Special Care of Baby.

That Baby should have a bed of its own all are agreed. Yet it is more reasonable for an infant to sleep with grown-ups than to use a man's medicine in an attempt to regulate the delicate organism of that same infant. Either practice is to be shunned. Neither would be tolerated by specialists in children's diseases.

Your Physician will tell you that Baby's medicine must be prepared with even greater care than Baby's food.

A Baby's stomach when in good health is too often disarranged by improper food. Could you for a moment, then, think of giving to your ailing child anything but a medicine especially prepared for Infants and Children? Don't be deceived.

Make a mental note of this:—It is important, Mothers, that you should remember that to function well, the digestive organs of your Baby must receive special care. No Baby is so abnormal that the desired results may be had from the use of medicines primarily prepared for grown-ups.

Chinese "Gossips."

In China there is a very strange profession for women. It is carried on by the elderly ladies, who go the round of the best houses, announcing their coming by beating a drum, and offering their services to amuse the lady of the house. This offer accepted, they sit down and tell the latest scandals and the newest stories and bits of gossip, and are rewarded at the rate of a few pennies per hour.

NEW CHEMICAL KILLS BED BUGS P. D. Q.

P. D. Q. (Peak Devil's Quietude) is the name of a new, potent, colored chemical discovered by Dr. Price that actually kills the worst infested house of bedbugs, roaches, fleas, ants and their eggs. They don't have time to kick after you go after them with P. D. Q. A 25¢ package of P. D. Q. makes a quart of strong bug-killer, and goes farther than a barrel of the old-fashioned dangerous dose. P. D. Q. coats and kills their eggs and prevents hatching. FREE a patent spout in every box to enable you to get them in the hard-to-get-at places, and saves juice. Your druggist has it or he can get it for you, or sent prepaid on receipt of price by the Owl Chemical Works, Terre Haute, Indiana.

Eczema!

THIS isn't one of those fake free treatment offers you have seen so many times. We don't offer to give you something for nothing—but we do guarantee that you can try this wonderful treatment, entirely at our risk, and this guarantee is backed by your local druggist.

This makes the offer one which you can absolutely depend upon, because the druggist with whom you have been trading would not stand behind the guarantee if he did not know it to be an honest and legitimate one.

Hunt's Salve, formerly called Hunt's Cure, has been sold under absolute money back guarantee for more than thirty years. It is especially compounded for the treatment of Eczema, Itch, Ring Worm, Tetter, and other itching skin diseases.

Thousands of letters testify to its curative properties. M. Timerlin, a reputable drug goods dealer in Durant, Oklahoma, says: "I suffered with Eczema for ten years, and spent $1,000.00 for doctors' treatments, without result. One box of Hunt's Cure entirely cured me."

Don't fail to give Hunt's Salve a trial—price 75 cents, from your local druggist, or direct by mail if he does not handle it.

HE WANTED IT RUBBED IN

Congressman Evidently Was Not Satisfied With Knowing Himself to Be a Fool.

A wealthy western congressman, says the Argonaut, much against his will, erected a magnificent mansion in Washington to please his wife and daughter. The congressman was of plain tastes and had no liking for the social activities of the national capital. One day an old friend visited him. Wearing a face of the deepest gloom, the owner of the stately home escorted his caller throughout the place. The visitor was admiring and enthusiastic, but the host said little or nothing. When the inspection was finished and the two had returned to the library on the first floor, the visitor said:

"Well, Jim, you certainly can't say that you haven't everything that you want."

"Yes, I can," replied the millionaire soberly; "I want a parrot."

"Why a parrot?"

"I should like to hang him over the front door, so that every time I enter this place he can yell out, 'There comes that old fool again!'"—Youth's Companion.

Edna's Conscience Clear.

"Don't you think you ought stay at home like a good girl sometimes and let mother go to the theater? Don't you think mother likes to have fun, just the same as you?" Thus a strategic aunt addressed her tearful niece of six, who had protested when she saw her mother laying out an evening dress. The argument appealed to Edna's reason. She ceased to weep and considered the justice of the proposal. Then, having thought it out, she lifted up her voice again in wails.

"No, sir, auntie, I now, have done it. I've done the best I could. This, now, morning I tried to make mother have some fun. I want her to! So I asked her and asked her to go walking with me. And she wouldn't!"—New York Evening Post.

The Rent Hog.

"This is Mr. Diogenes, I believe?" with a rising inflection, said the stranger who had approached the philosopher's residential tub.

"Yes," responded the sage. "And no doubt you are the honest man for whom I have been hunting, and because I have overlooked you, you have come to make yourself known?"

"Not at all," was the reply. "On the contrary, I am the owner of this tub, and am here to raise your rent 50 per cent."

