

LIVE NEWS FROM THE TWIN CITIES

TWIN CITY'S NEWEST CLUB.

AM feminine eyes are being directed to the new Twin City Women's Athletic club recently organized by a number of prominent young women of Chicago and Indiana Harbor.

Already the good work of this club has been felt in all ends of the city and its success as an organization for the younger women is assured. The club has been organized primarily and particularly for the younger girls of the Twin Cities. Its purpose is to promote athletic activities and stimulate social interests among the younger ladies at both ends of the city.

At the recent organization meeting of the club, the following officers and directors were elected: Blanche Rosenbush, president; Margaret Canine, vice-president; Louise Stumph, secretary; Fred Gumbinski, treasurer; Virginia Howard, business manager. The directors were: Mrs. Hyer, Mrs. LaVonne Mrs. Dwyer, Mary Helen Davis and Mrs. Moxley.

A membership meeting of the club will be held at the Civic Club rooms Tuesday evening, January 31. All women and girls over 18 are urged to attend whether interested or not.

In joining the organization, speaking and other entertainment will occupy the greater part of the evening.

RAIL MILL OPERATIONS.

The Illinois Central Railroad company has placed an order for 20,000 tons of steel rails. This will effect the operations of the Illinois Steel company of Gary and the rail mills of the Indiana Steel company of Indiana Harbor, when this department starts up March 1. The Gary rail mills are scheduled to resume operations next Monday, January 26th.

Of this order the Illinois Steel corporation was awarded 11,000 tons, the Indiana Steel 8,000 tons and the Tennessee Iron and Steel company 2,000.

BUILDING PERMITS.

West side of Decatur street between 114th and 116th streets, one brick structure. Owner Mike Popawicz. Cost $1200.

West side of Fir street between 114th and 116th streets, one story frame business building. Owner Josephine Kulka. Cost $1,500.

CHECK FORGER OPERATING.

A check forger is in the district. His operations have been effective in East Chicago and Indiana Harbor the last week. A check on the East Chicago State bank to the amount of $10 was given by this unknown person, signed "Frank E. Foster" to George Kowalski, a fruit dealer at 4745 Olcott avenue. Other victims were Gavel and Kodetinsky, when this stranger purchased two shirts and gave a check for $10 and the Colonial Sporting store with a $7 forged check for five Victoria records.

This strange person, who has forged so many checks in East Chicago and Indiana Harbor the last week, is described as 5 feet 7 inches tall, dark complexion, weighing about 130 pounds and when last seen he wore a suit felt hat and light overcoat.

The East Chicago police have the case under investigation.

THREE NEW RAIDS.

And still more stills are found? Next Tuesday will be the end of one month's unceasing efforts of the East Chicago and Indiana Harbor police forces, under the direction of Chief Stokes, to rid the city of violators of the state liquor law.

Night raids, day raids, any old raid and yet the police seem to be able to go out any time and pick out a violator of the prohibition law.

Yesterday afternoon three new places were raided and the producers arrested. Two of these homes were found to have stills in operation, while intoxicating liquor was the only thing in sight in the third place. At 4731 Todd avenue, there was an argument between the husband and wife as to who was the producer. The woman, Joseph Grickas with his moonshine still was finally selected to accompany the officers to the police station.

Shirley Weaver, 4912 Honneries avenue, and Christ Staganovich, 2514 Hamlock, were the other two persons to be arrested, when home brew and the evidence of manufacturing a grade of spirits in violation of the eighteen-month amendment were found.

IN MEMORIAM.
In loving remembrance of our dear daughter Lois who passed away four years ago, Jan. 25.
The month of Jan. again is here.
To us the saddest month of year.
It was a bitter message
A shock severe
To part with one we loved so dear.
Four long years since that dear sad day.
When the one we loved was called away.
God took her home, it was His will
But in our hearts she liveth still.
Dearest daughter how we miss you
No one can ever tell.
But the Saviour loved you best dear
And took you home with him to dwell.
