

Fresh Today!

Pineapples
Strawberries

Oranges 1 cent each
Cigars 25 cents per box
Nine bars Jaxon Soap 25 cents
Bananas 10 cents per dozen

THE FRUIT HOUSE CALDWELL BROS.

Perfection in Clothing

If you had to pay $30 to $35 for a suit in order to be well dressed there would be a good reason for paying it.

Dressing well is the best of investment. But if you cannot be better dressed—more stylishly, more distinctively, more satisfactorily, than in

Hart, Schaffner & Marx

Clothing does it seem reasonable for you to pay a custom tailor almost 50 per cent more for the same thing?

You can get a fine nice dressy suit of the make that bears the H. S. & M. Label at $15 to $18

We have cheaper goods, if you want them.

In order to be convinced call at our store and we will convince you what we say is not paper talk, but facts. A word to the wise is sufficient. Yours to please,

M. JACOBS & CO. THE STORE OF QUALITY

A Complete Line of Gents' Furnishings Always on Hand

Goshen.

Watch for Goshen.

Grand Indoor Fair, Syracuse, April 4 to 9.

C. E. Benham and wife were Elkhart visitors last Friday.

Men's work shirts and overalls the best in the city at Stansbury's.

A barrel of fun every night at the Syracuse Indoor Fair, April 4 to 9.

Gauze underwear at five cents, ten cents and fifteen cents at Stansbury's.

Mrs. C. E. Benham was a guest at a social function in Elkhart Monday evening.

Meyer Hess of the firm of M. Jacobs & Co., was in Chicago Sunday and Monday on business.

Lewis Heber left Monday night for Arkansas to look after some business interests. He will be gone for several weeks.

The improvements at the Goldsmiths are going on apace. When completed the place will hardly be recognizable by old patrons.

The Albion opera house will be put in first class condition. The curtain will be frescoed and new scenery provided and a new exit put in.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank McDevitt, accompanied by Mr. C. H. McDevitt, came down from Goshen Saturday for a visit with friends and relatives.

Fred Huber has gone to Goshen where he is a patient at the Becknell Hospital. Mr. Huber has been suffering from stomach trouble for several years.

Lieutenant Ray Shobe who has recently located at Peru writes several of his friends here that he likes his new place and that the town is full of activity and push.

Jacob Shick, well known here, and Mrs. Fannie Fuchs of Toledo were married in this city last week and are now at home at Mr. Shick's residence west of the city.

John Bussing of the North Side left Tuesday for Coldwater, Mich., where he was called on account of the serious illness of a relative. He will not return until next week.

Miss Ruby May left Tuesday for Chicago where she will resume her studies at Ferry Hall after a most pleasant vacation of ten days. Miss May is delighted with her school.

Milt Moore of Lake Wawasee was here yesterday. He says that the lake is higher just now than he has seen it for years. The ice has all disappeared and in breaking up did very little damage.

The officers of the new Auburn state bank will be Jacob Kahn of Kendallville, president; Isaac Strickler, vice-president and Simon Schloss of Albion, cashier and manager. The capital stock will be $50,000.

The prohibitionists of Lagrange county have nominated the following ticket: Clerk, A. L. Gerber; treasurer, A. W. Merrifield; recorder, Geo. Smith; sheriff, A. A. Little; coroner, N. W. Reed; surveyor, Earl Greenawalt; commissioners, W. R. Riley and John W. Low.

Word was received from Denver, Colo., that Buel Davis, a Goshen boy, has been visiting there and had left there on a tour through California. Davis is the boy who made a voyage to South Africa during the Boer War, and traveled through Goshen News. Young Davis is well known here formerly having resided in Ligonier.

Charles Gibson who has been in the employ of Luar & Jacobs of Goshen for several years has accepted a position with Jacob Sheets and is now behind the counters at that popular establishment.

Bruce Schutt of the city school has accepted a position in the office of the Mier Carriage & Buggy Co., which he will assume at the close of his present term. This will make Mr. Schutt a permanent citizen of our city.

The fellows, who had been expecting a big row in the democratic convention, were wonderfully disappointed. The Democrats are generally able to settle their own difficulties in a way satisfactory to themselves at least.

After a recent death in Warsaw, following an illness lasting six days, the widow collected 27 medicine bottles, all empty, which she proudly showed to her neighbors to prove that she had done her best to keep the poor man on earth.

Rollin Ellison, the Lagrange banker, will be tried at Goshen on three embezzlement charges, during the present term of court. Hon. E. A. Dausman of Goshen has been selected as special judge to try the case. It will be a hard fought battle.

A good sized crowd was in attendance at the Masquerade ball given by the Bippens' orchestra at City Hall last evening. All costumes are original and many were perfect as disguises. Everybody, present both dancers and onlookers, greatly enjoyed the affair.

