

IN SOCIAL CIRCLES

SHORT SKIRTS WORN WITH JAUNTY COATS

Younger women will continue to wear rather short skirts with the jaunty suit coats, though there is a tendency to make skirts a trifle longer and appreciably wider than they have been during the winter.

This clever little suit is built of mixed cheviot in a new shade of light biscuit tan and the satin trimming on collar, cuffs and pocket are a shade darker tone of the tan.

The back goes of the skirt fall over a front gore on which is a stitched knee band, the back panels appearing to button to the front, though the buttons are never put through the buttonholes, the panel at the back falling free over a facing of the material.

Friends in Hammond have received invitations to attend and anticipated the entertainment with a great deal of pleasure. Miss Mather formerly lived in Hammond.

RIVERSIDE SCHOOL MEETING.

The monthly meeting of the Parents' Club of the Riverside school was held Friday afternoon, the program being carried out as planned. Splendid papers were given by some of the mothers of the club and interesting discussions by the members present. It was decided to hold a social next Friday afternoon, March 17, at the home of one of the members, the proceeds to be used in buying flower seeds for each pupil in the school. The pupils are to plant the seeds this spring and next fall have a Flower Day when each one will bring a bouquet of flowers he has raised from

THE END OF TUBERCULOSIS.

You must address yourself to the task of sitting outdoors day after day most faithfully. You must make it your constant occupation and stick to it as though you were paid money for it. If you do not get the idea of continuous rest firmly set in your mind you will not succeed. By rest I mean lying down in a bed or chair in the fresh air. You are not to spend any time in a closed room except when bathing or dressing or eating. Rest all the time. Take no exercise or work until your doctor tells you—no walking, no standing, no rambling, no riding, no driving, no housework, no office work, no chores, no trips, no visits, no knocking about, no odd jobs, no exertion of any kind. Put yourself at rest in the open air after breakfast and stay there. Do not be forever jumping up and doing little things about the house or fetching and carrying. Every morning sit out; every afternoon sit out; every evening after supper sit out or lie in your outdoor bed.

these seeds and a prize will be given for the best bouquet.

CELEBRATES ANNIVERSARY.

Miss Ida Kodjker is spending a few days in Highlands the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. Kodjker. Miss Kodjker went to be present at a family reunion planned in honor of her father's Mr. S. Kodjker's seventy-fifth birthday anniversary. A large number of relatives from all over the county were expected to be in attendance to extend best wishes and congratulations to Mr. Kodjker.

CARD OF THANKS.

We wish to express our heartfelt gratitude to the many friends, neighbors, shop and office men of the Simplex, Employees at Calumet Park and the White Carnation Club for their kindness, sympathy and floral offerings extended to us at the time of our great grief, the death of our beloved wife and mother.

MR. F. G. BROSE AND FAMILY.

FASHIONETTES.

French knots are fashionable. Beaded effects continue in good style. The newest real shell hairpins are quite small and light.

The long, seamless shoulder remains in excellent vogue. Chemisettes are now of colored chiffon, made perfectly plain.

Revers that end in a cape effect at the back are used on little street dresses.

Scotch plaid is having a decided

MEETINGS RESULT IN 223 ADDITIONS; CHURCH CELEBRATES

Pastor Sharp and his people of the Christian church are rejoicing in the most wonderful revival ever held in northern Indiana. With 223 added to the church in three weeks or in eighteen days of actual meeting, and with 447 who have united in less than seven months it seems that the church and pastor would be content to take a rest.

However, the program, as announced, does not provide any place for a cessation of activities. As soon as one thing is completed something else already planned is launched. Tonight the Kandalls are to be here for their last appearance and give 200 views, entitled "In the Track of Paul." Mr. Learning is to sing "The Lost Chord." Illustrated by colored stereoscopic slides. A general big time of rejoicing is planned.

Tuesday evening the Garfield club will meet to vote in a large number of new members and to hold their regular meeting deferred from Monday night. Also the choir will hold its regular meeting on Tuesday evening.

On Wednesday evening the big workers' training class will resume its meetings, and on Thursday evening the young men's class under the leadership of Mr. Buck. The loyal sons' class will also meet on Thursday evening to further their organization and to plan for their banquet.

Friday evening will be the first number of the Garfield Lyceum lectures, entitled "Getting on in the World," given by Prof. Bogart of Valparaiso.

Next week there will be given three banquets, one by the young men's class and one by the Loyal Sons Class to the wide awake class of young ladies.

On Thursday night the church will give a big banquet and reception to the new members who have united during the meeting.

