Adam Stiver of Walnut, Ill. accompanied by his grandson, Arthur Stiver, visited here with Dr. L. J. Stiver and family. Mr. Stiver, who is 82 years old left this part of the county over forty years ago, and for many years was thought to be dead.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. McNutt and Mr. George Crothers and little son, Donald returned from Colorado, Saturday evening, where they have been for the past three months. They visited many points of interest, among them being Pike's Peak.

Attorney Otto E. Grant, who located in Albion recently, in the practice of his profession, arrived in the city Monday and will remain until after the election, at which he will vote the democratic ticket. His wife and family who have been in this city with her mother, Mrs. H. C. Widup, will leave with him after the election to make their future home at Albion. —Columbia City Post.

Ben. S. Ramsey, 65 years of age, died Wednesday at Elkhart. Ramsey was a veteran soldier, a cigar-maker by occupation and was an amateur actor of considerable versatility. He had resided in Albion, Goshen and other northern Indiana towns. Mr. Ramsey was found unconscious upon the street in Elkhart Tuesday night and was taken to his room. At noon next day he was found dead.

Miss Lillian McMillen spent Sunday in the city.

Mrs. Harvey Babb of Goshen was the guest of her sister, Mrs. O. C. Harsh over Sunday.

The young people took the town last Saturday night, but no very flagrant case of vandalism was reported.

Don't forget the supper given by the Ladies Aid Society of the U. B. church, Oct. 12, at the home of F. H. Green.

Casper Wolf, a well known Sparta township farmer, died at his home near Kimmell last Saturday after an extended illness. Cap Wolf as he was familiarly known, was an excellent citizen and had a wide circle of friends in this city.

The Benton township Democrats elected Ed Eleasa, trustee of that township by 7 majority. In Clinton township D. A. Wortinger, Democrat, has 155 majority. The Democrats of Elkhart county elected ten out of sixteen Trustees.

It seems that the Democrats still have a majority of the township trustees which insures the re-election of W. A. Beane as county superintendent of schools. Prof. Beane has made a most efficient and popular officer, and should be elected by a unanimous vote of the county board of education when in session.

Two large and powerful locomotives with the "Moffat Road" emblazoned in gilt letters passed over the Lake Shore Tuesday afternoon. They were small wheelers, four drive wheels to the side, but otherwise large and attractive. They are built for mountain climbing over the steepest grades and through the finest scenery of any road that crosses the "Rockies."

Kendallville is noted for its scratching. The voters certainly got in their work last Tuesday. George W. Shafer, Democrat, was elected trustee over Morris Sherman by about one hundred while Orange Hill, Republican, defeated ex Recorder John W. Miller, for assessor by 164 Kimmell, candidate for senator, was badly cut in his own township as was C. C. Gilhams and several other republican candidates.

There are evidently some thoughtless persons about town who do not know the law has severe penalties for the destruction of bills posted in public places, and from the practice of tearing down or mutilating bills which has been indulged in lately it looks like an example would have to be made of some one to enforce the law. Men who pay for sale bills and go to the expense of posting them up are not pleased to note their destruction. —Waterloo Press.

The announcement is made that railroad companies will discontinue the publication of time-table folders for free distribution at stations and hotels. The purpose is to reduce expenses and to provide more money for newspaper advertising. The publication of time tables in local papers would cover the ground at less expense than for folders. It is claimed several printing plants making a specialty of printing these folders will be compelled to go out of business now.

The death of Miss Hazel Francisco last Friday was a shock to our people, few of whom even knew that she had been ill for several days. She was operated upon for appendicitis early in the week but could not be saved. Miss Francisco was a beautiful winsome girl, a popular school teacher and a cultured young woman. She had been teaching at Wawaka since the opening of the schools and was taken ill while in the discharge of his duties. The funeral at the Presbyterian church last Sunday was largely attended.

The Democrats of Sparta township are telling a story about a well-known professional man that does not do the gentlemen credit. They say that he worked up a hunting party interesting a well-known Democrat until he had made all arrangements to go. At this time the professional man backed out and the Democrat also hesitated but was assured by the Republican that he would not vote, in other words arranged a "pair" that he did not keep. It was a smooth scheme to get a good democratic vote out of the county.

Our friend Sam Williams thought that Watson was a sure thing, so sure that he could not lose.

Be sure to attend E. Jacobs & Co.'s cloak and suit sale on Friday, Nov. 6th. Extraordinary low prices.

A chance to buy a cloak or suit at an extraordinary low price on Friday November 6 at E. Jacobs & Co.

The big election is yet to come. It means more to Ligonier taxpayers than the contest of last Tuesday.

Tom Marshall carried Perry township by 7 majority when the polls showed that the Republicans have at least 100 majority in the township.

John M. Shultz of Elkhart lost his wife and sister by death within a few hours on Friday and Mr. Shultz went immediately from the funeral of his wife to attend the burial of his sister.