W. J. Hogue late of this city but now a resident of LaGrange has left the democratic party and is now a Prohibitionist. He joined the prohibits at Avilla last week at the congressional convention. He made a speech announcing his conversion and was at once accepted in full fellowship.

The Angola Magnet says: "Jerry Dutcher, fruit dealer, informs us that an inspection of fruit prospects in this region inclines him to the belief that a very good crop will be produced in spite of the severe winter. The conditions of the fall season, and plenty of snow left the fruit vines and trees in very good condition.

The hotels at Lake Wawasee are being put in shape for the early spring trade. The Inn will again be under the management of Witzig and Jones will operate the Jones Landing hotel; the Lake View hotel will be managed by B. A. Holton who has leased that popular resort, and Milton Woods will manage the Vawter Park hotel.

Those white semi-porcelain dishes, gold decorated, have the best appearance, finest effect and look the best of anything to be had in the line; also remember that I am now selling the white Habsburg china. This ware is fully equal to the Haviland in appearance and without the stamp would require a good judge to determine the difference, Stansbury.

Mr. Abt's performance on the mandolin we have yet to hear equalled. All of his numbers were rendered in a style of finish and with such perfect ease that the applause was spontaneous and terrific. The greatest living mandolinist—Stewart's Journal, Philadelphia. At the M. E. church, Monday evening, April 11.

Goshen.

Look for Goshen.

Canned tomatoes, best quality at ten cents at Stansbury's.

Lace curtains, window shades and curtain poles at Stansbury's.

Ike Straus made a business trip to Chicago last Thursday and Friday.

Leo Solomon shipped a load of fine horses to the Michigan market last Tuesday.

Fine musical entertainment at the Indoor Fair, Syracuse, every night next week. Don't miss it.

Hugh Lundy is now a resident of the second ward, having made his shift in time to save his vote.

The city schools are closed this week and the children are greatly enjoying the annual spring vacation.

Col. S. J. Straus went to Auburn last Monday to look after business interests. He returned home Monday evening.

Mr. Abe Goldsmith left Monday evening for Chicago where he spent the early part of the week visiting friends.

Dress goods, all the latest styles, in cotton and wool, will make special prices on these goods for a few days at Stansbury's.

Hosiery, this is one of our specialties, anything you want in lace, fancy and black for ladies, children and infants at Stansbury's.

Mr. and Mrs. Kitt Shepardson of Lagrange were here last Sunday, the guests of Mrs. Shepardson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Biddle, of the east side.

Will Sack was in Elkhart Monday and Tuesday evenings, assisting the Elkhart orchestra in furnishing music for a show at the Buckleman opera house.

The Ladies' Missionary Society of the Presbyterian church will meet with Mrs. O. W. Christie Thursday afternoon, April 14, at 2:30. All are requested to be present.

Hy-Art undershirts are the best in the market, price eight cents, one dollar, one dollar and twenty-five cents, one dollar and fifty cents and two dollars at Stansbury's.

Jim Hogue, a Prohibitionist! Talk about strange bed fellows in politics. This is the limit. Jim has been in all of the parties now and all hope that he has found what he wants.

Charles Bryner of Jefferson township has been appointed by the Elkhart county commissioners to fill out the unexpired term of County Assessor Patterbaugh who recently died.

Lagrange is to have a pickle salt-making station under the management of a Pittsburgh firm. A large number of contracts have been made with the farmers near Lagrange to plant cucumbers.

Albert Franks, one of the staunch Democrats of Elkhart township, was in the city last Saturday. He says that there is a strong Parker sentiment among the Democrats in his part of the county.

Miss Bernice Clapp of Albion and Miss Sue Dohson of Albuquerque, N. M., her room-mates at Ferry Hall, were here last Thursday to call upon Miss Ruby May, who is also a student at the popular school.

Those of the younger generation who expect to become "oldest inhabitants" should chalk up a set record. The winter of 1903-1904 as lasting from about November 20 until March 28, and then a few weeks for good measure.

Charles Cover, one of the oldest passenger conductors in point of service on the Lake Shore, died in a Toledo hospital Thursday, an operation for appendicitis proving futile. He was fifty years old and well known to many of our people.

When Mrs. Albert Stockly, one mile and a half southwest of Elkhart, missed her fourteen-months-old child, Helen, one afternoon last week, a search was instituted and the little one was found drowned in a bucket of dishwater. The child had evidently tried to drink the water and had fallen in head first.

The contest for the judicial nomination in the Elkhart-Lagrange circuit is beginning to get interesting. Hon. Lon J. Vail, well known here, is so far the leading candidate, but it is not out of the question that E. A. Dausman will also get into the fight. Dausman has been a Republican but a few years back seems to have a strong hold on the party.

Straus Bros. & Co.'s new Winton Touring cars are here and will be put in commission in a few days. They are most elegant machines, a great improvement over the 1903 automobiles. They are provided with canopy tops that can be completely closed, shutting out the rain and snow. Many improvements are noticeable in the construction. As soon as the roads are in condition they will be put in active use.

