The Ladies Study Club of Merrillville held their annual outing at Waverly Beach Tuesday, the 26th. Nearly the entire club went, going by way of the South Shore from Gary, arriving there at eleven a.m. Upon arriving there, an elaborate dinner was served them at a fish house, after which the ladies spent their time in various ways, bathing, climbing the dunes and visiting. When they decided to go home, they walked down to the beach, then a little girl guided them through the most beautiful parts of the dunes and by Mt. Lom. They arrived home late in the evening, all declaring the outing a great success.