Peter Feldhiser of Sparta township one of the best Democrats in the county was in this city yesterday. He says that everybody is delighted over the election of Tom Marshall.

The fellows who thought that Watson would win and backed their opinion with good hard money will see other fellows wearing overcoats and other things at their expense. We could name a few of the boys that got in wrong but they feel bad enough without it.

Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Wood and Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Smith of Ligonier were here today enroute to Fort Wayne. Mr. Smith recently purchased the handsome home of the Woods. Windemere Villa, near Ligonier. —Kendallville Sun.

While putting out a set-line in Bixler lake at Kendallville Saturday evening, Thomas Reed and Chauncey Baker were pitched into the water by the overturning of their boat. They managed to cling to the craft, but could not right it and were in the chilling water half an hour before their cries attracted assistance and they were rescued.

Frank C. Vondersmith and Miss Edith Yoder of this city drove over to Albion last Monday and were married at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hart by Rev. Graves of the M. E. church. The bride and groom are well known young people, popular with everybody. They will take up their residence in this city.

The friends of Hon. J. G. Kimmell can well feel proud of the endorsement that he gets in the election of Jos. T. Stahl of Kendallville as Representative. Mr. Kimmell stood for the democratic platform as did Mr. Stahl, whose majority is so substantial that it is taken as an endorsement of the democratic position.

The grist mill at Kimmell was destroyed by fire last Sunday morning entailing a loss of $12,000 on building machinery and contents. The source of the fire is a mystery but it is loudly charged that it was the work of incendiaries. The mill was new, having been rebuilt only last year after the other fire that destroyed the first milling plant. The fire was not discovered until the building was about to fall in.

Ella Fisher of Waterloo has filed suit against Rev. Samuel P. Klotz, a United Brethren minister, in which she demands damages in the sum of $5,000 for alleged breach of promise. The plaintiff insists that they became engaged in July, 1907, and that the fact that they were to marry became a matter of common knowledge about Waterloo but that later the pastor sent her word that he had changed his mind and in August last he wedded another woman.

Hon. Freeman Tabor of Kendallville died last Saturday at an advanced age. Mr. Tabor was one of the early pioneers of the county and a man of sterling qualities. Mr. Tabor located in Kendallville in 1857 and was for many years a prominent figure in northern Indiana citizenship. He operated a flouring mill for many years, drove stage in the ante-railroad days, was connected with the "under-ground railway" system of aiding slaves to freedom and had served in the state legislature.

Mme Lillian Nordica, the greatest living dramatic soprano, and most popular of all the grand opera stars, with a company of excellent artists will give a recital at the auditorium in South Bend on Monday night, Nov. 9th. For this great musical treat that city is indebted to the management of the South Bend Conservatory who have guaranteed a large amount to the company in order to induce them to come to South Bend. Many of the musical people of this community have heard Mme Nordica during the grand opera seasons in Chicago. Many others have never had the opportunity to hear this wonderful singer and it goes without saying that many from this community will make the pilgrimage to South Bend. Consider the magnificence of the concert the prices—$2, $1.50, $1 seems very reasonable. Those desiring good seats should send their order in at once with check to the Auditorium box office.

Watch out for Tag day.

Bert Grimes drove to Syracuse Tuesday to take a democratic voter to the polls.

Miss Miriam McMillen who is attending school at Goshen visited her parents over Sunday.

Be sure to visit E. Jacobs & Co.'s store on Friday, Nov. 6th and attend their special cloak and suit sale.

Miss Wava Biddle graduated at the Clark hospital, Elkhart, Oct. 28, and will locate at Ligonier.

It is strange how many young Republicans hold their residence in Ligonier even if they do not come home but once every four years.

Frank McDaniel spent a few days at home last week. He returned to his school duties in Fort Wayne Sunday evening.

Rev. William Mitchell, formerly of Kendallville, died Saturday morning at Logansport. He was a son of John Mitchell, well known Kendallville capitalist.

Old people's service at the M. E. church Sunday morning, Rev. Chas. E. White will preach a sermon of special interest to them, and the church will be decorated for the occasion. All are invited.

William Watson and Lloyd Hursh well known Allen county men, are facing a charge of fish law violation in the court of Justice Green at Auburn. Affidavits were filed by Roderick Fleming, deputy fish and game commissioner.

Claude, the three-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Crawell, of Jefferson township, Whitley county, fell from his high chair a few days ago and rammed the point of a pair of four-inch scissor in his face. One of the points penetrated the cheek bone, entering below the eye, and was broken off, but a surgeon succeeded in removing the steel.

John Perry Stewart's livery barn at Wawter Park, Lake Wawasee, was destroyed by fire about 3 o'clock this morning. Practically all the contents except the horses were destroyed, and that included the vehicles, harness and winter feed. The horses had been turned out on pasture late Sunday evening. The barn was not an expensive structure, and was not worth more than $300 to $400. The origin of the fire is unknown.
