The races last Saturday, notwithstanding the bad weather, called out a pretty good crowd.

A little careless shooting at the east bridge caused some little excitement Tuesday evening.

Lost—Gray silk glove on Fort Wayne Ave. If found leave at home of J. B. Lane or at postoffice.

Mrs. Platt will sell a span of work horses, also harness and wagon, on the street, one week from Saturday, October 31.

P. B. Green of Lagrange was here last Monday for a short visit with friends. He says that democratic prospects in Lagrange county are most excellent.

Very little money has been wagered in Ligonier on the coming election. The outcome is so much in doubt that the average partisan is a little backward about putting up his coin.

Christ Monk of Elkhart has been here for several days visiting his mother and other friends. He says that Tom Marshall will get a big vote at Elkhart among the workmen.

The big Marshall demonstration at Fort Wayne Saturday night will be the political meeting of the campaign. The Lake Shore will offer a half fare rate from Ligonier, which will make the fare ninety cents for the round trip.

The fact that Frank Hadley, a Garrett barber, carried a gun into the woods near the city limits and kept it there for two hours cost Mr. Hadley $28.50. Deputy game warden John Rigney happened along that way and arrested several fellows for hunting without license.

The democratic candidate for commissioner in the southern district is Daniel S. Stump, a leading farmer in Washington township and an excellent citizen. Mr. Stump will get a good vote in his own township and this is a strong testimonial of his standing. He will make a good officer if elected.

Levi Stump, a well known thresher in Noble township, was arrested one day last week on account of running his threshing engine over one of the paved streets at Columbia City. It seems that a city ordinance prohibits the use of the streets for this purpose. Stump did not know it and unintentionally violated the law.

Ben E. Deahl of Goshen was the speaker at the democratic club room last Monday night and he was greeted by a splendid crowd. The rooms were packed and much enthusiasm was manifested. Mr. Deahl delivered a splendid address. It was full of good solid democratic doctrines that appealed to the voters. It is such speeches as delivered by Mr. Deahl that carries conviction to the voters.

We hope that the people of Ligonier will vote down the proposition to tie up $30,000 of their money in another municipal lighting experiment. The schools of Ligonier need accommodations that they can not get nor will not get for years if this scheme is carried through. We are all interested in the schools and everybody knows that the present accommodations are not adequate and that we need another school building in the south-eastern part of the city to accommodate the primary grades.

The Noble County Bar association met today for the purpose of a suitable action upon the retirement of Judge W. Adair from the bench. Judge Adair was appointed to the bench in 1883 and has served continuously since that time, having been re-elected three times.

D. H. Brunjes has closed his place and left for Michigan, where he will spend the winter. Mr. Brunjes has taken advantage of the fine weather and done a lot of work on the grounds around his park. He says he has had a very good season. —Syracuse Register.

The library will be closed for several days on account of the removal of the books to the new building. The new building will not be opened to the public during the moving and classification of the books, but every effort will be made to put things in shape at the earliest possible moment.

Chas. G. Lohman, formerly of Kendallville but now of South Bend, who for some time has been general superintendent of the Chicago, South Bend & Northern Indiana Traction Co.'s system, has been promoted to general traffic manager, and placed in charge of all passenger and freight traffic on the entire system of the road from Michigan City to Goshen.

Will Campbell, who for several years has been the foreman of the trim shop of the Butler Buggy company, has resigned his position to accept a similar one with the Ligonier Carriage Co. at Ligonier. Mr. Campbell will move his family there in a few days and expect to make that place his future home. He is a skilled man in his line and the Ligonier company can be congratulated on securing him. —Auburn Courier.

William H. Favinger, democratic candidate for clerk of the Noble Circuit court, is a man who will perform the duties of that important office in an efficient and capable manner. He possesses a splendid education and has the necessary qualifications to make a splendid public servant. As trustee of Green township he rendered excellent satisfaction to the taxpayers of that township. Give him your vote November 3, and you will never regret it. —Albion Democrat.

