The home of Mr. and Mrs. H. Klaprodt of Hegewisch was the scene of a quiet wedding Sunday afternoon at four o'clock when their daughter Mildred, became the bride of Gus Magdanz of Hammond. Miss Mable Rosenblatt, a cousin of the bride and Fred Magdanz, a brother of the groom, were attendants. The bride wore a traveling gown of blue tulle and champagne with a corsage bouquet of white roses and lilies. The bridesmaid wore a white dress with a black sash and a corsage of yellow tea roses. Mr. and Mrs. Magdanz will make their home with her parents.

The home economics department of the Hammond Woman's Club met Thursday afternoon at the Washington school. There were 56 ladies present who enjoyed a most interesting demonstration of Christmas cakes and their decorations. There will be no meeting of the home economics department during the holidays. They will meet January 19.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Potts, Eugene Shrandor of Gary, Mr. and Mrs. K. A. Brown and son Junior of Chicago were dinner guests last night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Benner of 18 Condit street.

ARE SOLONS HOSTILE TO LAKE COUNTY?

will espouse the cause of a man who worked against him in the primary in preference to some other candidate who worked for the success of Mr. McCray. Edward Toner of Anderson, who was one of the gubernatorial candidates opposing McCray, is the manager of the McClure boom. During the primary Mr. McClure served as one of the active managers in the camp of his fellow townsman, Toner.

Another point that is presented, and which may be considered as a factor against McCray, is that Toner and his adherents are violently opposed to the abolition of the primary law in the nomination of United States senator, and governor. Mr. McCray has declared that he is opposed to the primary and will seek its repeal.

Therefore, it is not believed that Mr. McCray will seek to give the important position in the house to a man who may feel it his duty to block any action to repeal the primary law as it
