Then there are the elephants, three herds of them, the seals, the lions and other wonderfully trained wild animals.

Will the kids be up bright and early? Well we would rather say yes and they'll see everything that's going on, you can bet, even to the unloading in the break of day and to the loading at night.

Besides there will be a monster street parade in the morning with its bright colored wagons of wild animals, the beautiful horses, the bands playing, the calliope tooting and last, but not least, a small army of clowns, all winking at our pretty Misses. Yep, it's going to be a great day.

COUNTY FOOD
DIRECTOR IS STILL ON CAMPING TRIP.

Urgent demands for immediate food distribution and price regulations in food, may necessitate the shortening of the two week's fishing trip of R. G. Parry of the Gary Land Company, who has received word from Dr. Harry S. Barnard, federal food administrator, of Indiana, requesting him to take charge of the county food administration which he held during the war. In company with Pontius Heintz, Mr. Parry left a week ago Wednesday to spend a two weeks fishing trip in the wilds north of Tower, Minn.

Dr. Barnard sent a communication to him, asking that he re-assume charge of the county food situation, to reorganize his county food machine and put his former deputies back on their old war jobs. Whether Mr. Parry will accept the offer and what his future plans will be will not be known until his return. He is expected back the first of next week.

Then there is no competition, are J. Marsh and William Welter will depart for an auto trip to the national capital.
