LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

SUBSCRIBERS who receive their papers with an "X" marked on the margin will understand that the time for which they have paid has expired, or is about to expire, and that if they desire to receive the paper they must remit immediately.

—Felt hats, from 35 cents to $1.50, at the Ladies' Bazaar.

—Flowers, from 10 cents up to $2, at the Ladies' Bazaar.

—Muddy roads operated somewhat against trade last Saturday.

—Tips and Plumes, from 35 cents up to $5, at the Ladies' Bazaar.

—Full line of straw hats, latest styles, at the Ladies' Bazaar.

—The Milford Independent will henceforth be published at Goshen.

—Drs. Price & Brewer are building up an extensive practice in this locality.

—Elegant styles of new veiling and silk lace scarves, at the Ladies' Bazaar.

—The finance question is being warmly discussed here since Ed Fisher's visit.

—Prof. Luke expresses himself highly gratified with the condition of our public schools.

—John D. Black, county treasurer, was in town last Thursday. John has handled piles of greenbacks during the past few weeks.

—The appointment of James Nellis as Postmaster of Kendallville seems to give general satisfaction among the brethren. He is said to be both a very excellent and entirely competent man.

—In selecting their city papers for the coming year, we beg leave to suggest to our patrons that some attention be paid to the policy pursued on the finance question by the journal for which they are about to subscribe. The majority of New York papers have been so scandalously mean in their denunciation of the silver bill that Western men generally ought to turn them the cold shoulder.

—Like the Plymouth Democrat, we shall be obliged to all our correspondents if they will make their items short, crisp, and to the point, confining what they may have to write about to matters transpiring in their immediate neighborhood. Use no personalities. Make no statement that cannot be substantiated by good authority. Write the news and room shall at all times be glad to receive it.

—Every family should take a home paper, for after all said and done it is the most valuable of any. We don't say that the BANNER is the only paper in Noble county that is deserving of patronage. We offer it for what it is, and ask the people to be their own judges, each one for himself. If you like the BANNER take it; if you don't like it, we don't want you to take it. All we ask is that you take one or more of your county papers, and you be the exclusive guide of the one that suits you best.

—The Discussion.

ED. BANNER.—I see in your issue of Nov. 1st, an article headed "Accepted," written by Elder Winebrenner.

It is in reply to my article of Oct. 18th, in which Elder Corliss and the writer accepted his challenge, and by so doing it does not follow that we are under obligations to accept his questions for discussion.

We reject the questions simply from the fact they do not present what we teach, and consequently do not cover the difference of opinion existing between us on said points. Had we accepted the questions when we did the challenge we would not have offered some. As soon as the questions are accepted, the time and place can be easily determined upon. We will not discuss his questions for reasons stated. Space will not permit me to give the reasons why the questions do not cover the ground.

The writer had an appointment last spring to debate with Elder W. on the Sabbath question. Time, place and question agreed upon, but on account of sickness Elder W. could not be present. Now he has an opportunity to discuss with the writer. Am on the ground and there is no necessity of calling Elder Corliss from his field of labor.

Yours, in favor of the truth,

S. H. LANE.

(EDITOR'S NOTE: We omit Elder Lane's re-statement of the questions he proposes to discuss. Those especially interested therein can refer to his former letter. And we wish to have it understood that the debate can be transferred to the columns of THE BANNER.)

Renovation, not Prostration.

Did any enfeebled being ever become strong under the operation of powerful cathartics or salivators? It is sometimes asserted to regulate the bowels, but that cannot be done by active purgation, which exhausts the vital forces and serves no good purpose whatever. The only true way to promote health and vigor, which is essential to regularity of the organic functions, is to invigorate, discipline and purify the system at the same time. The extraordinary efficacy of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters in cases of debility or irregularity of the organs of digestion, assimilation, secretion and discharge, is universally admitted. Appetite, good digestion, a regular habit of body, active circulation of the blood, and purity of all the animal fluids are induced by this superior "corrective." It has no equal, moreover, as a preventive of chills and fever, and other types of malarial disease. To emigrate and travelers it is particularly serviceable as a medicinal safeguard.

IMPORTANT DECISION.—The Supreme Court of this State has just decided that incorporated towns, having control of the streets and alleys within their limits, are liable to be held for damages by persons receiving injury from defective sidewalks, crosswalks, bridges, or from open drains, etc., etc. The Court also holds that the town, in turn, can recover back the damages paid out of the municipal treasury, from the property holder responsible for keeping in repair the sidewalk, where the injury took place. This decision is of great importance to all incorporated towns, and should receive immediate attention from corporation officers generally. It should also receive attention from property owners, having mantraps in their sidewalks or open cellar stairways along the street.—Waterloo Press.

