THE OLDEST PASTIME.

Many people wonder how others can enjoy dancing so thoroughly, while to them it seems nothing more than folly and less than the most violent exercise and all to no avail other than the total disfigurement of the participants for other and more useful occupations. These ideas are indulged in by most people who are either too timid to try too prejudiced to desire to indulge in the refining and popular pastime of dancing. Dancing is and has been the popular pastime of all races of people from the ancient times down to the present time so why not learn to dance and be like your friends and neighbors, like your ancestors, like your brothers and sisters? You can learn. It costs little. Dancing may be acquired in a very few lessons. The cost is only $2 for a restricted course in waltz and two-step at the most up-to-date dancing school ever started in Hammond. Class nights are Monday and Friday from 8 to 11. These classes are for beginners only and no spectators are admitted. They are for ladies and gentlemen. You may start any class evening and be assured every courtesy and attention at DaRon's Dancing Academy over the Orpheum Theatre. Regular dances Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday nights—Advt. 10-7-11

A LUNCHEON.

Mrs. Frederick R. Mott will be a luncheon hostess Wednesday, October 9th at her home, 435 South Hohman street. Mrs. Mott will entertain for her daughter, Miss Irene R. Mott.

HONOR MRS. GRAVES.

One of the prettiest of the week-end parties was given by Mrs. J. C. Graves at her home, 435 South Hohman street, last Saturday afternoon when a company of young society folk were very charmingly entertained in honor of Mrs. Bernard S. Graves, a September bride. Assisting Mrs. Graves were Mrs. J. C. Graves of Hyde Park and Mrs. J. C. Kennedy. The home was very beautifully decorated for the occasion with bouquets of salvia and foliage. In the dining room shaded tapers were used at the service tables. The autumn

The police took up the matter at once and hope to find clues that will lead to the thieves' arrest. This is the first wire robbery that has been reported in some time.

Boys Are Suspected.

AT ORPHEUM TODAY

"Johnny on the Spot" with Royce Woolfolk's comedians headed by those vaudeville favorite, Dick Gardner and Anna Revere, will be the attraction at the Orpheum theater for three days, commencing Monday, Oct. 7.

A STUDY MEETING.

The name of Gardner and Revere has for many seasons past been an assurance in variety. Coupled with the name of Byron Woolfolk, who has to his credit such successful productions as "A Winning Miss," "Sunny Side of Broadway" and "Whose Little Girl Are You?" It seems almost safe in asserting that the forthcoming entertainment will prove one of the best drawing cards that the Orpheum theater has provided in many a long day.

Good Shows in Town.

Dick Gardner and Anna Revere in "Johnny on the Spot" at the Orpheum Theater is making a great hit. It is a musical comedy which Manager Hankenson claims is "very good."

This attraction will be on the boards

until Thursday. In the meantime the Jack Bessey Stock Company played to a capacity house at the Hammond Theater last evening.

The people of Hammond and the surrounding cities have not seen a good stock company for some time and that probably accounts for the large crowds that Bessey is drawing.

He is said to have a better repertoire

the society and church are invited. An interesting program has been arranged for the afternoon.
