

WIFE CONFIDENT DOCTOR WILL BE ACQUITTED OF MURDER OF TEACHER

Dr. H. C. Winnes and wife, photographed during the doctor's trial at Harlan courthouse.

Entirely at ease despite the net of circumstantial evidence woven about his actions by the state, Dr. H. C. Winnes, formerly assistant state veterinarian by Kentucky, recently took the stand in his own behalf in the Harlan Ky. courthouse and denied having any part in the slaying of Miss Lura Parsons, Pine Mountain school teacher. He is charged with murdering her as she walked from Dillon railroad station to her school. Winnes told of his conversation with her regarding cattle at the school before she left the station, but denied having seen her en route to the school. Winnes voluntarily gave himself up when the warrant was issued for his arrest and when he was indicted by the grand jury. A negro convict is awaiting trial for the killing of Miss Parsons. He was seen near the scene of the killing.
