

LION STORE EMPLOYEES HAVE GREAT PICNIC

Day Was Made to Order for
Big Store's Outing at Flint Lake.

"Popularity is promised the hip with a hunch—but there was nary a popular hip in the bunch."

In spite of which fact everybody at the big annual picnic of Lion Store employees held yesterday at Flint Lake, had a good time and arrived home safely.

From 11:15 when the three special cars from Hammond arrived on the grounds, every moment was crammed with excitement. Many were the diverse entertainments offered. There was a basket luncheon which it is believed by one missed intentionally, bathing, boating and baseball.

Neither Mr. Kaufman nor Mr. Wolf were seen to leave the dance hall during the three hours allotted to Knoll's Jass orchestra, which lived up to its reputation for irresistible dance music.

For the poem written in celebration of the event, Miss Florence Kuhn was awarded the prize. Moved by the muses Miss Kuhn penned the following lines which moved the judges, Miss Clara Wolf of San Antonio and Harry Chandler.

Miss Kuhn's poem was:

Come one, come all with a whoop and a call.

To the Lion Store picnic, a good time for all.

Cars will leave at nine in the morning.

Those coming late will be left without warning.

Bring your baskets with plenty of lunch.

Popularity is promised the hip and the "hunch."

There'll be ice cream and candy and everything fine.

That comes along the Real picnic line.

And we'll also have a fair substitute for the stuff that puts folks on the "toot."

Games and contests with valuable prizes.

Races for ladies and gents of all sizes.

Bathing and dancing, whichever you choose.

Anything, everything, except Old Time Booze.

All are warned to be careful that naught may occur.

To give this picnic any kind of a blurr.

There'll be free cars for home on the Gary line.

After all have had a rip of a time.

Happy and ready to start the Home Run.

And talk of the picnic for six weeks to come.

Here's to the men who allowed us this day.

Kaufmann & Wolf, with Payne as their star.

May happiness be theirs to keep.

For as one says, so shall he reap.

In the boy's race, Thomas Hart and Phillip Payne took prizes; the winning
