VICTIMIZED THE PEOPLE

An agent who said he was connected with an aluminum outfit, recently headquartered in Chicago, recently victimized a number of East Chicago and Indiana Harbor people by a little confidence game which while there was nothing very clever about it, is new to this region. He represented that by paying for a magazine which he offered, he would give his customers a ticket for a chance on an entire aluminum outfit, and the book besides.

The magazine was a monthly, entitled "Household Economics" and subscriptions were $1. The agent showed half-tones of the kitchen utensils from which the housewives could make a selection and which were to be absolutely "free." He also showed cuts of the aluminum outfit on which he offered "chances," and which looked as though it would be worth at least $15. The agent got the dollar for his book in a number of houses on the north side, in East Chicago, as well as from several Indiana Harbor women, but they have looked in vain for the "free" aluminum kitchen utensils, and heard nothing of the lottery. The gifts were to have been received over a week ago.

The man who fleeced the women is described as short and blonde, well dressed and of smooth manners. He weighed about 140 pounds, according to one of his victims, Mrs. Amanda Johnson of Commonwealth avenue, and was about thirty years of age.

SCHERVILLE.
One of the most brilliant social events of the season took place in St. Michael's church at Scherville Sept. 30, 10 o'clock when Miss Caroline A. Doffin, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter C. Doffin was united in marriage to Mr. Nicholas Erb, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Erb. Rev. William Berg officiated. The bride was beautifully gowned in white and carried a bouquet of brides roses.

Miss Louise Doffin, sister of the bride, was maid of honor and Miss Christina Erb, sister of the groom acted as brides maid. They were beautifully dressed in white and carried a bouquet of pink and white roses. The groom was attended by Messrs Peter and Jos. Doffin. After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride. An elaborate three course dinner was served to 150 guests.

The home was beautifully decorated with oak leaves and ferns. The table appointments were in the bride's colors, white and pink, and were very beautiful. At six o'clock supper was served, after which time the rest of the evening was spent in music and dancing until a late hour. All report a good time. The many friends of the couple wish them much success and happiness. The bride and groom received many beautiful and mostly presents.

PROBE IS ASKED FOR ABDUCTION

Angered because Aldermen John Simlasko and Dominick Syzmanski were voluntarily spirited out of town before two council meetings by Citizens' workers, who feared that these two statesmen would be slugged, the Knights men at the city council last night took steps to investigate the alleged abduction.

Simlasko and Syzmanski were kept in "reserve" until meeting time on two occasions, and when the council met they stood against the mayor's list of election inspectors.

Big Tim On Warpath.
A resolution introduced by Alderman Englehart was passed providing for the investigation and the mayor named Aldermen Walsh, Englehart and Gallagher to do the investigating. Aldermen Simlasko and Syzmanski, who were "abducted" voted to have themselves investigated.

"Big Tim" in introducing his resolution states that rumors had drifted from Illinois that "wine, women and song and money had been used to entertain Gary aldermen" and that some folks might think that he was getting away with it. The Ridge road statesman announced that it reflected on the whole council and that all who voted against the measure were in fear. This nearly provoked a riot between Big Tim and Alderman Feeney.

The "abduction" referred to occurred when Simlasko and Syzmanski asked the Citizens headquarters to protect them from slugging and kidnapping plots. Accordingly, Pontus Heintz, the insurance man "abducted" the two heavy statesmen and kept them under guard in Chicago. They were "abducted" of their own free will and Mr. Heintz laughs at the charges made by Big Tim.
