

HAMMOND SUPERIOR COURTS

Mr. and Mrs. William Yoder of Hammond have filed a petition to adopt 12-year-old Jamie McElroy, who has lived with them for some time. The girl's mother is dead and the father is in Colorado. H. E. Granger is attorney for the petitioners.

Karoline Frankhina, who lives at room 1, Birnback building, Hammond, has applied for a divorce from Michael Frankhina. They were married Jan. 27, 1907, and on Aug. 1, 1914, she was abandoned by him. They have no children. Sheerer & White are her attorneys.

Martha Czerwinski, through her father, John Czerwinski, is asking for $10,000 damages from Charles P. Green in a suit filed today by Attorneys Greenwald & Stinson. The girl was injured July 17, 1918, when she was struck by Green's car at the corner of Euclid Avenue and Cameron Street, Hammond. Her back and hip were hurt.

J. H. Good vs. John F. Merrill, et al. is a quiet little suit filed through Attorneys Beach, Gavin, Stinson & Gavin.

GARY NEWS

Deutsch and Borken
Hotel Permit Granted

A new structure to cost $50,000.00 will be started in the near future according to the plans of Deutsch and Borken, who, yesterday obtained a permit from the Building Commissioner's office.

The building, which will be a hotel will be erected on the northeast corner of Eighth Avenue and Washington Street. It will contain 58 rooms, a lobby and four store rooms.

When completed, it will be one of the largest and best located buildings in Gary. It is understood that the store rooms have already been leased.

TWO RESIDENCE PERMITS ISSUED

Building Commissioner Dougan yesterday granted a permit to A. H. Prouty for the erection of a house at Miller to cost $1,000.00.

George Duncan obtained a permit for the erection of a house at 2823 Tyler Street, to cost $2,500.00.

Married 33 Years Husband Sues for Divorce

In a complaint filed in the Gary Superior Court by George W.

Lyon, he alleges that after being married to his wife, Almeda, for 33 years, she left and abandoned him without cause. He states that she is now in Sweetwater, Pa.

The couple were married in Fishing Creek, Pa., in 1886 and separated April 21, 1919.

Plaintiff asks for an absolute divorce.

Husband Quarrelsome Wife Wants Divorce

Charging that her husband was quarrelsome, jealous and used abusive language, Mary Tonkovich asks for a divorce in a complaint filed in the Gary Superior Court. She charges that he accused her of dressing up for other men; that he was addicted to strong drink; that he abused their two children, and generally conducted himself in such a manner as to make life miserable for his wife and her two children.

She further alleges that her husband owns the property located at 1716 Massachusetts Street and including this building he owns property to the amount of $10,000.00.

She asks that the custody of her two children, 14 and 5 years of age be given to her; that she be granted a reasonable amount of money for their support and $350.00 alimony.

She further asks that the bonds of matrimony now existing between her and her husband be forever severed, and that she be granted an absolute divorce.

DIVORCE GRANTED JOHN SHAFFER

In the Gary Superior Court, a divorce was granted to John Shaffer by Judge Charles E. Greenwald. Mrs. Shaffer was granted the custody of their son, Tug, eight dollars per week and $350.00 alimony.

A separate maintenance suit was brought by Mrs. Shaffer some time ago, and this morning's verdict was the climax of an old drawn out suit.

Judge Greenwald this morning continued the case of Louise Baldssrri vs. Frank Baldssrri.

The complaint filed by Mrs. Baldssrri alleged that Frank was guilty of cruel and inhuman treatment; that he would not speak to her for weeks at a time, and generally made life miserable. There is one child. They were advised to get together and make up and a reconciliation is expected.

Hold Inquest in Dr. Hartman Death

Inquest into the death of Dr. Hartman, who was found dead in bed at the Stanley Hotel in Gary last Saturday, was finished by Coroner E. E. Evans yesterday with a verdict of death by natural causes with indication of suicide by taking cyanide of potassium, a deadly poison. It was also brought out that Dr. Hartman, who has been a resident of Gary for the past four months, had been an addict to narcotics.

Five-year-old Emil Bogosovich, 18 West 23rd Avenue in Gary, had a narrow escape from death and serious injury yesterday afternoon when he ran across the street at 25th Avenue and Broadway, directly in the path of an auto driven by E. O. Ames, 231 West 3rd Avenue. The front fender of the car hit the child a glancing blow, throwing him heavily to the pavement. Hundreds of people attending the public market, turned their eyes expecting to see him killed.
