

CHASE ENDS U. S. TROOPS BACK HOME

INTERNATIONAL NEWS SERVICE
MANILA, Aug. 25.—During the six days that the United States' chase of Mexican bandits was in progress the Americans are believed to have killed at least six bandits, captured six more and wounded several. It was a weary mud-spattered band of riders that crossed the Rio Grand on the return journey. All of the men showed traces of the days of hard riding through the mountains and the nights of roughing it under the stars.

The troopers were expected to spend a short time at Candelaria resting up.

Although airplanes have been keeping American headquarters in constant communication with the movements of the troops and the developments at the "front" it was expected that some of the officers would hurry to Marfa to make personal reports to Col. George T. Langhorne.

The captured Mexicans are sullen felows and have accepted with ill grace the tasks put upon them by the Americans.

They were armed with an assortment of weapons, some of them old pieces of very small calibre.

It was emphasized today at the headquarters of Gen. Joseph Dickman that the present expedition had been withdrawn because it was found absolutely impossible to locate any additional members of the band. The orders to Col. Langhorne, it was explained, were to start back as soon as it was found that Jesus Renteria had evaded pursuit. The latest reports showed that he had taken alarm immediately after part of the ransom was paid and had headed for the south. At all times he had a lead that could not be overcome and was able to increase it because of the territory through which they passed.

The report that Renteria had been killed by an American machine-gunner is not credited at army headquarters, where it was stated that there was no doubt of the identification of the bandit located south of San Pedro.

A telegram was received at the headquarters of Gen. Dickman yesterday from Col. Langhorne announcing that a request had been received from Gen. Prudencio, the Mexican general who also was in pursuit of the outlaws, asking that American aviators be allowed to scout for band of Villistas near Palenque. This permission was not granted as the United States troops and airmen went across the line for the definite purpose of trailing certain bandits and no risk would be run of having any charge made that the troops were diverted from that purpose.

Prudencio's telegram to Col. Langhorne said that if the Villistas were located he would send a force of federal soldiers to attack them. It was also reported that Hippolito Villa was with this force. This is believed to be untrue as Hippolito, according to well-grounded reports in the hands of military officers, is in a hospital in Santa Rosalia. Francisco Villa is known to be in Parral and his physical condition precludes his leaving there.

FOUR YEAR MYSTERY IS UNSOLVED

Those who can look back 4 years ago today will remember that Gary's greatest mystery occurred and still remains unsolved.

It was just 4 years ago last night that Rev. Edmond Kayser, pastor of the St. John's Evangelical church at Tolleston, was shot to death in cold blood. He was found in front of his parsonage shortly after the murder by neighbors returning from Gary.

Everything indicated that the pastor had put up a desperate struggle with his assailants. In an effort to clear up the mystery, U. S. secret service men were in Gary working on the case and although dozens of suspects have been arrested, no light has been shed on the murder.

The Times' want ads bring as to be believed.

WILL GIVE PALMER $2,500,000 FOR DRIVE

Requests for Special Funds
Will Be Turned Down by Congress, However.

INTERNATIONAL NEWS SERVICE
WASHINGTON, Aug. 25.—Atty. Gen. Palmer will be granted a fund of $2,400,000 to conduct his nation-wide drive upon profiteers, but the request of the department of labor, commerce and agriculture for special funds will be turned down by Congress, according to members of the house appropriations committee today. It was stated also that the request of the federal trade commission for $500,000 for the employment of special investigators probably would be turned down also.

"We'll give the attorney general all asks for and then rely on him to start immediate action in the courts," said Senator Good, chairman of the committee.

"When the anti-profiteering law, which passed the house last Friday, comes up in the senate, probably this week, an effort will be made to put back into the measure the exemption for retailers doing an annual business of less than $100,000 a year, and Senator Harrison of Mississippi, will attempt to have rent profiteers included in the provisions of the measure, which, as it now stands, sets a penalty of $5,000 fine or two years' imprisonment, or both, as the penalty for hoarding or profiteering.

PACKERS DON'T LIKE KENYON BILL

Swift Man Says that It Will Increase the High
Cost of Living

INTERNATIONAL NEWS SERVICE
WASHINGTON, Aug. 25.—Increased

the cost of living will result should the Kenyon Bill to regulate and license the packing industry of America be enacted into law, L. D. H. Weld, head of the commercial research department of Swift and Company today told the Senate agricultural committee.

"The main objection to the bill," said Weld, "is in the fact that it was based upon reports of the federal trade commission, which are saturated with charging inaccuracies and misstatements. This, in itself, would be serious enough if the matter rested there. But it doesn't because if passed this bill will further inflate the already high cost of living."

"We'll say that the average price paid by Swift & Co. for cattle was about $92.70. The meat and by-products were sold for $105.51, leaving for expenses and profit, $10.81. Expenses, however, ate up $9.70, he said, leaving a profit to the packer of $1.02."

"This shows," he continued, "that the packers' costs are so small as to have no effect whatsoever upon the price the consumer pays for meat; that the packers' manufacturing costs are astoundingly low, and that the bulk of the return goes back to the farm for his live stock."
