

HARDING WON'T HURRY ACTION

BY JACK BOYLE
(STAFF CORRESPONDENT I. N. SERVICE)
MARION, O., Dec. 9.—No hurried action was to be taken by Senator Harding on the question of resigning immediately from the senate. Senator Harding made this announcement today after sending a formal telegram to Gov. Cox acknowledging Cox's offer to appoint Senator-elect Frank B. Willis to succeed the president-elect in the senate.
In speaking of the offer, Senator Harding said this course had been dictated by the critical illness of Mr. Willis' father and his own arrangements affecting his senatorial duties.

BULGARIA IS RECOMMENDED

(INTERNATIONAL NEWS SERVICE)
GENEVA, Dec. 9.—Admission of Bulgaria to the league of nations was recommended to the assembly today by the committee on applications for membership.
Immediate admission of Austria to the league had previously been recommended. These are the only two enemy powers whose admission to the league of nations has been considered.

Announcing Another Whirlwind Sale of Women's COATS, SUITS, DRESSES

Sharply Reduced Nearly a Half —at— $29.75 Values that Formerly Sold up to $55

This is more good news to every woman and miss who is looking for economy in this season's wearing apparel. Her search is ended here, for only an investigation of these garments points the way to the best satisfaction for the most particular chooser. Price-adjustment has caused this great reduction, but of course it does not hinder the superior quality of their materials and fine workmanship. Each coat, suit and dress at the beginning sold for very much more and in order that we find room for new stocks we must clear away every garment. Therefore, we believe you have never experienced such remarkable reduction just before Christmas as is here now. Descriptions are unnecessary—their high qualities can be proven by a visit and at the same time grant you a most exceptional saving. Why not come tomorrow for the best choice in the lot. There are sizes and styles for all types of women.

Positively NOT, have any of these Coats, Suits or Dresses been purchased for sale purposes — each one represents our regular stock.
