

McGUIRE TO TOSS FOR DODGERS

Not being satisfied with Elmer Mauger as his pitcher for tomorrow's game with Hammond, Manager Harry Cohen of the Dodger Trainings has signed Tom McGuire to do the hurling against the locals. McGuire, who is now the property of the Chicago White Sox, was left at home on their last trip and Cohen was fortunate in being able to grab him for this one game. Only two weeks ago McGuire was loaned by the Sox to the Paxton, Ill., team for an important game which they had with Peoria of the Three-I league and all that he did that day was to shut out Peoria without a hit. Aside from pitching a no-hit, no-run game, McGuire struck out 12 men and only 27 batters faced him in nine innings. He will try and duplicate the same feat tomorrow against Hammond's team of clouters, while his mates will be expected to pile up a lead on Baichley. Cohen has announced the following lineup for tomorrow's game: Crenin, 2b; Knyble, ss; Rudolph, cf; Haude, 1b; Dann, lf; Kropf, lb; Hellman, rf; Olson, c; McGuire, p. With Baichley doing the mound work for Hammond the home team will not be lacking in pitching. They swept the five game series with Washington by taking both ends of a double-header.

Praises of Jack Dempsey for the way in which he took advice during his training for the fight with Jess Willard and the assertion that he is the best heavyweight of all time are rendered by Jimmy De Forest, who trained the new champion for the bout. De Forest recently arrived at his home in Long Branch after spending a week with Dempsey at Cincinnati, where he appeared with a circus.

De Forest also gives Willard credit for the way he stood up against Dempsey. The ox-like punches of the new champion were terrific and it took a man with plenty of grit to stand up under them after being mauled about as Willard was, according to the veteran trainer.

"It is really distasteful to me to hear anybody say that Jess quit," says De Forest. "The remarkable part of the whole affair was that Willard lasted three rounds. He took a frightful beating, many of his teeth being removed at different times, in addition to being floored often. Jess is as game a man as ever entered the ring, and I bar nobody when I make that statement."

Barby and Coveleskie are the shining lights. When these gents are good, they are superb. Jim had gone through eleven victories when these figures were compiled. Barby never losing a game that he pitched throughout, and Coveleskie losing but one out of thirteen such contests. On the other hand, when these same gentlemen are bad, there is a little or no hope. Together they were derricked a total of eleven times, and ten of those games went fluky.

Morton's record has one redeeming feature. When he is lifted, there is still a chance for salvage. Nine times he has been sent to the showers, and three of those games were saved. Both of the games which Entmann started and did not finish were won by the Indians.

Here's the record. The first two columns are not victories and defeats for the pitchers; they are merely a record of the result of the games when a pitcher was derricked. The last two columns are necessarily victories and defeats for the respective pitchers.

Pitcher	Started and Taken Out.	Started and Finished.	Won.	Lost.	Won.	Lost.
Entmann	2	0	1	1	1	1
Jamieson	0	2	0	0	0	0
Jasper	0	1	3	1	3	1
Morton	3	6	5	2	5	2
Myers	0	2	0	1	0	1
Phillips	1	1	1	0	1	0
Uhle	1	3	1	0	3	1
Totals	8	26	34	6	34	6

Judging from the figures, all Cleveland needs to put the flap up in the southeastern corner of League park is a few more pitchers who can both start and finish.

PLAN RICHEST TURF EVENT.

Plans are under way to inaugurate the richest racing event in the world. It is a certainty to be run in Maryland with $60,000 in added money. This, together with the fees for naming the mares, would bring the total up to well over $100,000. The plan is to have each of the Maryland tracks, Pimlico, Laurel and Havre de Grace, contribute $20,000 each year toward the purse, the race to be run at each track in turn. R. J. Walden, the well-known Maryland horseman, is the leading spirit in the movement. Both Laurel and Pimlico already have assented to the conditions, and it remains only to obtain the consent of the Havre de Grace officials. The first running of this rich event will be held in 1921.

There is hardly a doubt that the race will materialize, as the various Maryland associations are making so much money that they are embarrassed with riches and are at a loss to dispose of their excess profits.

HE LIKES 'EM TOUGH.

Dr. Hen Williams hitched his horse to the post in front of the office yesterday and commented on the report from Indiana "U" about that young he-devil, John Kyle, who will play football against Minnesota this fall. John is said to be 100 per cent. perfect and one of the most dangerous young men ever. "Like to see him," said Doc as he unhitched his horse and wiped off his specs. "Like 'em tough; makes better football. Solong Giddap."

DETROIT NEWEST HOME OF DEMPSEY

DETROIT, Mich., Aug. 28.—Jack Dempsey, heavyweight champion, today declared he favors holding the next championship bout in Detroit. Dempsey will make his home here.

Dempsey is appearing in a local theater this week. He announced his plans today of building a residence here this winter, but first will spend some time on a Texas ranch.

Dempsey says he believes the new Michigan boxing law, permitting ten round bouts, will make it possible to hold championship contests here, and that he will meet the next challenger in Michigan, if possible.

TAGGING ALL THE BASES

By JACK VEIOCK I. N. S. Sports Editor

EDDIE CICOTTE pitched his twenty-sixth victory of the season against the second place Indians.

THE White Sox are now eight full games in the van of the Cleveland and Detroit Clubs, who are tied for second place.

THE Red Sox evened up the series with the Athletics, thanks to Russell's pitching and brilliant playing by Oscar Vitt.

THE Pirates maced the offerings of Sherdell for four runs in one inning and the Cardinals were beaten.

THE Yanks are making a belated spurt. They swept the five game series with Washington by taking both ends of a double-header.

THE Giants mauled Sherry Smith in one inning at Brooklyn. Art Nehf pitched in form for McGraw's men, giving the Dodgers but five scattered hits.

JONES' home run with two men in the fourth gave Detroit a neat victory over the Browns.

REDS GET OVER SEVEN.

The winning streak of the Cincinnati Reds now extends over ten straight games, and is the longest of the season to date by any club in the National League. In the American League the White Sox, Monday, ended a run of ten straight. On three previous occasions the Reds have won seven straight, only to be stopped on the eighth trial, but this time they got by that unlucky number. They have not lost a game since a week ago Sunday, when Cadore shut them out in Brooklyn. Since then they have won two from Brooklyn, three from Boston and three from the Phillies. All their other winning streaks were at the expense of the western clubs, and now they have cleaned up on the east also. The Giants, the Cardinals and the Cubs have each won seven straight, but no other club in the league has gone as far as eight.
