DRESSES OF DELIGHTFUL NOVELTIES FOR LITTLE GIRLS

Dressing a little girl these days is a delightful task, for the shops are showing more than the usual variety of charming little dresses that combine in happy fashion the desired elements of style and durability. This is the month to stock up on washable frocks, because the selection is better now than it will be later on and, too, if one wishes to make the frocks at home the dressmaker is available now and she may not be as the June weddings and commencements approach.

Here are three little dresses which make a complete outfit for the little girl. There is the bloomer play dress, the afternoon frock of gingham and the dress-up frock of pink wash satin and lace.

The nurse committee of the Welfare Association held their regular meeting yesterday afternoon at headquarters on Chicago avenue. There was a fair attendance, considering the day. The regular business was taken care of and reports from the nurses as to the effect that there is a great deal of sickness and a great many visits have been made during the month. This committee meets the last Thursday afternoon in each month instead of Friday afternoon as has been the custom for a long time.

Radio Phone to Speed Up Town's Firefighters

(INTERNATIONAL NEWS SERVICE) YORKVILLE, Ohio, March 31.—Fire Chief A. M. Malasky wants to speed up his volunteer members of the local fire-fighting department. Accordingly he has decided to install a wireless phone receiving set in the village building. An amateur, he announced, will be attached so that the firemen may hear concerts, sermons, etc., broadcasted from Pittsburgh.

Chief Malasky expects the plan to result in more of the volunteers loitering about the Municipal Building, making them available for quicker action when an alarm is sounded.
