First Cases on Call.
Tallitha Nachtrieb vs. Dinamore & Fleischauer. Bradley, Harper & Eheim for the plaintiff. McCabes & Bomberger for the defendant.

CRIMINAL
CALENDAR
IS SET NOW

The trial calendar of the criminal court has been issued from the office of Prosecuting Attorney Charles E. Greenwald and covers the coming week.

It will be noticed that a large number of cases are set. A larger number, in fact, than could possibly be tried. The explanation was given that it is proposed to put these cases on call and find out who is appearing in them.

The date of the trial will then be set in conformance with convenience of the attorneys who represent the various defendants. The attorneys who appear in cases on Monday's call are expected to be present and indicate that they represent their clients.

DEPUTY STATES ATTY.
A HARD WORKED MAN

So busy has Deputy Prosecutor Ralph W. Ross been with the criminal work that he has been compelled to do during the present term of court that he has found it necessary to take a rest, and some of the important cases that have been on the calendar will go over for a week or two.

These cases are as follows: State vs. Ballas, charged with arson; state vs. John Redmond, charged with grand larceny, and state vs. Steve Banich, charged with assault and battery with intent to kill.

Every one who has seen the work of Deputy Prosecuting Attorney Ross since he has been appointed commends him highly. He is given the reputation of being a good trial lawyer and the number of convictions he has secured makes his record an enviable one.

EMMA SORROW FILES DIVORCE PROCEEDINGS

Emma Sorrow, through her attorney E. G. Sproat, has filed a complaint for a divorce from her husband Joseph Sorrow in the Lake Superior court.

The complaint alleges that the plaintiff and the defendant were married March 25, 1910 and were separated May 9, 1910. It will be noticed that the couple were married only a little more than a month when they were separated.

It is alleged in the complaint that the defendant struck and beat the plaintiff and threatened to kill her with a razor. Since this happened the plaintiff avers that she has worked as a waitress in order to earn a living.

She charges further that he has charged her with indelicacy and that he was grouchy and mean most of the time. A divorce is asked.

Another Divorce Suit.
Margaretha Kohnke, through her attorney, R. R. Peddicord of Hobart, has filed a complaint for a divorce in the Lake Superior court in which she makes some sensational allegations.

She charges that her husband, Karl Kohnke, compelled her to live in a filthy house in a slough and would not permit her relatives to come and see her.

One of the most unusual allegations made in the complaint is that Kohnke is an electrician and earns only $100 a month. She alleges that the defendant would not support her, that he would remain away day and night and would leave nothing in the house for her to eat, and that finally her health was such that she was compelled to go to Tolleston to live with her parents.

She says the defendant has $100 of her money. She asks for a judgment for $100 and $12 a week for the support of the child.

Files New Action.
Frank Radloski, through his attorney D. J. Moran, has filed an action against the Standard Steel Car Co. in which he seeks $12,000 damages for the loss of an eye.

The plaintiff alleges that he was employed in the packing case up before Judge Virgil S. Reiter of the Lake Superior court, room No. 1, this afternoon at 3 o'clock. The county commissioners are being sued for several thousand dollars which the Reed-Bump

CONSTRUCTION CO. claims is due as a result of work done on the county jail.

Default Divorces.
Later this afternoon Judge Lawrence Becker of Lake Superior court No. 2 took up a number of default divorce cases. The custom of trying these cases on Friday afternoon is being followed by Judge Becker.

Judge Makes Edict.
Judge Lawrence Becker, of Lake Superior court, room No. 2, does not propose to have small boys listening to the revolting details of the loose marriage relations of the Gary negroes.

For that reason, and for the reason that it will not do the young men of the city any good to hear the details of one of the most brutal crimes that has ever been committed in Lake county, the judge ordered that a sign be placed on the door of the courtroom which reads, "Minors Must Stay Out."

Filed in Superior Court.
7309—Emma Sorrow (E. G. Sproat) vs. Joseph Sorrow. Divorce.
7310—Jacob C. Rough (Jyldick) vs. Kamel Komomechi. Suit on account. Confession of judgment for $925.
7311—Margaretha Kohnke (R. R. Peddicord) vs. Karl Kohnke. Divorce.