Fortune in Apricot Stones.

More than $1,250,000 is made every year from apricot stones in California. Nearly 7,000 tons of stones are obtained from the fruit, and from these the chemist extracts two oils, one known as bitter oil of almonds, the other as new substitute for olive oil. A ton of stones produces materials worth almost $200.

Its Condition.

"Why do they allude to a baseball as a sphere?" "I suppose because it is the whirled."

Acid Stomach
Makes the Body Sour
Nine Out of Ten People Suffer From It

It sends its harmful acids and gases all over the body, instead of health and strength. Day and night this ceaseless damage goes on. No matter how strong, its victim cannot long withstand the health-destroying effects of an acid stomach.

Good news for millions of sufferers. Chemists have found a sure remedy—one that takes the acid up and carries it out of the body; of course, when the cause is removed, the sufferer gets well.

Bloating, indigestion, sour, acid, gassy stomach miseries all removed. This is proven by over half a million ailing folks who have taken EATONIC with wonderful benefits. It can be obtained from any druggist, who will cheerfully refund its trifling cost if not entirely satisfactory. Everyone should enjoy its benefits. Freely the first tablet gives relief.

PRICE CONTROL BILL PASSED BY HOUSE

ADMINISTRATION MEASURE IS PASSED BY HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES 68 TO 8.

UPPER BRANCH MAY ACCEPT

Opposition on Final Vote Equally Divided Between Republicans and Democrats.

Indianapolis, July 19.—Following the passage of the administration coal control commission bill by the house of representatives by a vote of 68 to 8 on Saturday, the house adjourned until Monday afternoon. The senate adjourned until the same date.

Representative Johnson of Grant county, chairman of the committee on rights and privileges, to which the bill had been referred by Speaker Eschbach, reported that the committee was unanimous for the passage of the bill, with lengthy amendments.

The bill with its amendments, referred to by Chairman Johnson as "the substitution bill" provides for the establishment of the "Indiana coal commission," the duties of which are to investigate all coal conditions, fix prices for which coal may be sold, conduct hearings when coal profiteering is suspected, and take over mines for operation by the state if deemed necessary.

Three members will compose the commission. It is provided. One member will be named by the governor, one by the lieutenant-governor, and the third by the speaker of the house of representatives. The member appointed by the governor will act as chairman of the commission. Not more than two of the members composing the commission shall belong to the same political party.

Convict Labor Not to be Used.

In the event of taking over of a mine by the state, the operating and working conditions and wages paid the men will be the same as the scale paid by other mines, and no convict labor will be used.

The commission will serve until March 31, 1921, at which time it will go out of existence unless continued by subsequent legislation.

Further provisions are made in the proposed measure for the placing of a fine or imprisonment, or both, upon coal operators who refuse to show their books to the commission on an order from such body. One member may conduct a hearing, and the salaries of the members of the commission are to be fixed at $6,000 per year each, with a salary of $3,000 a year for a secretary of the commission.

Those who voted against the bill were: Republicans—Cann, Jinnett, Miller of Marion, Sombor. Democrats—Barker of Posey, Biddaman, Griffith, Scott.

When the bill had been passed Speaker Eschbach made a ringing speech from the chair on the evils of the present situation.

"I don't blame some of you for being afraid of commissions," said Mr. Eschbach. "Most of these legislative and congressional commissions are pussy-footers. If the appointment of this commission remains in the hands of the three officials designated in the bill, I assure you that if one of the other two will help me there will be nothing to conceal in the deliberations of this body and the guilty ones will be punished. I'll be perfectly willing to name the minority member of this commission, and I shall search the state for a man with nerve enough to go up against the coal barons of this state."

Objectionable Feature Pointed Out.

One of the most objectionable features of the bill is that it gives the commission the right "to condemn any mine," according to Representative Miller of Marion. This section, 19, provides that if the state should take any coal mine all funds derived from the sale of coal in the state-owned mine should be placed in a special fund to be used in operating such a mine or paying compensation to the owners of the mine. This in effect would be the same as a state-owned mine, only for a shorter period of time.

Favorable Sentiment Growing.

More sentiment in favor of the $10,000,000 appropriation for the world war measure was heard among members of the legislature than has been expressed at any other time, and it is believed that the joint caucus committee will agree on an appropriation bill without any reservations of any character.

Minority Report Substituted.

Two reports were submitted to the house by the ways and means committee on the bill of Representative Johnson (Rep.), which provides for the return to local tax units of control over bond issues and tax levies, which now rests with the state board of tax commissioners. A majority report favored indefinite postponement of the measure, while a minority report favored the bill's passage. The minority report was substituted for the majority report by a vote of 67 to 14.