Harvey E. Beazel, for years a resident of Ligonier and well-known here, died at Indianapolis last Friday at the age of 66. He was born in Pennsylvania and came to Indiana at the beginning of the civil war. In 1862 he enlisted in the eighty-eighth Indiana volunteers at Ligonier, and served until the end of the war, participating in the final review at Washington. At the close of the war he returned to Indiana and for twenty years had been a commercial traveler. He removed to Indianapolis in 1892. The funeral was held last Monday.

Mr. J. D. Straus representing Mrs. A. Goldsmith and daughters, came before the library board last Tuesday evening and tendered that body a fine collection of reference books to cost $1,000 and $50.00 each year for ten years for maintenance. This part of the public library is to be separate and known as the Abe Goldsmith Memorial library. Especial care will be exercised in the selection of the books and their arrangement. This will mean much to the public library and its efficiency for it will afford the student and everybody else a most comprehensive and complete library of reference, something that all will appreciate. Mrs. Goldsmith could not have done anything more appropriate or timely.

Tag day will soon be here.

W. H. Baker, proprietor.

Lost—A pocketbook, between McLean and Main streets. Pocketbook had an initial letter on the outside in gold. Finder please return to Citizens Bank and receive reward.

While working at the Schloss residence last Friday a scaffold gave way throwing Ed Compton to the ground. He has several broken ribs and some bad bruises to show for his fall.

Ex-Sheriff, H. H. Bell, one of the best fellows on earth and a leading farmer in Elkhart township was in this city Monday shaking hands with friends. Mr. Bell is a Republican and he says that his neighbors will all vote about as usual.

Jap Grimes of near Syracuse was in this city Tuesday. Mr. Grimes is one of the most successful farmers in his part of the county is a staunch Democrat who believes in Bryan and Marshall. He says that they will get many republican votes.

The young people will have to be careful in having their fun on Halloween night for the officers have been instructed to arrest and prosecute any one who engages in riotous or unseemly conduct. Nobody will object to harmless fun and frolic but destruction of property or trespass will not be allowed.

C. S. Wolfe for many years a well-known resident of this part of the county, died last Saturday at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Clarence Zimmerman, near Kendallville at the age of 65. The funeral was held in this city last Tuesday, interment at Salem cemetery. Mr. Wolf was an old soldier and an excellent citizen.

A vote for Hiram G. Earnhart for county recorder will be giving your support to a most excellent citizen and a farmer who will make a first class public officer. Mr. Earnhart is an old school teacher and is eminently qualified for the position and if elected will make a popular public servant. Mr. Earnhart should be elected.

Dr. J. F. Neifer of Kendallville must be the butt of some practical joker or an easy mark for some fellow who does not like him for the doctor is all the time complaining that he is being constantly annoyed by unknown parties who are making a practice of tampering with his motor cycle which he leaves standing out in front of or near his office. The doctor needs a body guard.

The finest concert company that ever visited Ligonier was presented last Monday night by the Citizens' Amusement Association before a splendid audience. The Oratorio Artists Co. made up of four vocalists: Reed Miller, tenor; Fredrick Whelan, bass; Florence Hinkle, soprano; Adah Hussey, contralto and Lois Davidson, pianiste; gave an entertainment that was above criticism. They struck a popular chord and were most enthusiastically received.

Amon Spurgeon of Elkhart township, the democratic candidate for commissioner, will get a good support in this part of the county. He deserves every vote that he will get and more. He has made a splendid record as trustee of Elkhart township, and has won the approval of his neighbors, many of whom will vote for him Tuesday. Mr. Spurgeon will make a good county commissioner, one who will look after the interests of the taxpayers all of the time.

The large barn on the Scott Blanchard farm near Etna was burned last Friday entailing a big loss. The fire was the work of an incendiary as the man was seen running from the building a few minutes before the flames were discovered. He was recognized but the young men who saw him have so far refused to divulge his name. In the meantime the farmers in the neighborhood are trying to find the culprit.