This is to be followed in short order by the two remaining lectures of the lecture course, and that by an Easter bazaar given by the Deborah society. Mr. Sharp goes to Indianapolis in a few weeks to hold a revival meeting for the Hillside Christian church, of which Charles M. Fillmore, the song writer, is pastor. At the close of the meeting he is expected to raise the money for a new $20,000 church building for the Hillside church.

vogue for both children's and women's dresses.

Small white satin beads are much used on the frock of black chiffon or marquisette.

Organdies are dainty and inexpensive and make delightful frocks for summer wear.

Special attention is given this season to parasol handles shown in handsome woods.

A quaint style suited to the slim figure is a velvet bolero suit trimmed with plaited lace.

Pointed jabots with edging of real lace are used on many simple undecorated blouses.

COUPLE HUNT LICENSE DURING RAIN STORM

Judge Prest May Decide to Run a Night Trick Soon.

Judge Prest thinks that he will have to put on a night trick at his office shortly, as Saturday night, or rather on Sunday morning, at 2 o'clock, he performed a wedding ceremony. The couple were Harold J. Strickland and Clara A. Wilkinson of Battle Creek, Mich. They came here from Chicago thinking they could get a license in Hammond, but had to get an automobile and go to Crown Point.

Clerk Shortridge came down to the court house half asleep and gave them their necessary papers, and they came back to Hammond to have the knot tied. They didn't seem to mind the nasty weather, as they had to drive to Crown Point and back in a heavy rain.

HOUSE IS ALMOST SOLD OUT

That Towle Opera House will be sold out for the home talent performance on St. Patrick's night Friday of this week was confidently predicted this morning, when the reserved seat sale at the box office was opened.

The entertainment will be given by a comedy company composed of members of All Saints' church. "Finnegan's Fortune," a three-act comedy, will be presented by this company, and in addition there will be extra in the way of pantomimes for which the little folks of All Saints' school have no peer in Hammond, monologues and singing, drills and tableaux enough to round out an exceptional evening's entertainment.

A matinee performance was given yesterday afternoon at All Saints' hall for the benefit of the school children, and the fact that the whole program was carried through without a hitch is evidence of the fact that everything is set for next Friday night even to the finishing touches.

While the advance sale of seats has been brisk, there are still plenty of good seats left which may be reserved by a prompt application.

STRONG ATTRACTION BILLED FOR TUESDAY

One of the best attractions of the month is "Madam X," which will appear at Towle's Opera House tomorrow evening. This play had a great run at one of the Chicago theaters and is pronounced one of the strongest dramas of the day.

It is very rarely that an attraction of this character may be seen in Hammond at the same prices that were charged in Chicago, and it is expected that there will be a large attendance.

Another big show which will come to Hammond on Sunday, March 26, is "Don't Lie to Your Wife," which is now playing at the Whitney theater in Chicago. This is another of the strong plays of the Chicago theater.

Next Sunday Graustark will be the attraction. This play is presented by a good company and should prove a good attraction. "School Days" attracted a fair-sized audience last evening and proved to be a very funny musical comedy.

WIFE OF FORMER MARSHAL ASKS BILL

Elizabeth Rogers Brings Divorce Suit Against Saloonkeeper.

Elizabeth Rogers, through her attorneys, Crumacker, Crumacker and Tinkham of Hammond, has filed a divorce against her husband, John Rogers, who was once the marshal of East Chicago and who is now an East Chicago saloonkeeper.

The complaint alleges that the couple was married Jan. 15, 1886, and was separated March 10, 1911. It is further alleged that Rogers is guilty of the use of intoxicants to excess, that he abused her and threatened her with violence. He is also alleged to have called her vile names. The plaintiff asks the custody of their three children.

The filing of the divorce is a surprise to the people of East Chicago, and the fact that Rogers is well known as the former marshal of the city adds interest to the proceedings.

CHANCE FOR YOUTH TO GO TO WEST POINT

Military Career Open For Some One in the Tenth District.

Able bodied bright minded young men of Lake County who have ambitions for a military career will have an opportunity to take the entrance examinations for West Point on May 2, at Ft. Benjamin Harrison, Indianapolis. A statement just issued from the general staff, calls attention to the fact that for several years the cadet corps at the United States Military academy has been from 15 to 25 per cent. below its full quota. It is regarded as important to the army that the institution turn out the largest possible number of graduates.

Because they believe that many young men are deterred from taking the examinations by the expense of the long journey to the present centers, candidates will be examined at the nearest suitable military post. Further to stimulate applications, the

Attend Baseball Meeting.

A number of representatives of the baseball team went to Hammond last night to attend the meeting of the County League, which was held in the offices of W. J. McAleer. The league will be composed of six teams, and Gary, on account of not having a suitable park, will during the first part of the season have a traveling team.

All the cities in the league are busy with the organization of their teams, and are signing contracts with players for the season. All indications point that the steel city will have a strong aggregation this year.