Bert Inks, the one time famous ball player, who for the past three years has been at his home in Ligonier, has received several offers from minor league teams to go into the business, and he is considering them favorably, though he hopes to receive a proposition from a big league team. Inks is quite well known here among the fans, having played with an all-star Elkhart nine at South Bend several years ago.—Elkhart affair.

The Angola Magnet says: "Jerry Dutcher, fruit dealer, informs us that an inspection of fruit prospects in this region inclines him to the belief that a very good crop will be produced in spite of the severe winter. The conditions of the fall season, and plenty of snow left the fruit vines and trees in very good condition.

The hotels at Lake Wawasee are being put in shape for the early spring trade. The Inn will again be under the management of Witzig and Jones will operate the Jones Landing hotel; the Lake View hotel will be managed by B. A. Holton who has leased that popular resort, and Milton Woods will manage the Vawter Park hotel.

Those white semi-porcelain dishes, gold decorated, have the best appearance, finest effect and look the best of anything to be had in the line; also remember that I am now selling the white Habsburg china. This ware is fully equal to the Haviland in appearance and without the stamp would require a good judge to determine the difference, Stansbury.

Mr. Abt's performance on the mandolin we have yet to hear equalled. All of his numbers were rendered in a style of finish and with such perfect ease that the applause was spontaneous and terrific. The greatest living mandolinist—Stewart's Journal, Philadelphia. At the M. E. church, Monday evening, April 11.

Goshen.

Wait for Goshen.

Corsets, gloves, ribbons, lace collars at Stansbury's.

Table linen and napkins, special this week at Stansbury's.

Allen Wysong was here from Goshen the latter part of last week.

Fine musical entertainment at the Indoor Fair, Syracuse, every night next week.

Don't miss it.

Hugh Lundy is now a resident of the second ward, having made his shift in time to save his vote.

The city schools are closed this week and the children are greatly enjoying the annual spring vacation.

Col. S. J. Straus went to Auburn last Monday to look after business interests. He returned home Monday evening.

Mr. Abe Goldsmith left Monday evening for Chicago where he spent the early part of the week visiting friends.

Dress goods, all the latest styles, in cotton and wool, will make special prices on these goods for a few days at Stansbury's.

Hosiery, this is one of our specialties, anything you want in lace, fancy and black for ladies, children and infants at Stansbury's.

Mr. and Mrs. Kitt Shepardson of Lagrange were here last Sunday, the guests of Mrs. Shepardson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Biddle, of the east side.

Will Sack was in Elkhart Monday and Tuesday evenings, assisting the Elkhart orchestra in furnishing music for a show at the Buckleman opera house.

Fine musical entertainment at the Indoor Fair, Syracuse, every night next week.

Don't miss it.

Hugh Lundy is now a resident of the second ward, having made his shift in time to save his vote.

The city schools are closed this week and the children are greatly enjoying the annual spring vacation.

Col. S. J. Straus went to Auburn last Monday to look after business interests. He returned home Monday evening.

Mr. Abe Goldsmith left Monday evening for Chicago where he spent the early part of the week visiting friends.

Dress goods, all the latest styles, in cotton and wool, will make special prices on these goods for a few days at Stansbury's.

Hosiery, this is one of our specialties, anything you want in lace, fancy and black for ladies, children and infants at Stansbury's.

Mr. and Mrs. Kitt Shepardson of Lagrange were here last Sunday, the guests of Mrs. Shepardson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Biddle, of the east side.

Will Sack was in Elkhart Monday and Tuesday evenings, assisting the Elkhart orchestra in furnishing music for a show at the Buckleman opera house.

Fine musical entertainment at the Indoor Fair, Syracuse, every night next week.

Don't miss it.

Hugh Lundy is now a resident of the second ward, having made his shift in time to save his vote.

The city schools are closed this week and the children are greatly enjoying the annual spring vacation.

Col. S. J. Straus went to Auburn last Monday to look after business interests. He returned home Monday evening.

Mr. Abe Goldsmith left Monday evening for Chicago where he spent the early part of the week visiting friends.

Dress goods, all the latest styles, in cotton and wool, will make special prices on these goods for a few days at Stansbury's.

Hosiery, this is one of our specialties, anything you want in lace, fancy and black for ladies, children and infants at Stansbury's.

Mr. and Mrs. Kitt Shepardson of Lagrange were here last Sunday, the guests of Mrs. Shepardson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Biddle, of the east side.

Will Sack was in Elkhart Monday and Tuesday evenings, assisting the Elkhart orchestra in furnishing music for a show at the Buckleman opera house.

Fine musical entertainment at the Indoor Fair, Syracuse, every night next week.

Don't miss it.

Hugh Lundy is now a resident of the second ward, having made his shift in time to save his vote.

The city schools are closed this week and the children are greatly enjoying the annual spring vacation.

Col. S. J. Straus went to