We are told that if the municipal ownership idea is not adopted that Mr. Olds will organize an electric lighting company and put in the plant. If he can do this and offer the people the kind of service that they will demand if any company at the price that Mr. Draper offered to do the work for, well and good. We want electric lights, we want good service and we want it at a price that will protect the taxpayers, the users of the lights and the company that furnishes the service.

William Clawson died at Elkhart last Sunday morning at the age of eighty-one. For many years Mr. Clawson was a familiar figure in Ligonier where he had many friends. He was the father of four children, nine of whom are still living. The remains were brought to this city Tuesday for interment in the Ligonier cemetery. Mr. Clawson came to this city in 1863 and for twenty years was a well known resident.

Watch out for Tag day.

Do not miss the speech at Kann's hall tonight.

The last saloon in Churubusco will close its doors on Nov. 7.

Dr. J. E. Lucky of Wolf Lake was in the city last Saturday.

Dr. C. W. Dancer of Stroh was in this city yesterday looking after his political fences.

Next Tuesday will settle the fight. Everybody should cast his vote without fear or favor.

The democratic meeting will be held at Kann's hall tonight. Do not fail to hear Mr. Robinson.

Hon. John W. Hanan of Lagrange will speak here next Monday evening. Mr. Hanan is one of the best talkers in this state and should have a big crowd.

Bert Orms, a Butler lad, refused to answer questions propounded by the DeKalb county grand jury. Judge Bratton of Angola fined him $5 and sent him to jail for ten days.

Walter Wellman's articles in the Chicago Record Herald have had a disquieting effect upon the republican workers in that part of the state. They are beginning to see the possibilities of a land slide.

The Republicans held the best meeting of the campaign at Kann's Hall last Tuesday night. Congress man Langford of Nebraska was the speaker and he talked for two hours from his side of the question.

Burle Beery, a Butler lad, attempted to rob the residence of P. V. Huffman, formerly of this city, at Auburn, by the porch-climbing route, but fell from the roof of the porch, sustained injuries and was captured and lodged in jail.

Anyone who wishes to hear Tom Marshall can go to Goshen next Saturday at 9:30 a. m. and return at noon. Mr. Marshall will speak in that city at 10 o'clock Saturday forenoon. It is safe to predict that Ligonier will be well represented.

The fellows who tried to spend $40,000 of the people's money at Goshen to put a money-eating municipal electric light plant on its feet are up against a Court injunction. In this city the people will put in an injunction against the $30,000 debt that it is proposed to pile up.

Geo. W. Billings of Washington, D. C. has been here for several days working politics. Mr. Billings is connected with the Interior Department in the public service and under the law is entitled to vote in this city, a right that was denied to Albert W. Parsons several years ago by the republican bosses who controlled the election board.

Hear Him

HON. JOHN W. HANAN

of Lagrange, will speak in

LIGONIER, IND.

Monday Evening Nov. 2.

Do not fail to hear him. Mr. Hanan is a Leading Democrat who will prove the claims of the party.

Don't Forget the Date.

Millions of Dollars Worth of Property Destroyed

Every year on account of bad and leaky roofs. Many times during a hard rain storm you have seen the water coming through the ceiling of your nice rooms or through your the roofs of your barns and other outbuildings, just for the want of a better watershed.

We are selling and do recommend to you Rubber Roofing. It is easy and quickly applied. You can make your roof as tight as a drum and at a very small outlay of money. With Rubber Roofing there will be no danger of a leak. Now is the time to look after your roof before winter sets in when it is almost impossible to put on any kind of a roof. If you have barns, cornerbills, chicken coops, graineries that need roofing or siding we recommend to you Rubber roofing. Each roll contains nails and coating for lap and will lay 100 square feet of surface.

Drive in any day, we have a good stock on hand and can supply you on demane. We are yours for more business.
