HAMMOND TO HAVE GREAT CIRCUS

Country Club Will Make the Indiana Society Gap on Saturday.

Everything depends on the weather man for the Indiana Society doing in Hammond next Saturday evening.

If he extends the present hot spell of summer weather, a record-breaking crowd will be present and some record-breaking stunts will be pulled off.

Somewhat word has got to the Chicago contingent that the Hammond Country Club is extending itself on the entertainment to be provided and in the last literature sent out yesterday by the officers of the society it evidently is impressed with the fact that the Hammond end of the show is going to be the best part of the day's program.

The Hammond committee appointed by the Indiana Society consisting of Messrs. Shaver, Turner, Barry, Conkey assisted by Dr. T. W. Oberlin and H. M. Johnson met last night and prepared the signs for the circus parade which is to form on Waltham street come on Hohman street and down Ruth under the direction of Lawrence Cox to the club house.

This circus will undoubtedly be a feature of the outdoor celebration closely followed in importance by the oratorical recitals between D. E. Boone, Rev. C. J. Sharp and C. B. Tinkham and last but not least the old-fashioned patent medicine show.

The exercises at the "Last Day of School" will be a scream unless they develop into a riot and those who have seen the Bard of Alamo's poem say it will convulse the visitors. The program in full will probably be out tomorrow.

gram of bridal music. The bridal party entered to the "Bridal Chorus" from Lohengrin beautifully rendered by Mrs. Smith. The two little nieces of the bride served as flower girls. They were Kathryn Kauffman, who wore a dainty white lace frock and pink ribbons and carried pink kiltanney roses, and Ruth Smith who wore a pretty white frock and carried white roses. There were no other attendants and the bride and groom entered together. The bride wore an exquisite gown of white handkerchief linen, hand embroidered and trimmed with beautiful laces. She carried a shower of bride's roses. A dainty collation was served soon after the reading of the marriage service. Mr. and Mrs. Fuller left last evening for points in the east. They will spend several weeks at Washington, D. C., New York City, Albany and Niagara Falls. The bride will travel in brown tailored suit with hat to correspond. Mr. and Mrs. Fuller will be at home in Hammond after August 1. They have their home in Detroit street all in readiness. The bride is a daughter of Mrs. Simcoke, 311 East Sibley street and a very charming and accomplished young woman. She has a large class in music. She is a member of the A. D. Q. Club. Some of the season's prettiest parties have been given by the young women of the club in honor of Mrs. Fuller, among them a number of showers at which she received pretty gifts. Mr. Fuller is the agent for the C. and O. R. R. in Hammond. He has lived here for a number of years.

A PRETTY PARTY.
 A very beautiful party was given at the home of Mrs. Fay Lammering at 85 Carroll street last evening in honor of Miss Florence Shea. Mrs. Lammering and the Misses Florence Buzzard and Norma Robbins were hostesses and entertained at a kitchen shower in honor of Miss Shea, whose marriage to Charles F. A. Murray of Rochester, N. Y. will be solemnized Wednesday, June 25. The shower was given as a surprise to Miss Shea and she received many gifts from the young women of the M. T. Club who were the only guests at the party. The prize in the guessing contest was also won by Miss Shea. After a short program of music the guests were invited into the dining room for refreshments. A beautifully appointed luncheon was served in three courses. A large art basket tied with streamers of pink tulle and filled with pink roses decorated the center of the table. The favors were little baskets of June roses. Ten covers were laid at the luncheon table.

A LUXURIOUS SHOWER.
 Mrs. William Love entertained at a linen shower last evening at her home in Highland street in honor of Miss Mae Hanson, whose marriage to Dr. H. J. White will be an event of next Wednesday, June 25th. Many beautiful gifts were presented. Miss Hanson. Games were enjoyed during a part of the evening. In the floral contest, the prize, a bouquet of beautiful flowers was won by Mrs. Claude Palmer. The hostess then distributed stationery and the guests were asked to compose letters to Miss Hanson to be read while on her honeymoon, one letter to be opened each day. This feature of the evening was greatly enjoyed. At ten o'clock a prettily appointed two course luncheon was served. The table was decorated with white and pink carnations. In the parlors were festoons of pink and white crepe paper and there was a profusion of pretty flowers. About fifteen young women were guests at the party and enjoyed Mrs. Love's hospitality. Friday evening the Misses Emery of Ruth street will entertain at a six-thirty o'clock dinner in honor of Miss Hanson and on Saturday, Miss Howe of Oak Park, Ill., and Miss Julia Wall will entertain for Miss Hanson at Miss Wall's home in Michigan avenue.

SIMCOKE-FULLER WEDDINGS.
 A pretty wedding last evening was that of Miss Iva Simcoke, daughter of Mrs. Ada Simcoke, and Henry D. Fuller which took place at the home of the bride's mother at eight o'clock. There were thirty-five guests only the relatives and closest friends being present at the ceremony which was pronounced by the Rev. Frank O. Fraley, pastor of the First Methodist church of Hammond. The home was beautifully trimmed with a profusion of lovely flowers. In the ceremony room pink kiltanney roses were arranged with ferns in tall French baskets. The bridal colors of white and pink were carried out in all the decorations. Preceding the ceremony Mrs. Frank Smith played a pro-

ENTERTAINS WITH CARDS.
 Mrs. H. S. Ashbaugh entertained the members of the Pleasure Club very delightfully yesterday afternoon at her home in East Sibley street. Cards were the entertainment for the afternoon and pedro was played progressively at two tables. The first honors were won by Mrs. W. A. Hoke and prizes were also won by Mrs. O. G. Rautson and Mrs. Merchant. A dainty two course luncheon was served at four-thirty o'clock after several games of cards had been enjoyed. In two weeks the club will meet with Mrs. Martin Findling at her home in Morton Court and devote the afternoon to cards.