Items from Last Week's Albion Era.

A man by the name of Green, from Cromwell, is in jail serving out a fine imposed upon him for using profane language.

Clerk Alvord has paid into the county treasury during the year just ended four hundred and eighty-seven dollars, of Docket and jury fees and fines during the year.

During the year ending Nov. 14, the Clerk of the Circuit Court issued 320 executions, of which 75 represented foreclosed mortgages. The marriage licenses issued during the past year numbered Nov. 2nd, number 185.

Milt. Blackman, formerly of Albion, but now living in York township, was accidentally shot recently by his pistol falling upon the floor, the ball passing through the lower part of his hand and lodging in his knee. Dr. Hays probed the wound and found the ball.

During the past week marriage licenses have been issued to the following persons: Amos B. Long and Kate M. Fox; George S. and Edith Goodwin; Lewis S. Clayton and Ella Myers; Hemen Grindle and Mary Ruggles; John Gates and Lizzie Conrad; LaFayette Broughton and Lassila Graham; James Farlow and Rosetta Grochow.

The Noble Circuit Court adjourned for the October term, on Saturday evening last, having filled the full statutory term of 4 weeks. At the opening of the term there were 192 civil and criminal cases on the docket.

During the term 12 estates were finally disposed of, and many cases (partition, etc.) heard and all done that could be at first term. Several jury cases were tried, and 15 or 16 cases continued because defendants could not be found by the sheriff.

HUNTERS, TAKE NOTICE!—By referring to page 99 of the acts of the last Legislature, you will find the following law:

That any person or persons who shall be guilty of hunting or shooting with any kind of fire arms, in inclosed lands, without having first obtained consent of the owner or occupant thereof, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof, shall be fined in any sum not less than five, nor more than fifty dollars; provided, that no prosecution shall be instituted under the provisions of this act except by the written consent of the owner or occupant of the land entered.

We direct attention to this law, that hunters may be informed as to their rights. We do not believe that any man has a right to go upon the premises of others, running over their crops, knocking down fences, and shooting in fields where stock is kept, and for such offenses the law assesses a fine of not less than five dollars except consent be first obtained to the person in possession of the premises.

By reducing the army to a basis of 20,000 men the public expenditures will be reduced while a sufficient force will remain for the protection of the frontier against the Indians. That is the only plan for which a regular military establishment is needed. The people can protect themselves against mob violence whenever it arises to the assault upon the rights of person and property. If ever the time arises when the military establishment should become so degenerate as to depend on mercenary troops for their protection, their rights and liberties will be no longer worth preserving.—Harrisburg Patriot.

MR. SCHURZ'S two daughters are not specimens of buxom Teutonic beauty, but very fragile and refined, with complexions of transparent purity, fine regular features and fair hair. Agatha, the eldest, takes care of the boy her mother left, and is devoted to the beautiful child, now turning about the house and taking in baby clothes. The other young daughter, Fess, has charge of little Carl, an active boy of eight or ten, and the father is as devoted to the two girls, in public and private, as any lover could be.

A VIRGINIA farmer has reported rather an odd little incident that he has seen on his farm. He planted some weeks ago timothy seed with his wife, and the timothy grew up, although the wheat grew splendid. A careful examination disclosed the fact that the ants had gathered up all the grass seed, and made piles of it at the entrance of their underground home. All over the field this had been done, and a great quantity of the seed had been carried across the road and piled up in the field there.

A SPLENDID OFFER.

An excellent Map of the Mississippi Valley will be furnished free to every subscriber who remits to us the sum of $5.00, in payment of the subscription for one year. This map is 32x40 inches in size, printed in bright colors, mounted on rollers and varnished, showing accurately and plainly the country, Post-Offices and R. R. Stations of Missouri, Arkansas, Mississippi, Louisiana, Texas, and Kansas, and parts of Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kentucky, Tennessee, Alabama, Florida, Nebraska, and Indian Territory. It will be sent, postage free, on or about December 1st, 1877.

The New York Chamber of Commerce have passed a resolution requesting Congress not to remonetize silver. There is again, the holders of the golden money bags are becoming alarmed lest the poor who are below the bottom round of the ladder have a chance to climb a step or two. We beg to be the Congressmen who heed their request. The day of reckoning cometh, and with it the dire wrath of an oppressed people.—Benton Democrat.

