Mrs. D. D. Dixon, of South Maquon, and prominent in the local lodge circles, has been recommended by the local order at their last meeting for the decoration of civility, an honor to be conferred at a large session to be held at Plymouth, Ind., this coming Sunday, when the same degree will be conferred on two other women, the only representatives of the state, Mrs. Tom Knotts of Gary of the Genesis lodge and Mrs. Helene of the Hobart Elmer lodge. In all instances the expenses of the decoration of this honor upon women representing their respective lodges will be borne by the lodge of the local order and a beautiful and costly jewel is presented to the one so honored. Many from this city will witness the ceremonies attendant with the recognition conferred.

Miss Margaretta Darg and Miss Nina Martindale, two former teachers in the public schools of this city, were here this week the guests of Mrs. R. H. Wicker in North Maquon. Mrs. Wicker is located at present at Indian-

FRENCH PRINCE HEADS AERONAUTS

Prince Roland Bonaparte.

Prince Roland Bonaparte is president of the International Aeronautic Federation which recently held in Paris its first meeting since the outbreak of the world war. A resolution was passed that enemy aeronautic federations should be excluded from the International Federation until their countries are admitted to the League of Nations.

Miss Margaretta Darg and Miss Nina Martindale are at present at Indianapolis, while Miss Martindale is at Bensenville. Both were quite well known to many during their teaching experiences in this city and were welcomed by many while here on their pleasant visit.

Henry Williams, a graduate of this year's class of the East Chicago high school, has just returned from his summer vacation spent at Youngstown, Ohio, and on his homeward trip brought his cousin, Eleanor Jenkins, who will visit here for a few weeks. Henry will enter the Illinois University this fall to take up a course in engineering.

Miss Beanie McAnley, of the clerical force of the Indiana Harbor post office, is back from a delightful eastern trip of nearly three weeks.

James Brady, who resides on West 4th, and employed at the Republic Mills, has just been released from St. Margaret's hospital, where he has been confined several weeks with a fractured jaw he suffered while about his duties several weeks ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Huwig, of 4520 West 4th, have a little daughter born to them. This is the second daughter in the family and there is one son.

Mrs. W. J. Jenkins, of North Maquon, is away on a visit to the homes of relatives in Youngstown and Girard, Ohio. Her son Kenneth accompanied her and they expect to be back by Labor Day with Mr. Jenkins, the husband and father, who is leaving this week to visit in those towns also and later bring them back.

Mrs. John McGowan of Michigan avenue was hostess to her club this week with the usual diversion of cards enjoyed.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Lewis of Block ave. were in to see the circus at Grant Park yesterday.

Mrs. Emmet Markey of Grapevine st. and her children spent yesterday at Lincoln Park in Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Hansen of Kennedy ave. have had as their company this week trip to Cleveland, Buffalo and points in Canada. They expect to be gone a couple of weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Evans of Northcote ave. have had as their company this week Mr. and Mrs. Arthur English of Kankakee, Ind., and their son, Arthur, and Mr. and Mrs. Harold McCleary of Bradley, Ill. Mrs. English and Mrs. McCleary are sisters to Mrs. Evans and often make visits to this city.

A guest at the Frank Dawson home in South Cicero was this week Miss Lucy Costello of Kankakee. The Dawsons and their guest were entertained at the H. S. Evans home in Northcote, to dinner last evening.

The clerical force at the Portland Cement plant had all arrangements set for their annual picnic which has necessarily been postponed for the present. It will be held at a later date, however.

Mrs. F. Gaskey of Ivy st. has had a visit from her sister, Mrs. A. Neher, of Chicago. Both sisters are awaiting eagerly the arrival of their brother Thomas, the second of two brothers to arrive from across seas' duties. Walter who arrived several months ago, has gone to Meadville, Ky., to visit and will come back when word reaches him that his brother has arrived.

A joint celebration was held at the Van Gerkin home in Grapevine at last evening honoring the birthday obtained by Mrs. Van Gerkin's son Lester Day who is preparing to go back to the Texas border. Miss Amy Brockett attained her fifteenth birthday yesterday and both occasions were honored by a splendid luncheon repast and various amusements. There were a large attendance of young folks.

Mrs. F. H. Woodbury, of North Maquon, is departing for a visit with the W. A. Cox's at Racine, who were residents here when Mr. Cox was physician and training director of schools in this city and now in a similar but larger assignment with the Racine schools. Mrs. Woodbury will be joined over the week-end by her husband and she will return to this city with him.

Kills Pesky Bed Bugs P. D. Q.

Two ounce box of P. D. Q. makes a full quart of the best bugkiller on earth. Better than a barrel of old-fashioned bugkiller.

P. D. Q. (Pesky Devil's Quietener) kills like a 40-centimeter shell. It attacks bed bugs, fleas, roaches, ants and chiggers like, and not only kills the live pests, but the eggs as well.

P. D. Q. won't injure clothing, carpets, curtains, draperies or wall paper. Try it on the dog and see the flea dog.

Your druggist has it or can get it for you.