IMPROVED UNIFORM INTERNATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

LESSON FOR JULY 25

DAVID SUCCEEDS SAUL AS KING.

LESSON TEXT.—II Sam. 2:1-7; 6:1-3. GOLDEN TEXT.—Trust in the Lord with all thy heart, and lean not upon thine understanding.—Prov. 3:5. ADDITIONAL MATERIAL.—I Sam. 31:1-13; II Sam. 1:7; 2:4-12. PRIMARY TOPIC.—The Shepherd Boy Becomes a King. JUNIOR TOPIC.—How David Became a King. INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC.—The Secret of David's Success. YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC.—True Success and How to Win It.

The death of Saul lay open to David the path to the throne. This would have rejoiced the heart of many, but David was sad. Instead of reward being given to the slayer of Saul, quick vengeance was executed upon him.

I. David Made King Over Judah (2:1-4).

He knew full well that the Lord by the hand of Samuel had anointed him to be the successor of Saul. He had learned the essential lesson which the School of Providence was designed to teach, namely, that the position now open to him was no easy one to fill. His exile and sufferings gave him self-control. He had the good sense to know that promotion to the throne did but bring "harder duties and multiplied perplexities." He threw himself upon God and asked for guidance. He rendered instant obedience to the Lord's answer. If we are to enjoy God's fellowship and blessing we must render quick obedience. He made a right beginning, therefore God prospered him. When he reached Hebron the men of Judah came and anointed him king over them. Thus a part of the nation recognized him as king and ratified the work which Samuel did many years before. When David went up he took with him all who had been with him in exile and suffering. They are now sharers with him in the kingdom. When David's great son, Christ, shall enter upon his glorious reign, those who have been faithful to him in his rejection shall reign with him. "If we suffer we shall also reign with him." (II Tim. 2:12); "To him that overcometh will I grant to sit with me in my throne, even as I also overcame, and am set down with my father in his throne." (Rev. 3:21).

II. David's Behavior Toward the Men of Jabesh-Gilead (2:4-7).

The men of Jabesh owed much to Saul (I Sam. 11), and they showed this recognition of debt by making a daring dash to rescue his body from the ignominious exposure at Bethle-hem. David's act of sending men to Jabesh with a message of good will for their affectionate remembrance of Saul is an exhibition of his noble generosity. His love for the unfortunate king survived all the injuries which he suffered at his hands. He forgave and forgot them all. This was an act of political shrewdness as well as a generous one. In fact the only policy which proves effective is that which proceeds from a generous heart. He deftly follows this generous commendation with a solicitude for the men of Jabesh to transfer their loyalty to himself, since he is now their legal king. Since Saul is now dead, he urges them to be valiant for him. In view of the civil war which was to follow he knew it would require valiant men to stand by God's king. This appeal to be valiant is needed now, for we are all called upon to take sides between God's appointed king, Jesus Christ, and Satan, the pretender to the throne. May Christ's appeal result in making us faithful and valiant for him.

III. The Dual Kingdom—War Between the House of Saul and the House of David (2:8-12).

This period of civil war lasted seven and a half years. Most of the tribes of Israel clung to Ishbosheth, Saul's son, whom Abner had proclaimed king at Mahanaim. Feuds continued between the rival generals. David's power increased while that of Ishbosheth's waned.

IV. David Crowned King Over United Israel (5:1-5).

Though the struggle for supremacy lasted long and was a bitter one, Abner's death and Ishbosheth's assassination put an end to David's opposition. David's behavior during this time gradually won for him the confidence of the tribes so that they all came to him at Hebron and anointed him as their king. They accepted his divine right to rule (v. 3). The reasons for anointing him their king were:

1. He is their brother (v. 1). This is true of Christ our King. Through the incarnation he has become one with us.
2. He was their true leader in war, even in Saul's time (v. 2).
3. He was the Lord's choice (v. 2).

Procrastination.

Procrastination is helping the devil in retarding righteousness in the world. Remember that legend of how he summoned his imperial staff and offered a reward to the member who would suggest the best way to destroy a human soul. One said, Convince him there is no God. Another said, Prove there is no immortality and no truth in the Bible. But still another suggested, Convince him that there is no hurry about his carrying out his good resolutions. And the devil gave that one the prize.—Bishop Talbot.

The Dandy D's.

Keith is a lovable youngster. He manages to come out with flying colors from difficult situations. His one fault is love for play instead of study, and when a recent report card from school was adorned with four large D's, his exasperated father took him severely to task.

Presently, when there was a lull in the monologue, Keith broke in with "Oh, pshaw, father, don't you know that D stands for Dandy, B for Bum and A for Awful."
