FULTON OFFERS $125,000 PURSE TO CARPENTIER

PORTLAND, Ore., April 20.—Tom O'Rourke, manager of Fred Fulton, offers Georges Carpentier, European heavy weight champion, a purse of $125,000 to meet Fulton in a twelve-round fight before the expiration of 1920, stipulating that Fulton will agree to stop Carpentier before the end of the battle, winner takes all or as Carpentier may see fit.

O'Rourke in his proposal, which he made public, promised to sign an agreement that Fulton, in case of victory, would donate his entire end of the purse to wounded and distressed American soldiers and would agree to permit Carpentier to retain or dispose of his share of the purse as might best please him.

O'Rourke's den has been sent to Des-

Trapshooters Brave Winds At Whiting

(SPECIAL TO THE TIMES) WHITING, Ind., April 18.—Fourteen real trapshooters braved the wind and rain Sunday, April 18, to see what a 1920 clay pigeon looked like. It was anything but a good day for the club's opening shoot, but when everybody is in good humor a little wet weather is not at all bad. Conditions for good scores were far from being good, but some of the boys hit the mud saucers in pretty good form. Following are the scores:

Notes from the Waiting Park Trap.

A. D. Buchanan and C. F. Person went 25 straight in the 50-bird event.

Chas. Emery got 45 out of 50. Some shooting, Chas.

G. Bush, the East Chicago shooter, started off in fine form, getting 22 out of 25. What was the matter after that, Mr. Bush?

The club house was a welcome sight to all the shooters.

Herman vater could not get going just right.

All the shooters gave the trophies and medals the once over and pronounced them worthy for any shooter to try for.

Wanted—100 members. Will you, Mr. Shooter, be one of the lucky ones to join the Whiting Trapshooters Club? The Waiting Park traps are at your pleasure.

Next shooting date will be May 2nd.

Now they're preparing for a heavyweight battle between Jack Johnson and Fred Fulton. Said battle is to be staged at Tia Juana across the border from San Diego, Calif. Arrangements for the bout seem to have proceeded further than the preliminaries. Sometime in May or June. This will be one fight where the plaster will mix clay not white.

But then if Johnson really has his eye on Carpenter and actually imagines that by besting Fulton he can meet the Frenchman—then too kout, Fulton!
