

After All---It's Quality You Want---Isn't It?

Especially in bread, the food product that every member of the family eats three times a day.

WARD'S BREAD

has won its high place in public favor, first of all because of its quality. There is no bread made quite so good, so nutritious, wholesome and appetizing as "WARD'S". You can buy it, your children can buy it at any time, at any store with a knowledge that it is the finest bread your money can buy and the best food value on the market for the price.

Twin City News Notes

Mr. John Roberts, general agent for the Elmore Copper Company of Idaho, and his wife will arrive home Saturday evening, August 2, after their four-weeks' visit at Idaho, Utah, Colorado and Nebraska at the leading cities. Mr. Roberts will be at his office Saturday evening and will be pleased to meet his friends as heretofore.

C. H. Reed, chief engineer of the U. S. Metals Refining Co., is enjoying his annual vacation in the only sensible manner on his front porch.

Some miscreants broke into the boat house of Bill Franke, of the Republic Mill, and after stripping it of the engine, etc., sank it in the canal near 151st st.

Miss Beryl Reed, of Beacon st., is planning a vacation in Colorado, starting Sunday. She will include in the party the Misses Silverman and Miss Gertrude O'Connor of Cheltenham.

Mr. George Olmstead and family, of Beacon st., are motoring to Arkansas, starting today and will be gone about two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Feltner, of Chicago, were the guests of Mrs. Reed of Beacon st. yesterday. In the evening they and the family enjoyed a boat ride to Big Island in Mr. Reed's boat, the "Anne R."

Mrs. Frank L. Evans, of North Magoun ave., and son Hadley are home from an enjoyable trip to Michigan of several weeks.

Mrs. L. W. Sario, of Guthrie st., is spending a part of the summer visiting friends at Winnetka, Ill.

Mrs. Lelia Vance, secretary in the law offices of Sario & Brissiey in Guthrie st., is leaving for a vacation trip of a few weeks which she will spend in Michigan towns.

City Treasurer Walter Harmon and his wife are taking an automobile trip to Iowa and later to Minnesota. The visit will be made to homes of relatives of Mr. Harmon. Mrs. Celia Johnson of 4715 Northgate ave., a sister to Mr. Harmon, will be leaving here with them.

The L. D. Kolbs, of North Baring ave., are entertaining the Mat Kolbs from Arkansas, who are dividing the time here and with the Kolb family of Hammond.

Miss Beulah McAnley, of the clerical force of Indiana Harbor post office, is having a delightful vacation trip through parts of Detroit and Canada with visits made to the homes of her former school chums at Detroit, where the McAnley family once resided. She will be returning within the next few weeks.

Mrs. Basil Johnston, of Northgate ave., entertained the Young Married People's Club at her home yesterday afternoon.
