DISTINCTION OF CARRYING BRITAIN'S CROWN PRINCE WHILE IN NEW WORLD WATERS FALLS TO THESE VESSELS

The British cruiser Dragon (above) and the British battle cruiser Renown in the harbor of St. John's, New Brunswick.

These two ships of the British navy will become familiar to many Americans about the first of November, when the Prince of Wales will pay his brief visit to the United States.

The British battle cruiser Renown brought the prince across the seas and will take him back to his home land about the middle of November. It has been announced that his royal highness will live on the Renown while seeing New York.

The British cruiser Dragon is being used by the prince to carry him from one Canadian port to another during his stay in the east. According to his present itinerary he will leave Quebec for Toronto on August 24, will leave Toronto for Ottawa on August 27, and will leave Ottawa for points west on September 1.

CURTAIN SALE

Beginning Aug. 26—Lasting to Aug. 30

We were extremely fortunate in being able to get another consignment of these famous Curtains, such as we offered last February to the women of Hammond and vicinity.

The enthusiastic manner in which that lot was taken by bargain-wise women impells us to suggest that you plan to be here early on the first day of the Sale in order to get the first choice—and the best choice.

Monday night we will announce more completely the details of the purchase and the prices to prevail on various lots included within it. Be sure that you read that advertisement. It will point the way to great savings on the Curtains you have been planning to buy for Fall.

No Business Can Be Hurt

By the unbiased and candid opinion of an outsider—your banker for instance. The best brains on the inside of an organization often overlook important points because they are too close to the grind to get a broad focus.

The men at the head of commercial houses who are working in close relationship with this bank say this is true.
