly and is a deep apricot color. It is matched by a flower tucked into the belt at the left side.

AN INTERESTING MEETING.

A very interesting meeting of the members of the Ladies' Aid Society of the First Presbyterian church took place yesterday afternoon in the parlors of the church in South Hohman street. There was a very good attendance of members and they spent the time with the necessary business. After the routine work had been disposed of plans were made for a Bazaar and supper to be given during the first week in December. It will be the annual bazaar at which the members will have many articles appropriate as Christmas gifts for sale. The public will be invited to attend as the proceeds will be used for the benefit of the church. At the close of the business hour, a committee of members served dainty refreshments. The next meeting of the society will take place Wednesday afternoon, October 12th.

MRS. DRACKERT ENTERTAINS.

A most enjoyable gathering of Hammond ladies took place yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. George Drackert in State Line street when she entertained the members of the Ladies' Aid Society of St. Paul's Lutheran church. It was the regular bi-monthly social meeting and a number of members were present, although the attendance was not as large as had been expected on account of the disagreeable weather. The members met socially for conversation and music during the afternoon after which they were invited into the dining room and served with refreshments. The tables were prettily decorated with holly and garden flowers. At six o'clock Mrs. Drackert entertained a number of her friends and neighbors, not members of the society, at supper. They remained during the evening and spent a very enjoyable time. A nice sum was realized which will be used for the benefit of the church.

HOLD REGULAR MEETING.

The regular meeting of the members of the Ladies' Aid Society of the First Christian church met for an all day session yesterday in the parlors of the church in Calumet avenue. The members observed Consecration Day. They met early in the day and disposed of the routine business after which they sewed for the benefit of the society and church. At twelve o'clock a course dinner was served in the dining room and again during the afternoon a committee of members served dainty refreshments. Plans were made for a Halloween party to be given in the last of this month and the exact date will be announced later. The public will be invited to attend as the proceeds will be used for the benefit of the church. Another meeting will be held next Wednesday in the church parlors and a full attendance is desired.

Members of Opal Hive No. 896 I. O. T. M. took place last evening in I. O. O. F. Hall in State street. There was a good attendance of members and after the routine business had been transacted the time was spent socially. Plans were made for a Halloween party to be given in the last of this month at which a pleasant time is anticipated. The party will be in the nature of a masquerade. Other business of interest to the members was transacted after which there was a short social session when refreshments were served.

A SOCIAL MEETING.

Mrs. F. R. Mott was "at home" to the members of the Ladies Guild of St. Paul's Episcopal church yesterday afternoon at her Homewood residence. Mrs. Mott also entertained a number of friends not members of the guild, so that there was a large gathering of ladies during the afternoon. It was the regular monthly social meeting and a very pleasant time was passed. The afternoon was spent socially in conversation, and music was also a feature at the meeting until four-thirty o'clock when dainty refreshments were served. Another meeting will be held next Wednesday afternoon and announcement will be made of it later.

MEETING WAS POSTPONED.

There was no meeting of the members of the Ladies' Aid Society of the Congregational church yesterday, which was the regular meeting day. A meeting may be arranged for next Wednesday and announcement will be made of it later. The change was made on account of other social gatherings this week.

AN ALL DAY SESSION.

The members of the Deborah Aid Society of the First Christian church met for an all day session yesterday in the parlors of the church in Calumet avenue. The members observed Consecration Day. They met early in the day and disposed of the routine business after which they sewed for the benefit of the society and church. At twelve o'clock a course dinner was served in the dining room and again during the afternoon a committee of members served dainty refreshments. Plans were made for a Halloween party to be given in the last of this month and the exact date will be announced later. The public will be invited to attend as the proceeds will be used for the benefit of the church. Another meeting will be held next Wednesday in the church parlors and a full attendance is desired.

A DANCING PARTY.

The members of the M. O. W. announce a dancing party to be given Friday evening, October 28th in Long's Hall in State street. The members and their friends will be invited to attend and it is expected that there will be a large gathering. Arrangements are being made for a very enjoyable time. Dancing will begin at eight-thirty o'clock and continue until a late hour. Good music has been secured for the evening.

AN INTERESTING SESSION.
The members of Hammond Lodge No. 485 B. P. O. E. are meeting for an interesting session today in their club rooms in South Hohman street. The meetings were called for three o'clock and an interesting program had been arranged so that a large attendance was desired. The coming event, the Elks Fair and Bazaar will be freely discussed and explained. Seventeen candidates will also be initiated after which supper will be served at six o'clock.

A SOCIAL ENTERTAINMENT.
A very delightful social entertainment was given in Long's Hall last evening under the auspices of the Young Ladies' Sodality of St. Joseph's Catholic church. They entertained a large company of members and friends and realized a nice sum which will be used for the benefit of the church. The guests began to arrive at eight o'clock and at eight-thirty the card games were announced. Five games of pinochle were played at small tables in the hall after which the prizes were awarded. Mrs. Otto Kneuer received ladies first prize. Mrs. George Eder, the second and Miss Mary Spanier, the consolation prize. The gentlemen's prizes were won by Joseph Emmerling, Ed Hilbrick and B. Eisenhuth. Following the games informal dancing was a pleasant feature of the evening. An enjoyable program of music was played for the dancing. During the evening light refreshments were served. The entertainment was an enjoyable one in every detail.

MRS. SMITH A HOSTESS.
Mrs. Smith was hostess to the members of the Fleur-de-lis Club last evening at her home in Muenich Court at a very pleasant party. All the members were present and spent the evening very enjoyably with card games. Several games of pinochle were played at small tables in the parlors after which the honors were awarded. Mrs. Baer received first honors, Mrs. Huber, second and Mrs. Glasgow, third. The consolation prize was awarded to Miss Mae Huber. Following the games the guests met informally for conversation and music after which they were served with a dainty luncheon. The refreshments were served at small tables. Mrs. Truedell will entertain at the next party at her home in State street.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

All doubts as to the necessity of a systematic spelling course in the High School was forever abolished from the minds of students, who watched a serious Junior write the statement upon the blackboard that "A meeting of the Junior class would be held."

This sublime disregard for the teachings of Noah Webster is an affront and insult to that person and his followers. If this insurgent holds opinions differing from those expressed in the unabridged and cherished by many estimable countrymen he should be careful in forcing them upon others. A fellow classman resented the Juniors display of boneheadedness and the questionable spelling was changed before viewed by the faculty.

Probably the social side of school life as pictured so alluringly in the boarding academy stories is the most obscure side. At least it is that way in High schools. However it is not altogether extinct in the H. H. S. for festivities are already being planned. Upper classmen are forming hay-ride parties and it is reported that the first of these will be given by the Senior class upon next Friday evening. Roads leading south of Hammond will be the path traversed by the exclusive pleasure seekers. It might be advisable for all freshmen who abide along these highways to remain secluded upon the above mentioned evening.
