LIVE NEWS FROM THE TWIN CITIES

At noon today the Chamber of Commerce of East Chicago and Indiana Harbor held a luncheon at the Phillips hotel.

The seven cent fare on the Hammond, Whiting and East Chicago railway company, was the theme for discussion.

Representatives of the street railway will be present who will make an effort to show that the increase is absolutely necessary if service is to be continued.

The dance floor at the Auditorium hall is being scraped and sand-papered for the coming event Monday. A big Moonlight Dance, something that Indiana Harbor hasn't had for a long time.

The Chasers of the Blues will have the doors open at eight and will close at twelve.

A meeting was held at the home of Vice-President, Barney Yedvah, for the following dances, which will probably start the first Wednesday in October and run every Wednesday till next summer. The first will be a Souvenir Dance, then a Prize Dance, Serpentine and Confetti dance, etc.

The Elks' Band Concert will give their first concert at the Riley Park at eight o'clock this evening. The Green Line and the South Shore both stop at the park.

A very large attendance is looked for.

Claud LeRoy of 3323 Ivy street, Indiana Harbor, employed at the Indiana Steel works, at the Blooming mill had his thumb and the tops of his fingers on his right hand cut off yesterday.

The Indiana Doctors are taking care of the case.

Harvey Kehoe of 3306 Grapevine st., Indiana Harbor, is being held for grand larceny.

He was arrested in Chicago with a Roamer automobile which he stole from Fuschick's Garage in Indiana Harbor.

Officers Mybeck and Hughes went to Chicago and brought him here.

The Remodeling Sale at the C. T. Dollars store of Indiana Harbor is progressing nicely.

The front of the store is being remodelled and when completed it will look like the entrance to a bank instead of a haberdashery.

Tonight is the big night at the Indiana Gardens where the Kewpies will give their big Kewpie dance. Kewpies will be given away to the lucky ones.

One of the largest crowds that ever filled a hall will gather at Madura's gardens.

Dancing will commence at eight and refrains of Home Sweet Home will be heard at twelve sharp.

Paul Rorfeld, residing at 136th and Guthrie street, Indiana Harbor, was arrested for being drunk. He was fined five dollars and costs at the city court.

The case of Charles Pitzelle of East Chicago, who was arrested for being drunk and disorderly was dismissed at the City Court at East Chicago and papers filed in the criminal court at Crown Point.

Tom Spother, living at the Marks Hotel, was arrested in Indiana Harbor for being drunk, he was locked up and put in the station at Indiana Harbor.

Later another man was put in for being drunk, answering the name of Rorfeld. Spother objected to being in the same cell, so started a fight with Rorfeld. Rorfeld hit Spother on the eye cutting it and a doctor was called.

The Elks' Dance isn't very many more days away, only nine more. Tickets are going like hot cakes, and from the looks of the tickets being sold the Elks will be able to have some nifty uniforms, they will be able to trim them with lace.

The 22nd falls on a Friday but that won't stop the crowd. The name of the Elks stands for a whole lot, and to make the dance go bigger the well known Johnnie Sterling's orchestra will play.

Honesty may well be accorded George Green, Jr., of 4236 Forsythe ave., who upon finding a purse at the corner of Exchange and Exchange, yesterday at noon delivered it into the hands of a Times representative for proper disposition to be made for customarily losers and finders usually wend their way to the classified columns and place their trusts and hopes therein and this was just one more of the many cases where their trust became justified in the restoration of the article lost and sought.

Mrs. Whitten proved to be the owner of the purse and called promptly for it. The matter of the purse ends with that part of the story, but the little that found it and with the utmost willingness wanted it to be returned to its rightful owner, deserves the greatest commendation if not the consideration of a reward which, of course, is up to the owner of the purse. George is son to George Green, who directs the Hartley orchestra, and namesake of his father who may be justly proud of him. He is nine years old.

IN YOUR GRANDFATHER'S TIME

Not the least of the benefits of the present day is the protection a man can get in the way of accident insurance. Weekly indemnity when he is injured; a handsome sum to his family if he is accidentally killed.

In the old days a man who was injured often endured poverty, or if he was killed his family had to take in washing.

There is no fear of poverty or the poorhouse in the family where the father or the working members carry an Aetna Accident Policy, which we sell.

PUDDINGS.

Peach Macaroon Pudding—One quart water, one-quarter pound macaroons, one egg, one and one-half cups milk, one level tablespoon cornstarch, one-half cup sugar, one-half pint cream.

Slice fresh peaches into a deep dish. On top of the peaches put a layer of almond macaroons. Make custard of egg milk, cornstarch and sugar in a double boiler; when cool, pour over macaroons and peaches. Put in refrigerator and chill. Just before serving whip a half pint of cream and put on top.

Nesselrode Pudding—One cup of mashed nuts (any kind), one cup raisins, one-half cup water, one-half cup canned peaches, four egg yolks, one pint cream, one-half cup crystallized cherries, one cup sugar, one teaspoon vanilla extract, one-third teaspoon almond extract.

Seed raisins, cut up peaches, and cherries. Boil water and sugar together for five minutes, then pour the beaten yolks of the eggs, cook in double boiler till thick. Strain, let stand till cold, add flavoring, and cream whipped, then nuts, turn into freezer, working to stiffen and add fruit, finish freezing, pack and let stand two hours.

Pineapple Snow Pudding—Soak half a package of gelatine one hour in a cupful of cold water; then stir in one and one-half cups of sugar, the juice of a lemon and a large cupful of cold water; then stir in one and one-half cups of sugar, the juice of a lemon and a large cupful of boiling water. Let the gelatine dissolve, strain the mixture and put it aside to cool. When quite cold beat the whites of three eggs to a stiff froth and into them beat the mixture, a spoonful at a time. Fully half an hour will be required to whip it all properly. When all is stiff put into the pudding a cupful of crushed Hawaiian pineapple drained as dry as possible. Turn the pudding into a mold and set on the ice. For the sauce you may either cook the pineapple liquid to a syrup, adding to it another cupful of crushed pineapple, and pour this around the mold when it is stiff enough to turn out on a dish; or you may make a custard of a pint of milk, the yolks of the three eggs and one-half cup of sugar; cook together in a double boiler until smooth and thick, set aside to be cooled before you pour it around the form of pudding which should be turned out on halved slices of pineapple. In any case have all ice cold.

NEW DISCOVERIES.

All dirty marks on white enamel should be rubbed with a piece of flannel moistened with methylated spirit. Then wash the enamel with warm, soapy water, dry and rub with a flannel sprinkled with whiting. Polishing with a dry duster completes the process. White enamel on furniture treated in this way from time to time retains its brightness for a long period.

A coil spring attachment has been invented for holding washboards in tubs.

Out-State Weddings are Illegal in Wisconsin.
[INTERNATIONAL NEWS SERVICE]
CHICAGO.—Young couples from within the boundaries of the Badger State can come to Milwaukee or other Illinois points and get married if they wish, but they are liable to get into a heap of trouble when they return to Wisconsin and start keeping house. The eugenic marriage law of Wisconsin has been held legal, and the judge ruled that marriages of Wisconsin couples performed outside the state to escape complying with the law are illegal in Wisconsin.

Better call up The Times and have it sent to your house every night. Then you'll be sure it will be there.