The whole public debt was contracted when gold and silver were legal-tenders, and made payable in coin. It was not fair to the people who have the debt to pay to take away one of the two sources of payment, especially without their knowledge. They have a right to demand a restoration of silver to its place, as it existed at the time of the contract.—Lagrange Standard.

UNDER the financial policy of John Sherman it is reckoned that the depreciation of the value of real estate in the States of New York, Pennsylvania and Ohio, during the past few years, amounted to a sum sufficient to pay off our entire national debt.—Huntington Democrat.

The bonded indebtedness of Cincinnati at this time is $20,066,851. The larger part for aid in building the Cincinnati & Southern Railroad, which is yet far from completion.

True Merit Will Win.

A few years since the proprietors of Dr. Merit's Syrup of Tar, Wild Cherry and Horsehold introduced it here. It was not puffed, but sold on its merits. Our people soon found it to be reliable, and already it has become the most staple and popular pulmonary remedy in the market. It quickly cures the worst coughs, colds, croup, bronchitis, asthma and incipient consumption. Nothing acts so nicely in whooping cough, and it is so pleasant that children readily take it. Containing no opium, or other dangerous drug, it is as safe as it is sure. Trial size, 10 cents; large size, 50 cents and one dollar.—Sold by Eldred & Son.

Also Agents for Prof. Parker's Pleasant Worm Syrup, which never fails. Pleasant to take, and requires no physician. Price 25 cents.

The True Gentleman.

He is above a low act. He cannot stoop to commit a fraud. He invades no secret in the keeping of another. He takes selfish advantage of no man's mistakes. He is ashamed of innumerable. He uses no ignoble weapons in controversy. He never stabs in the dark. He is not one thing to a man's face and another to his back. If by accident he comes into possession of his neighbor's secrets, he passes them into instant oblivion. He bears seal packages without tampering with the wax. Papers not meant for his eye, whether they flutter in his window, or lie open before him in unguarded exposure, are secrets to him. He professes no privacy of another, however the sentry sleeps. Bolts and bars, locks and keys, bonds and securities, notices to trespassers, are not for him. He may be trusted out of sight—near the thinnest partition—anywhere. He buys no time, he sells none. He intrudes for no reason. He would rather fail of his rights than win them through dishonesty. He will eat honest bread. He tramples on no sensitive feelings. He insults no man. If he has a rebuke for another he is straightforward, open, and manly. He cannot descend to scurrility. Billingsgate does not lie on his track. Of woman, and to her, he speaks with decency and respect. In short, whatever he judges honorable he practices toward every one. He is not always dressed in broadcloth. "Some people," says a distinguished bishop, "think a gentleman must be independent of fortune—a man who fares sumptuously every day; a man who need not labor for his daily bread. None of these makes a gentleman—not one of them—not all of them together. I have known one of the roughest exterior who had been used all their lives to follow the plow and to look after horses, as thorough gentlemen in heart as any nobleman who ever wore a ducal coronet. I mean, I have known them as truthful, I have known them as sympathizing; and all these qualities go to make what I understand by the term 'a gentleman.' It is a noble privilege which has been sadly prostituted; and what I want to tell you is, that the humblest man who has the coarsest work to do, yet, if his heart be tender, and pure, and his conduct in the most emphatic sense of the word, 'a gentleman.'—The Christian Statesman.

NEVER FAILING WORM SYRUP.

E. F. Kunkel's Worm Syrup never fails to destroy Pin, Seat, and Spinal worms. Dr. Kunkel is the only successful physician who removes Tape worms in two hours. Head and all complete alive, and no fee till head passes. Common sense teaches that Tape worms can be removed, all other worms can be readily destroyed. Send for circular to Dr. Kunkel, 259 North Ninth St., Philadelphia, Pa., or ask your druggist for a bottle of Kunkel's Worm Syrup. Price $1 per bottle. It never fails. Used by children or grown persons with perfect safety.

Hayes' Dilemma.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 12th.—It looks very much as though the entire issue raised by Hayes and his party was narrowed for the present to the admission of the Louisiana Senators. Ellis saw Hayes yesterday night after the caucus of Senators, and put the matter very frankly and directly before him. If the Administration will use the three votes over which it appears to have no control, the Louisiana Senators and Daves—to seat the Louisiana Senators, and Butler, the Democrats will give Hayes a working majority in the Senate upon any nomination.

Manifestly, if he takes this course, he surrenders the control of the upper branch into Democratic hands. He hesitates to assume such a responsibility, and in consequence of this, a compromise has been proposed, and it is now the money paid for it. Had it not been for this compromise, it is probable that Hayes would have been forced to resign.
