RACES AT PORTER ON MAY 30TH

(SPECIAL TO THE TIMES)
PORTER SPEEDWAY, May 22.—Sam Kandul of Chicago has entered a Fronty-Ford, the gas eater capable of doing 102 miles per hour, in the $1,000 sweepstakes to be staged on the Porter dirt oval on the afternoon of Decoration Day, May 30th. At an expense of $500 Kandul has the mount delivered from Indianapolis to Chicago and is now having the speed tuned up for the first event on Memorial Day.

Only for the fact that other classics will be held under the direction of Tom Kandul of Gary on the Porter course this summer and that the promoter is the brother of the Fronty-Ford owner, will the fans be able to see this streak of the racing name hum around the porter mile saucer. Tom induced his brother to enter the mount by promises of future race programs on the same course.

Entries are being received daily by Promoter Kandul and many of the future race kings have lined up for the Decoration Day menu.

JOE BOYER WON'T RACE AT SPEEDWAY

(SPECIAL TO THE TIMES)
INDIANAPOLIS, May 22.—Joe Boyer, Detroit Millionaire driver, will not battle for the $100,000 prize in the tenth annual 500-mile race, Tuesday, May 30, but he will play an important part in the race. Boyer has retired as a race driver but has been selected by Capt. E. V. Rickenbacker, of Detroit, the starter of the race, to act as his assistant.

The post of assistant starter is an important one in the conduct of the race as his post is on the track and it is up to him to line up the field and prepare it for the start, also to act as "liaison officer" between the chairman of the technical committee, stationed in front of the pits and the starter and referee, located in the official stand at the tape.

Boyer's passing as a race driver has been selected by Capt. E. V. Rickenbacker, of Detroit, the starter of the race, to act as his assistant. In the last 500-mile event Boyer has been among the leaders at the start and a factor all the time his car was in the running. In the 1920 event he had his Frontenac out in front practically every lap of the first 250 miles and won the lion's share of the $20,000 lap prize.

Joe Boyer's first appearance in an Indianapolis event was in 1913 as a relief driver for Louis Chevrolet's little Cornelian. The miniature car was not fast enough to qualify with Louis Chevrolet driving, due to Louis' 200 pounds. Boyer, a personal friend of Louis, was around the track and Chevrolet nominated him as a relief and the rules permitted Boyer to qualify the car. With the millionaire behind the wheel the little car beat the minimum speed of 55 miles an hour. Mechanical trouble eliminated it before Joe had a chance to drive. His next appearance at Indianapolis was as relief driver for the three Chevrolet brothers on the first Frontenac team in the 1916 event. In 1919 he drove a Frontenac and was well up in the running when he threw a rear wheel and only his ability to hold the car at 100 miles an hour prevented a fatal accident.

Boyer has retired from the racing game to go into business and is now vice president of the Miller-Judd Co., Detroit, distributors for the Liberty and Peerless lines, which makes it impossible for him to devote the necessary time to the sport to continue racing.

Taste is a matter of tobacco quality

We state it as our honest belief that the tobaccos used in Chesterfield are of finer quality and hence of better taste than in any other cigarette at the price.

MAJOR LEAGUE SCOUTS AFTER PILOT AND SHORSTOP OF FLORIDA TEAM

Two members of the St. Petersburg club in the Florida State league are drawing the attention of big league scouts by their great playing, and fans predict the two will go up before the season is much farther along. The pair in the limelight are Manager and Catcher George Block and Shortstop Eddie Moore. Block's biggest asset is his batting. Moore's sensational fielding is his strong point, although he hits well. Bob Gilks, veteran Yankee scout, says that Moore reminds him of Davey Rappaport.

HAMMOND LEGION TEAM PUTS IT OVER DOLTON

Playing before a crowd estimated at two thousand, the Hammond American Legion baseball team defeated the "strong" Dolton American Legion nine at Harrison Park yesterday afternoon, in a slugging bee by a score of 9 to 5. This was the first defeat of the season for the Dolton team, who up to yesterday, had annexed six victories.

Sammie Cressbaum, one of the best pitchers in Hammond, was on the mound for the Hammond vets and although hit hard he had his hits scattered so that no damage was really done. The local boy was in good form when he was in danger of eight strike outs. Chespeke, for the visitors, pitched good ball, but was a trifle wild, the Hammond boys took advantage of his wildness, and with the help of their bat, fattened the score up to a safe margin. Chespeke struck out eleven batsmen.

Hammond played consistent ball throughout the entire contest, outplaying their opponents in every single of the game. "Ping" Dalton, home run king of the visitors, added another to his credit, when he sent a terrific drive to center with a runner on third. It is said that the drive was the longest ever seen at the local park. "Ping" also smashed out a triple in the fourth inning; no one was on at that time. Kink and Dalton featured for the visitors, while credit is equally divided between the Hammond team.

Hammond started to score in the first inning when a hit batsman, two walks and a single netted two runs. The visitors tied the count in their half of the third on a single double and a triple. Hammond, however, came back and scored three runs on four solid hits, poor base running cut the score down for the locals. Dalton scored again in the fifth on a single, a stolen base and a two base knock by Kink.

Hammond scored two more in their half on a triple, by Chayken, a single by Hudson, and a two bagger by Cressbaum.

In the sixth the visitors put two men over on a single, and the home run drive by "Ping" Dalton, that was all the scoring for the visitors.

H. A. L. 0 0 2 0 1 2 0 0 0—2
D. A. L. 2 0 4 0 0 1 0 1 1 x—5

Summaries: Two base hits: Lochner, Kink, Miller, Cressbaum; three base hits: Chayken, Dalton; home run: Dalton; base on balls: Cressbaum, 2; Chespeke, 9. Struck out by Cressbaum, 8; Chespeke, 11. Umpire, Lipinski.

As Capt. Rickenbacker, the starter, will not arrive in Indianapolis until the Sunday before the race, Boyer will be in charge of the cars in the time trials, starting Thursday, May 25.
