

ENIGMA No. 5

My whole is indispensable to happiness. A word of 8 letters. My 8, 4, 5, 2, 1, is reckoned among "goods and chattles" at some auctions.

My 6, 1, 7, 8, is an article of which houses are sometimes made.

My 7, 8, 2, is a term peculiarly applicable to old maids.

My 5, 7, 6, 8, 5, is a term often used in speaking of dying persons.

My 7, 6, 3, is that for want of which certain maidens were once excluded from a wedding they wished to attend.

My 1, 7, 4, 3, a man did to the discomfort of one who bathed by direction of the Great Physician for his health.

My 5, 4, 1, 3, is a biped possessing great power over man, yet so timid that it often flees from him, though sometimes unable to escape the trap he sets for it.

My 2, 1, 1, 4, 5, is a class of people for whom there is little sympathy.

Answer next week.

ENIGMA No. 6

My whole is a term applied to some persons bound together by "affection's ties," and by a poet to the flowers, and has 10 letters.

My 10, 8, 3, 6, is that by which some bipeds, quadrupeds, and insects make their ingress and egress.

My 1, 4, 9, 8, 10, the children of Israel did while receiving the law.

My 7, 2, 3, 4, is an expression demanding silence.

My 2, 10, 2, 8, 4, is a term applied to some unfortunate people.

My 4, 2, 4, 7, 5, is required of certain people for the support of religion.

My 4, 9, 4, 5, is a Westernism, meaning to transport.

Answer next week. HELEN.

ANSWER TO ENIGMAS LAST WEEK.

Number 3.—Perpendicularly. SOLUTIONS.—Indicant, Lactary, Diger, Culinary, Perpetrate, Deuce, Ritual, Penny, Rancid, Lentitude, Tyrant, Pedantry.

Number 4.—Dictionary. SOLUTIONS.—Nard, Racy, Nadir, Onion, Radication, Narcotic, Didactic, Ratioincination, Nation.

22—We are requested to announce WILLIAM SULLIVAN as a candidate for the office of County Clerk.

22—We are authorized to say that S. A. COLLEY will continue to serve as Constable of Centre Township, if re-elected.

CANDIDATES FOR COUNCILMEN.

In the 2d Ward—JAMES GILLESPIE.

In the 2d Ward—DAVID D. WOODRUFF.

In the 4th Ward—ANDREW WALLACE.

In the 6th Ward—JOHN S. DUNLAP.

In the 7th Ward—SAMUEL MERRILL.

Born.

"A babe in a house is a well-spring of pleasure, a messenger of peace and love: Yet it is a talent of trust, a loan to be rendered back with interest."

On the 11th a Daughter to Calvin Morgan.

On the 23d a Daughter to John W. Dawson.

On the 24th a Daughter to Samuel McCaig.

On the 24th a Son to William Vanblaricum.

On the 24th a Daughter to John McLaughlin.

On the 26th a Son to David Strickland.

On the 26th a Son to William Owen.

On the 28th a Daughter to John Gilien.

On the 28th a Son to Rev. P. D. Gurley.

On the 28th a Daughter to James Loucks.

On the 29th a Daughter to John Trussell.

Marriages.

"O happy lot, and hallowed, even as the joy of angels, Where the golden chain of godliness is entwined with heroes of love."

LICENSES ISSUED TO

George W. Berry and Elizabeth McClusky, on the 24th. Bartis C. Boots and Rebecca Ann Brady, on the 24th. William Smith and Phoebe Swait, on the 28th.

PAY UP.

THE undersigned would request those indebted to him to come forward and cash up immediately, as there are claims against him he must pay, and he wants the needful to pay with. March 31-31. JOHN WOOD.

SPRING AND SUMMER!!

WE have just received a large stock of staple and fancy Dry Goods, of the newest fashions and styles. Dress Goods, Parasols, Ribbons, and all kinds of goods to suit the season.

Ladies and Gents, call and see them. Summer Goods are pretty and cheap.

March 31-It

HAMILTON & PARRISH.

I SAY, stranger, where in tarnation did you get that ere Iron? Why old Hoss at Andrews Wallace's. Stranger, this ere Iron needs no hammering, just heat it and then pull, and it'll be darned if you can't stretch it a mile. Can't you break it? No. Old Hoss it would take forty span of California mules to break a nail rod. If you want any just go there, for I'll be darned if he hasn't got stacks of it in that old warehouse of his.

Haloo, stranger, can't you break that ere cut nail? I guess I can't. I was just a trying and it is so darned tough I can't come it. Where did you get the critters? Why at Wallace's. I'll be darned if I don't give him my custom and just inform my neighbors of the fact.

LUMBER! LUMBER!! LUMBER!!!

THE undersigned would respectfully inform the citizens of Indianapolis, and vicinity, that their Saw Mill being in good repair, they are prepared to fill bills of Lumber at a shorter notice than any other mill in the country. Persons wishing to purchase would do well to call at the Ripple Mills, and apply to

March 17-18-19-20

KOONTZ & BURK.

Our Scrap Book.

"A jest's prosperity lies in the ear
Of him that hears it—never in the tongue
Of him that makes it."—LOVE'S LABOR LOST.

