

CROWN POINT NEWS

Happenings Of A Day In Lake County's Lively Capital.

The Chrysolite Club enjoyed their fortnightly meeting on Thursday evening, the committee in charge of the evening's dinner being composed of Mrs. George Sherman, Mrs. P. T. Hard, Misses Hermina Lehman and Jessie Brown. Several new members were voted in the club, Misses Mary Dixon, Kate Blum, Elsie Koschicki and Ula Hall being elected to membership. Miss Leah Kraft of Gary, an out of town member was present.

Miss Ella Blackstone will be the guest of Miss Marion Macomber in Chicago on Monday and will attend a dancing party while there.

About $200 was realized from the sale of tickets for the benefit of the Winfield cyclone sufferers and the performance which was given by the young men from that vicinity was a very creditable one. A dance was held after the show.

The performance of Misses Maurine Beighway and Lela Barnes who took part in the Gary Musical Show this week, has been very creditably spoken of and much favorable comment has been heard on all sides over the way these talented Crown Point young ladies took their parts. Miss Barnes appeared in an Egyptian dance which brought down the house.

Mrs. W. N. Haywood of Chicago is in Crown Point for several days the guest of Miss Edith Maxwell at the home of Mrs. Fred Wheeler.

Miss Mary Dixon is confined to her home with an ulcerated tooth which has been causing her much pain for several days.

The Westminster Guild will meet with Misses Jessie Shillinglaw and Nellie Galbraith at the home of Mrs. A. H. W. Johnson on Monday night.

Mrs. Victor Wilson has been elected as a delegate to the meeting of the Missionary Societies at Logansport on April 15th.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Letz moved into the Joe Wilson house on Court street on Friday.

When Work is "Real Fun"

The woman who feels "fit" and full of energy through a long, busy day is the woman whose dress expresses not only style and smartness but real comfort as well.

You'll find that comfort in

Mina Taylor Dresses

for Discriminating Women

For Mina Taylor Dresses are made as carefully as if in your own sewing room. Materials are chosen by experts who are as particular as you yourself about fast colors and sturdy fabrics.

Buttonholes are worked with a "lock stitch" that cannot run, insuring a wear-proof, non-ravel buttonhole. Just a small detail but it's typical of Mina Taylor workmanship.

Fine, even stitching makes all seams secure. There is plenty of room across the hips and shoulders and through the bust, so there is no binding to annoy you.

The master patterns are fitted to living models, so that you can buy and wear your proper size in comfort. And allowance is made for shrinkage after laundering, so that your Mina Taylor is just as comfortable after washing as before.

Are you looking for comfort in your work? Then a Mina Taylor is just the thing for you. And you'll find here a variety of the prettiest styles to choose from that you ever saw.
