A DELIGHTFUL PARTY.
The Misses Emery entertained a number of guests very charmingly last evening at their home in Ruth street in honor of Miss Minnie Turner and Daniel R. Taitt whose marriage will take place Thursday evening, October 30 at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James M. Turner, 303 Truman avenue. "Hearts" was played progressively at five tables during the evening, the prizes in the games being won by Miss Beatrice Hansen and Mr. Taitt. Two other contests were enjoyed during the evening, one in which the guests planned the wedding trip for the bride couple. A dainty luncheon was served. The appointments were in the bride's colors, white and yellow. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Mac Turner, Mrs. James M. Turner, Mrs. I. E. Emery, the Misses Minnie Turner, Julia Wall, Margaret Reinholdt, Dollie Knotts, Bertha and Beatrice Hansen, Messrs. Carr, Hilger, Work, Joseph Austgen, Herman Betz, Frank Hallett, E. H. Stiles and D. E. Taitt.

The most famous comic opera ever written is "H. M. S. Pinafore." See it at the Christian church Tuesday and Wednesday nights, October 28 and 29. Tickets 25 cents. A completely equipped stage has been built and the entire opera will be given with appropriate costumes, scenery, orchestra and chorus.

WILL RENDER COMIC OPERA.
The comic opera "H. M. S. Pinafore," or "The Lass That Loved a Sailor" will be given by the choir of the First Christian church Tuesday and Wednesday evenings, at the home of Mrs. John M. Stinson, 37 Waltham street. A completely equipped stage has been erected and the entire opera will be given with appropriate scenery and costumes. Professor Clark Learning has directed the rehearsals. The evening's entertainment promises to be very enjoyable and it is expected that there will be large audiences on both evenings. The following is the cast:
The Right Honorable Sir Joseph Porter, K. C. B., First Lord of the Admiralty—C. G. Ingraham.
