

AMERICAN FLYER WILL GET MONEY

(INTERNATIONAL NEWS SERVICE) ROOSEVELT FIELD, Minn., L. 1. Aug. 28.—Unless his time is beaten before the New York-Toronto aerial derby ends tomorrow night, Sergt. Frank Coombs, an American flyer, who started from the Canadian city, probably will be judged the winner of the 1,042 mile race, and the $10,000 prize. Coombs gave his time in the air as 415 minutes for the round trip. Maj. Rudolph Schroeder, another Toronto starter, made the double journey in 575 minutes according to his log book while the flying time of Lieut. R. F. Midkiff, a Minnola starter, was 591 minutes. Coombs and Midkiff used DeHavilland machines; Schroeder a V-12.

Official announcement of the winner of the cash prize and trophies may not be made until Saturday night.

Nineteen contestants in the race had completed the round trip between Minnola and Toronto when flying was resumed this morning. The weather conditions had improved over night. It was cool with a stiff breeze, but the sun was shining and there was no prospect of further rain storms.

Word was anxiously awaited here today of the fate of Lieut. H. G. Slater, a Canadian entrant who disappeared on the Buffalo-to-Toronto leg of the flight. It is feared that Slater and his companion, Sergt. Strickland, were either lost in Lake Ontario or else were blown out of their course by the storm and compelled to land in some isolated region.

WELLING IS FAVORITE OVER MITCHELL

Joe's Admirers Offering 10 to 8 Against Milwaukeean for Coming Scrap.

Joe Welling rules favorite in Chicago in the betting for his match with Richie Mitchell at Benton Harbor Monday afternoon, and unless Milwaukee money shifts that of the Chicago crowd, 10 to 8 will be offered by Joe's admirers. Three days' work in the gym here has convinced the local lads that Welling is the better man. Joe is not only fast and clever, but packs a punch that spells kayo. Mitchell in his fight with Friedman showed none too well, and the sailor is considered only a second rater. The fans here argue that if Friedman can drop Mitchell and hold him even in the early rounds, Welling should win by a safe margin. Right now Joe is going his best. He has fought Jack Britton, Irish Patay Cline, Lew Tandler and other near champions, holding his own, so his friends see no danger of a defeat Monday afternoon.

BOXING REVIVED AT IND. HARBOR

Fans of the art of hit and getaway will have an opportunity of witnessing the revival of the popular pastime at the Indiana Harbor Auditorium on Labor Day afternoon, when Promoter Geo. Oswego will stage an excellent program of 26 rounds of boxing.

Oswego will be remembered as the promoter of the olden days and there was never a show conducted by him that did not go over. George not only gave the fans their money's worth, but ran his shows in an orderly manner. The long waits between bouts was also minus.

GIRL'S ONE PIECE DRESS.

Wool challis or henrietta will give just the right amount of warmth for the mild days of fall, and most school girls will need at least one frock of this character. A good looking blouse dress is shown in No. 9373. The closing is on the shoulders and if the blouse effect is used a body lining goes with it. The straight style of dress may be made with the opening at the left side front. Two styles of collar are given.
