BIG RECEPTION PLANNED

The employees of the W. B. Conkey Company, through a special appointed committee for that purpose and headed by the chairman, L. S. Vailley, are contemplating elaborate plans for a reception and dance to be held on the evening of April 24th, at the Lyndora Hotel.

The musical accompaniment has been selected by Prof. August Harms and will consist of twelve pieces of the best exponents of jazz music known in the city of Chicago or elsewhere.

The program will consist of the celebrated Imperial Quartet of Chicago, widely known on account of their identity with the Victor records.

Miss Marion McAlister of this city will dance and Mrs. Lydia Walter Van Gilder, who has recently returned from an extended tour lasting several months with the Chicago Grand Opera Company in New York, where she was accorded great success, will render vocal entertainment.

Preparation for refreshments for the accommodation of at least 600 guests have been made through the hearty cooperation of the officials of the Lyndora Hotel.

Mrs. R. H. Morris entertained the Columbia club yesterday afternoon at her home. The highest scores were held by Mrs. E. D. McElroy and the second highest by Mrs. F. Easham. Guests prize was won by Mrs. Ida Trumpacker.

Afraid of Germs?

You have reason to be. Germs are as potent as the mightiest giant; germs have all but depopulated countries; germs have caused the death of every being the Creator has given the breath of life.

You have plenty of reason to be afraid of them. It's necessary that you should be on your guard at all times.

Now, how about that suit, coat or dress that may not only be soiled but may be carrying around myriads of germs that are only awaiting the opportunity to capture you.

We not only destroy the germs, but we bring back the original attractiveness of that once pretty suit.

We clean the most delicate fabrics or the most expensive domestic or oriental rugs.

Just telephone us and we will call and gladly give you any advice on cleaning.