WOMEN STRONGER THAN OXEN.—It is related of a certain New England divine who flourished not many years ago, and whose matrimonial relations are supposed not to have been of the most agreeable kind, that, one Sabbath morning, while reading to his congregation the parable of the supper, in Luke xiv, in which occurs this passage—"And another said, I have bought five yoke of oxen, and I go to prove them; I pray thee to have me excused; and another said, I have married a wife, and therefore cannot come,"—he suddenly paused at the end of this verse, drew off his spectacles, and looking around on his hearers, said, with emphasis—"The fact is, my brethren, one woman can draw a man farther from the kingdom of heaven than five yoke of oxen!"

THE STUBBORNEST ANIMAL IN THE WORLD.—A crowd about a tavern door was busy discussing what animal, of all others, was most contrary: some contended that a mule was, some a hog, some a yoke of oxen. A Dutchman, who had very gravely listened to the conversation, gave in his experience: "Te mule, te hog, and te ox, is all very stubborn, but te hen is te stubbornest animal in te world. I had von vot wanted to hatch some eggs. I make von fine leetle nest, and put him in it, and she gits up and runs away. I den makes anudder leetle nest, and puts her in it, and he runs away again. I den makes one nice leetle box, and puts it all over te hen, and for all te trouble mit I have, ven I peeped under te leetle box, te tam hen vas settin standin!"

A Yankee has just invented a method of catching rats. He says: locate your bed in a room much infested by these animals, and on retiring, put out the light. Then strew over your pillow some strong smelling cheese, three or four red herrings, some barley meal or new malt, and a sprinkling of dried codfish. Keep awake till you find the rats at work, and then make a grab.

TIME TO GO.—An up-country gallant not long since went over to see his 'bright particular,' and after sitting for nearly half a day without saying a word, at last got up and said: "Well, I reckon it's gettin' feeden' time—I must be a goin." Well, a good evenin' to you all, Miss Nancy."

HOW TO PICK A QUARREL!—I say, said an urchin to another in the street, the other day, 'you're the fellow what stole my marble.' 'No I aint.' 'Then I'm a liar am I?' and without more ado he commenced a violent battery on the person of the unoffending lad.

ANECDOTE.—I swear by the constancy of my bosom! exclaimed a despairing lover to his mistress, 'that my passion is unfeigned and sincere.' 'Swear not by thy bosom,' returned the lady, 'for that is false.' It was made of linen.

THE FIRST BIT OF MEAT.—An Irishman who had just landed, said the first bit of meat he ever ate in this country was a roasted potatoe—boiled yesterday. And if you do not believe me, I can show it to you, for I have it in my pocket now.

A DELICATE ANNOUNCEMENT.—An English paper has the following delicate announcement:

It is stated that her Majesty is in a condition which holds out a prospect of her presenting the country before long with an additional prince or princess.

It is said that however well young ladies may be versed in grammar, but very few of them can decline matrimony.

A shoemaker being at work, his awl broke, whereupon the shoemaker cursed his useless instrument. His wife then reminded him that he was breaking an express command of Scripture which says—"Swear not at awl!"

The last version we have seen, says the Vox Populi, of the classic motto, 'root hog, or die,' runs as follows: Perforate the soil with thy proboscis, thou Queen city quadruped, or relinquish thy vitality.

'John,' said a master to his head apprentice, as he was about starting on a short journey, 'you must take my place while I am gone.' 'Thank you, sir,' demurely replied John, 'but I'd rather sleep with the boys.'

RATHER POINTED.—A minister at a Camp Meeting said—"If the lady with the blue hat, red hair, and cross eyes, don't stop talking, she will be pointed out to the congregation."

GOING OFF LIKE SHOOT'N.—It is a popular delusion to believe that powder on a lady's face has the same effect as in the pan of a musket—assists her to go off.

KISSES SWEETENED.—Kissing must be rather a sweet recreation in Maine, as we see that girls there, on going to parties, powder their faces with white sugar.

'I am taking in air,' said the bellows, when inflated. 'You needn't be puffed up about it,' replied the coal.

'Sir, I am as pure as the vault of Heaven,' said a poetical female criminal to the Marshal yesterday.

'Yes, and about as high, and full as blue,' retorted the venerable.

'I too come from Greece,' as the doughnut said to the Elgin marble.

A wise man will speak well of his neighbor, love his wife, and pay for his newspaper.

1 o'clock M.—We stop the press to announce that the Marshal is scraping the streets.

N. B.—the sprinkling man is watering them.

HILL & PHIPPS,

Carriage Manufacturers,

On Pennsylvania Street, 11 squares South of the Post Office, Indianapolis, Indiana.

CARRIAGES of the best Style and Latest Fashion Constantly on hand, or built at the shortest notice.

All kinds of repairs done on reasonable terms, and without delay.

March 17.

REMEMBER!

THAT we have a large and complete assortment of Cloth, Cassinets, Ladies Dress Goods, Shawls, Ribbons, and Laces, Bleached and Brown Muslins, Calicos and Ginghams, Boots and Shoes, &c., all of which we are determined to sell as cheap as the cheapest. Call and See.

SEATON & HOLMAN,

Indianapolis, March 10, '49. No. 6 Washington street

PAPER HANGING,

House, Sign and Fancy Painting,

BY G. D. STAATS

S^HOP under Morrison & Talbot's Book Store, one door west of Browning's, Indianapolis Indiana.

HORSE BILLS neatly printed, on fair terms and short notice, at the Locomotive office.

JOHN DOUGLASS. JOHN R. ELDER.

DOUGLASS & ELDER,

BOOK AND JOB PRINTERS.

OFFICE in Blake's Building, on Washington street, opposite Browning's.

ALSO,

the Publication Office of the Locomotive