

SEIFER TO CELEBRATE HIS SUCCESS

SPECIAL TO THE TIMES
WHITING, Ind., April 30.—Business is the actual selling of goods, will be suspended tomorrow at the big furniture store just completed by the Seifer Furniture Co. in Whitling and in place of business the employees will devote their entire time to making the big crowds of visitors feel at home and help them get a look through the store and its vast stock of new furnishings. Tomorrow, Whiting celebrates—everybody calls him Sam—impressively happy. The big day has long been looking forward to by all hands. He is solely responsible for the erection of the big three-story building which the Whiting branch now occupies. It was his confidence in Whitling and the Calumet region which prompted the organization of some company which has expanded rapidly until it now operates three large stores in Whitling, East Chicago and Calumet Harbor.

TIMES has pictured the development of the business from the humble building on New York ave., to its removal to the Rech building at 119th and Clark sts., then to the present site five years ago after the new building was erected. Two stories have now been added to the new home, making one of the finest furniture stores in Northern Indiana.

As Sam was showing a representative of THE TIMES through the big store he confided the astounding information that nothing is to be sold tomorrow. "No sir," he said emphatically, "tomorrow is the day we greet our friends. You can't get a price on anything before Monday morning. We are not going to sell a single article on the grand opening day."

But he is going to give away some things though. In a large open space on the third floor are arranged 5,000 live blooming plants which are to be presented to the women visitors. Then there is a stack of cigar boxes from which the men will receive their little mementos.

Employees are busy as bees today putting the finishing touches on the preparations so that everything will be ready for the crowd early tomorrow morning. "You see," said Sam, "we have set the day aside strictly for the purpose of entertaining our customers and their friends and we are all going to be dressed in our Sunday clothes and do nothing but show the folks about."

THEY THANK WILSON FOR ALLOWING THEM TO GO HAIRCUTLESS

surprises in store for his patrons. He class in which the city still remains. In 1910 East Chicago had only a few industries and practically all of the commercial trade of the city went to Hammond. Now the industrial section of the Twin Cities is the largest in the state with the exception of Indianapolis, and with its nearly a million dollar a week payroll is second only to the capital city.

East Chicago, as a city, is still suffering from a lack of large merchandising interests, although indications point to a growth of these interests during the next year, and is handicapped severely because of the lack of housing conditions which compel the men employed in the plants of the city to look for homes in other cities.

Estimates of plant and city officials and census officials show that about ten thousand men who work in the Twin Cities are living in the surrounding cities and it is the belief that at least a half of these men would live in the Twin Cities if homes were available. These men with their families would increase the population by at least fifteen thousand and would place East Chicago far above Hammond. Efforts are now being made to accomplish this.

Citizens of the Twin Cities are pointing with pride to the growth of the last ten years and are predicting that the potential population of the Twin Cities will soon become a reality and will place East Chicago at the next census as a close competitor of Gary for honor of Lake County.

The growth of East Chicago and Indiana Harbor, however, during the past ten years is one that is equaled by few cities of the country. In 1920 the official figures gave East Chicago only 10,000 and placed the city in the fourth Sheriffs and other authorities here are digging with picks and shovels at a point between the San Joaquin and the Borego valley in an effort to unearth the body of Nine Lee Delaney of San Francisco, named by Charles N. Harvey is declared to have confessed that he killed the Delaney girl and buried the body at the point he designated.

WHITING MAN IS SERIOUSLY INJURED

Vincent Muse is Arrested After Auto Runs Over Jacob Millek.

SPECIAL TO THE TIMES
WHITING, Ind., April 30.—Jacob Millek, of 812 John street, was quite seriously injured at the corner of New York and Flischrupp avenues, when he was struck by an automobile driven by Vincent Muse, of 715 Schrage ave.

Millek was crossing the street when hit by Muse, who runs a soft drink parlor and is a new driver and it is thought he must have lost his head and stepped on the gas instead of the brake at the time of the accident as Millek clung to the radiator for several minutes.

Congo "Little Mother" Carries Doll On Her Back In True African Fashion

Black and White
Dolls are dolls the world over, and little mothers, little mothers.

This little Parisienne of the white hood came all the way from America to give little Miss Africa her first sight of a real doll. And Little Miss Africa—for despite the close-cropped hair and the nondescript clothing, she is "Miss" Africa—mothered her at once.

And because the babies of Africa are carried on their mother's backs, little Miss Africa straightway carried her new treasure on her back.

The "first real doll" came by the hands of missionaries, and by the hands of missionaries the pleasures and the rights of childhood are being given to the little ones of Africa. In the missionary program for Africa which thirty denominations, co-operating under the name of the Interchurch World Movement, have formulated, schools for the education of African children and teachers to instruct their parents how best to care for them, are provided.

To back a world program, in which Africa has a large part, a fund of $336,777,572 will be sought the week of April 25 by a canvass of every Protestant in the United States.

utes in an effort to keep from being run over and had Muse been able to stop the car at once Millek would not have been so severely injured.

Millek was picked up and taken to the office of Dr. Dewey, where, besides severe cuts and bruises, his right leg was fractured in two places. The injured man was then rushed to the St. Margaret's hospital in Hammond.

Muse was arrested by officer Parker and was later released on a $500 bond signed by Chas. R. Klose to appear for trial May 4.

Early Rubber Goods Imperfect.

Many were the troubles that early manufacturers of rubber goods experienced on account of the propensity of rubber to expand or contract with the heat.

Daniel Webster, who was Mr. Goodyear's counsel in his patent litigation, humorously referred to a fine cloak of India rubber he once owned, stating that in cold weather it stood well by itself, and that he often set it out on the porch surmounted by his hat, many persons passing by mistaking it for the Sage of Marshfield himself.

To Duplicate Baby.

One day while out walking I met Little Grace, the daughter of a dressmaker, wheeling her little brother. After kissing the baby I asked Grace if I could keep it. "Oh, no," she answered, "but mother would lend you a paper pattern for one like him."—Illustrated News.
