DEMAND FOR CARS AIDS EMPLOYMENT

Automobile Factories Report Conditions Steadily Improving.

(INTERNATIONAL NEWS SERVICE) DETROIT, May.—Steady improvement in the automobile industry here is reflected in the employment situation, and Detroit once more is riding the crest of a wave of prosperity. Employment agencies for the first time in eighteen months report a slight surplus of jobs over the number of work applicants. Rooming houses, the Y. M. C. A. and hotels of the moderate rates all report keen demand for rooms from men returning to the city in search of employment.

The demand for automobiles is unprecedented, the heads of Detroit factories declare. With the Ford Company taking the lead, all the automobile concerns are expanding daily. Thousands of men were given employment during the month of April, and unless the demand for cars takes a decided slump several thousand additional men, particularly those of the mechanical type will be assimilated during May.

Edsel Ford, president of the Ford Motor Company, said the company increased its employment list 9,000 during the month of April. The Packard company announces it will take on 1,000 men during May to provide for increased production. One hundred men are being given employment every day at the Highland Park and River Rouge plants of the Ford Motor Company, and this policy will be continued as long as workers can be assimilated, Edsel Ford announced.

More than 4,000 additional employees will be put to work by the Fisher Body corporation on completion of its $2,000,000 addition to the West End plant, officials announce. Building operations in the addition are nearly completed. The total enrollment of the plant after the new unit is in operation will be approximately 10,000. The addition itself is 1,000 feet in length and six stories high, with a floor space of 650,000 square feet.

DINNER STORIES

"Mr. Gurgleson seems to be making progress in art."

"I haven't heard that he has sold anything or had a picture hung at any of the exhibitions."

"Neither have I, but his hair reaches almost to his collar, and I hear that his wife has left him—owing to his queer ideas concerning domestic responsibilities."

"You say that this man has a grudge against you?" demanded the judge.

"Yes, your honor," replied Bill the Beggar. "When I was blind he used to steal the pennies from my cup and when I was a cripple he'd run down the street with my box of pencils."

"Anything else?"

"Yes, your honor. Once when I was deaf and dumb he shot off a firecracker underneath me."

Two mountaineers had long enjoyed a blood feud with each other, but at last neighbors, desiring peace, managed to bring them together. For several minutes after the meeting not a word was said. Finally one, scratching his thumb-nail reflectively on the butt of his gun, remarked:

"Well, pardner, I'm not going to be with ye much longer."

The second was relieved but strove to conceal his feelings.

"Don't talk that way, Seth," he remonstrated. "We been enemies for twenty year, but of course I'll miss ye. Ye ain't goin' to shoot yerself, are ye?"

"No," drawled the first, "I certainly ain't goin' to shoot myself, and I ain't goin' away, neither, but seein' as how ye ain't ever goin' to see me again, I figured ye mought have somethin' ye wanted ter say first."
