

HARBOR MAN SHOOTS WIFE AND HIMSELF

Family Brawl Result of Jealous Quarrel Causes
Double Shooting

Two persons were shot and the lives of two others were endangered at midnight Saturday as the result of a jealous quarrel between Alex Bokain, who conducts a soft drink parlor at 3202 Guthrie St., Indiana Harbor, and his week-old bride, Rose Bokain, the former wife of Frank Paul.

DAUGHTER TELLS OF QUARREL

Miss Martha Paul, a young daughter of Mrs. Bokain's first husband, came home from her work at the Central Drug Store on Michigan avenue, where she is employed, and upon arriving at home noticed that her mother and step-father were acting queerly. Martha asked her mother what was the trouble, but the mother did not reply. The mother, then went down to the basement to gather some clothes that were hanging on a line, the father following.

About ten minutes after, two young men came into the soft drink parlor and asked the girl for a few nickels. Martha gave them the nickels and one of the young men walked over to an electric playing piano and deposited a nickel. He then requested that Mrs. Bokain dance with him, which she did. This caused the husband, Alex Bokain, to become very angry.

"Both young men, after the dance, left the store," said Miss Paul. "And my mother went back down to the basement, and I followed her."

We had been down there only a few minutes, while my mother had been telling me of a little quarrel which they had before I arrived home from work. In the meantime, my step-father, who had crept down the stairs to listen to what we were saying, walked over to me and asked me what his wife had been telling me. I replied, nothing.

He then ordered me to go back upstairs and see whether there were any more customers in the store, which I did. There being no one in, I went back to the basement and when I went back there, my step-father was holding my mother by the face. I could not hear what he was saying. He held her for about two minutes and then reaching into a pocket of his trousers, pulled out a revolver and fired several shots at my mother.

I do not know what happened after that, except that I screamed and then my step-father turned the revolver on himself. I ran out of the house and over to Harbor Garage, and called the police."

POLICE ARRIVE

When Captain Downey of the Harbor station arrived on the scene, both people were lying on the floor and were bleeding profusely, and he sent for Dr. Tessenden, who upon arrival, found that the woman had been shot in the face, while the husband's wounds could not be ascertained. Both people were rushed to the St. Margaret's hospital. The attendants there do not believe their wounds to be serious.

The revolver, which was of .32 caliber, was found by the police, lying in a pool of blood on the floor of the basement.

BOMB EXPLOSION ROCKS SOUTH GARY

A terrific bomb explosion which was felt over the entire city of Gary, fairly rocked the south side foreign district early this morning, damaging thousands of dollars worth of property, shattering windows a block or more away and throwing residents of the neighborhood at 18th and Washington street into a state of terror.

The front of the grocery store and blind plug of Frank Locoratano and Paul Miccolis at 1608 Adams street where the death dealing missile was placed supposedly by members of the black hand was almost completely wrecked. As far as is known, no one was injured as a result of the detonation.

The explosion took place shortly before one o'clock Sunday morning. It was felt in the heart of the downtown business district and many paid no attention to it thinking that the explosion was caused by slag being poured from ladles into the lake at the mill.

By the time the police arrived on the scene they found the neighborhood in a state of commotion. Upon entering the wrecked store, the police found Frank Locoratano sitting up in bed in a room in the rear of the store.

Apparently he had just awakened and upon being asked if he had heard the explosion, he remarked no. Later he admitted that he did and told the story that a year ago had received a black hand letter from Chicago asking him for a certain sum of money. Living in constant fear of his life and family, he never reported it to the police.

Upon making a closer search the officers uncovered a quantity of liquor in the store. They found 12 gallons of moonshine and in the neighborhood of fifty quarts of wine. This they seized and took the owners of the place to the station where they were questioned. It was reported this morning that the police also found an unexploded bomb in the basement of the store. It was made out of a flattened pipe and contained a charge of nitro-glycerine and black powder.

As a result of the explosion dozens of windows were broken in the neighborhood. A similar bomb explosion occurred in the same neighborhood about a year ago.

CONSTANTINE READY TO SAIL FOR GREECE

Expect to Embark on Greek
Cruiser Next Wednesday

News Service and the London
Daily Express)

LUCERNE, Dec. 13.—Constantine of Greece and his wife Sophie, a sister of the ex-kaiser were busily engaged today in saying farewells. They expect to leave for Venice tomorrow and sail from that port for Greece in a Greek cruiser on Wednesday. Another Greek ship will sail from Brindisi bearing the rest of the party that will accompany Constantine when he makes his formal entry into Athens.

Constantine and his wife have been engaged outlining reforms which they hope to have enacted by the Greek parliament. Constantine said that Greece would be thoroughly democratized.

Although the queen declared in a recent interview that she does not mix in politics, she is planning to launch a national movement for woman suffrage in Greece after her return. She said she has become "a suffragette in a sense" since her arrival in Switzerland.

"I am truly delighted at the idea of returning to our dear Athens," she said. "There are dark days and there are bright days and I think the world will agree that we have had our share of dark days. It has been said that I was pro-German but I have been more pro-British than anything else. I have more friends in England than anywhere else."

Constantine's consort was in deep mourning for the late King Alexander who recently died in Athens from blood poisoning. She is a tall, handsome woman, but shows traces of suffering and age.

Consternation was caused among the Greeks exiles by the Greek government's order barring Prof. Streit, naval commander Parapagalo from returning from Athens. Prof. Streit was Constantine's chief adviser during his exile.

As a result of the explosion the windows were broken in the neighborhood. A similar bomb explosion occurred in the same neighborhood about a year ago.

Constitution was caused among the Greeks exiles by the Greek government's order barring Prof. Streit, naval commander Parapagalo from returning from Athens. Prof. Streit was Constantine's chief adviser during his exile.
