

SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH INSTANTLY RELIEVES.

6,000 FEET ABOVE THE SEA.

The following statement is from Mr. J. B. BOWDISH & CO., Denver, Colo., large and reliable dealers in all kinds of large sales and universal satisfaction. No other disease is so prevalent in the country, and there is nothing to receive the paper they must receive immediately.

WASHINGTON TOWNSHIP SQUIBS.

Next to poor crops the farmer dreads low prices. Now, that an immense wheat crop is secured, we have complaints that the prices will be so low that the crop will not pay. It is unreasonable to expect large crops and low prices for a long time, though such a fortunate occurrence of events has occasionally been known in localities. But our present purpose is to show that, even at the ruling prices wheat does pay a good profit on the cost of cultivation. We presume that 20 bushels to the acre will be admitted to be a moderate estimate of yield for this season. The cost of breaking ground, seedling, harvesting, threshing, etc., may be put at $0.40 per acre. At this estimate the net profit on 20 bushels will be $0.20 per bushel, which seems a very nice sum to realize these times, when all manufactured goods are at the lowest prices reached for the past 16 years. In truth, the farmer who is out of debt and has harvested 20 or 40 acres of good wheat this summer is to be envied for his good fortune even if it gets but 75 cents per bushel for his crop. The proceeds of his crop will enable him to buy all the articles with all the necessities of life that he does not raise on the farm, and many things that are classed among luxuries besides. It is only the man that is in debt who has reason to complain at low prices for wheat. Everything, but obligations to pay, has declined in at least as great proportion as the price of wheat.

"Unless I read the times wrongly," writes Gen. Dodge, "it will not be long before the United States will demand at its head a strong Government, and a man who can preserve it against all comers and all issues, and that man will be Grant."

A strong Government! That means a Government verging more nearly on a monarchy than our Government does at present.

The idea of Gen. Dodge alone, it might be of comparatively little consequence. But evidently the thought is Gen. Grant's, and it is simply repeated by Dodge, after the manner of a parrot. In stating it he means that Gen. Grant had walked a long distance from the hotel where he is staying to call on him, and adds, with conspicuous simplicity: "I don't know but I am encroaching upon a quiet conversation, but I could not help telling you."

In a long, quiet, confidential talk with his old companion in arms Grant had let out this idea, and Dodge could not help telling it. That is the whole of it.

Grant has not much originality; he has not many ideas of his own; but all he has are of a despotic, monarchial Government, with himself at its head.

Grant for life, or Grant with a crown! Americans! are you ready for this?

She Knew Her Business.

When Collins went home to dinner Monday he found the house tenanted, the cook stove cold, and there was a lonesome look about that part of the Monday washing still left in the tubs in the summer kitchen. Hurrying through to the back yard he saw his wife stand against the fence, holding to the end of a broken clothes line to keep the newly washed garments from the ground.

"You've got here at last, have you?" exclaimed the wife as she caught sight of him.

"Yes, I'm here—what's the matter?"

"Here I've been holding this broken line for over an hour—over a full hour, sir!" she snapped. "I was determined to die right here before I'd let them clothes down."

"But what did you call some one?" he inquisitively inquired. "There is that new family next door—the woman would have come over in one minute."

"Woman, next door, you big idiot, you! Hasn't she been peeking around and peeking around for two weeks to see my wash, and d'ye think I'd give her a chance to come over here and see for herself whether the sleeves of my nightgown were pieced down with unbleached cotton! You don't know anything, sir, and you make tracks for a piece of rope, sir!"

"Well, I swan!" ground Collins as "tracked."

"A Undeniable Truth.

You deserve to suffer, and if you lead a miserable, unsatisfactory life in this beautiful world, it is entirely your own fault and there is only one excuse for you—your unreasonable prejudice and skepticism, which has killed thousands. Personal knowledge and common sense reasoning will soon show you that Green's August Flower will cure you of liver complaint, or dyspepsia, with all its miserable effects, such as sick headache, habitual costiveness, dizziness of the head, nervous prostration, low spirits, &c. Its sales now reach every town on the Western Continent and not a druggist but will tell you of the farmer who supplies him with the most reading, the most of other men's thoughts and experiences, will in the end, if not at once, be the most successful.

WILMOT WINNINGS.

Court has decided that the petitioners for the re-location of the old road and vacating of the new, in Washington twp., must pay the costs for carrying out the suit. Well, we can't help it, but we won't be so foolish as to sign another petition. No, not if they all do it in the town.

It is now time to talk up Sunday school pic-nic. Let some energetic man take the lead. It will do the children good, and all will be benefited.

Iey, there; you Albion Greenbackers; you need not come here to talk up greenbacks, as we have a man that can beat all creation blowing his bassoon.

Mr. B. F. Brown and Miss Mary L. Randall were joined in the holy bonds of wedlock on the 13th inst. We wish the happy pair all the happiness in the world. May heaven's choicest blessings ever rest upon them.

Our visit to Ligonier, last Saturday was an enjoyable affair. The streets were crowded, and lots of business seemed to be transacted.

E. W. Hartsook will start for Vicksburg next Saturday.

We saw "Jap" in town last Saturday, but did not get to speak with him. He is, we understand, a candidate for the sheriff's office. Success, "Jap."

Nebraska Crops.

LINCOLN, NEB., July 18.—The Daily State Journal will publish the official returns of acreage of cultivated lands in all the counties of the State, with the aid of 100,000 bushels of seed, over seventy-seven, which total over ten million bushels of wheat are harvested. It will also publish crop reports of the current week from fifty out of the sixty-three counties, showing the harvest of this year will be the most bountiful in the history of Nebraska. The wheat crop will not fall short of 15,000,000 bushels. The corn crop last year was 35,000,000 bushels, and will reach 50,000,000 millions this year. The oat crop in 1877 was 6,000,000, this season aggregating, the corn crop, 3,000,000. Rye, 1,000,000. The corned cattle returns published this morning show the population on May 1st to be 313,748.

Advice to Sherman.

(St. Louis Globe-Democrat.)

We believe John Sherman to be entirely innocent of the great transgression, but at the same time we are bound to say that he would greatly purify the public service by leaving it.

It is probable that John Sherman will be exonerated before the law requires him to resume. He is simply "building" the public belief up to the point that he can redeem if he chooses.
