Topeka will have a fine entertainment tomorrow, Friday evening, at the Carnegie Hall. Hoyt's Midnight Bell Co., which will be at the Jefferson, Goshen, tonight will occupy the boards. All should see this excellent entertainment.

The Columbia City Post says: "Judge Luke H. Wrigley of Albion, put in his first day on the bench of the Noble County circuit, Wednesday, at 10 o'clock. He was a decidedly good impression as the cases that were brought before him were dispatched with justice and quickness.

The band concert last Tuesday night was not as well patronized as the entertainment deserved. These concerts should be a popular entertainment for our people. The boys put up a splendid program, the room is always pleasant and the price is so small that all can afford to attend.

James Alford of Warsaw, 20 years of age, is under arrest for destroying a rural mail box. Alford had just served a jail sentence for public intoxication. He went hunting and celebrated his release by shooting a mail box full of bullets. Then Deputy United States Marshal Rankins of Indianapolis, got him.

The promoters of the Haney self-igniting gas engine, Messrs. A. W. Lyon, F. H. Green and H. O. Haney have been granted a patent upon the device and are fully protected. They will now be able to put the engine upon the market and it promises to be a most successful invention. It is reported that the factory may go to Fort Wayne.

Bert Inks has arranged to open a dancing school at the City Hall. The first meeting will be held next Thursday evening, where the class will be organized. He will give special attention to beginners, but will give instructions to all who come. After each class meeting an assembly in which all can participate will be given. Sack's orchestra will furnish the music.

The eighteenth annual meeting of the Noble County Teachers association will begin their session at the Presbyterian church in this city tomorrow, Friday, morning at 10 o'clock. A most interesting program for the two day's session has been prepared and the teachers and public will be well entertained. The program for Friday evening is especially interesting and will doubtless attract a good attendance.

Miss Nadine Williams and Mr. Bret Harte Gibson, two well known young people, went to Albion yesterday where they were married at the M. E. parsonage. The young people then started for a short visit with friends. The bride is the daughter of S. J. Williams and a bright, winsome and popular young lady. The groom is an excellent young man who has a wide circle of friends. The young people will take up their residence here.

W. H. Favinger, of Green township late democratic candidate for clerk, was in the city, Wednesday and called at our sanctum. While he is feeling somewhat disappointed over his defeat, yet he is well pleased with the support which he received in all parts of the county. He made a splendid showing against the republican candidate, and ran ahead in every precinct in the county with the exception of three. He would have made a splendid official but he is not disappointed and does not regret having made the race.—Democrat.

The municipal campaign that closed last week was full of interest as both sides were alert and well organized. The municipal ownership people thought to spring a coup when they brought Ex-Mayor Deahl of Goshen into the fight at the last minute, but, equal to the occasion, the opposition secured ex Senator Dausman to present the other side of the case. Both meetings were well attended but all admitted that the "anti" got the best of it. A pleasant feature of the affair was a little impromptu party organized by Ike Straus who invited Messrs. Deahl, Dausman and Evans of Goshen and Mr. Olds of Fort Wayne over to his home after the meetings and later sent the Goshen party home in his big Matheson touring car rather than have them wait for the late train. It was a gracious act upon the part of Mr. Straus.

E. L. Adair has sold the fixtures of the old Elkhart hotel to H. G. Starkey, of Sterling, Ill. who took charge of the house Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Billman returned Friday after several days visit with Mrs. George Campbell and Mrs. Walter Binns and family at Auburn.

Arthur Grisold of Kendallville, who was found guilty of the charge of horse stealing at Celina, Ohio, leaves his wife and children in destitute circumstances at Kendallville.

Hon. B. F. Shively of South Bend one of our leading candidates for the U. S. Senatorship will deliver the Elk's memorial address at the Elk hall Sunday afternoon, Dec. 6th. All should hear Mr. Shively.

Whitley county will be among the first to try for the local option election. Petitions are being circulated so that the election can be held at once. The law was declared in force by Governor Hanly, last Saturday.

Miss Grace Graham delightfully entertained the X. Y. Z. Club at her beautiful home on Main street, last Thursday evening. Music and cards furnished entertainment during the evening and elegant refreshments were served at the usual hour.

John E. Green and Mrs. Emma E. Dodge of this city went to Albion last Thursday, where they were married by Rev. C. J. Graves of the Carnegie Church. Both are well known and their marriage was in the nature of a surprise to many of our people.

Somebody started the report Monday that the municipal election of Wednesday of last week would be contested on the grounds that the tickets were not prepared properly. The rumor seems to be unfounded, for there are no grounds for such a contention. The tickets reading the same in both elections.

The regular meeting of the D. A. R. will be held at the home of Mrs. Ashton Sedgwick on next Tuesday evening, December 1st. The subject will be Chris Kringle in Colonial times. The subject will be presented by Mrs. Lou J. Dunning. The responses will be from Birds Christmas Carol.

Kendallville has a Commercial Club and a most excellent organization. Among its officers we note that Ligonier is pretty well represented. The officers are: President, O. E. Brown, treasurer and Dr. O. E. Stiver is chairman of the executive committee. All of these gentlemen are former residents of this city.

Sol Baker, a well-known Noble county farmer, residing in Noble township, spent Wednesday in the city. He formerly resided on Judge Adair's farm and states that he had been hit Tuesday, losing a fine six-year-old mare from blood poisoning, caused by stepping upon a nail. The animal was worth $200 and was not insured.—Columbia City Post.

F. W. Tucker, the State inspector who recently paid a visit to this city, was at Kendallville several days last week. It is said that he found much to interest him and that he talked pretty plainly to several grocers and meat market proprietors. The dairies were also visited and advised to clean up at once. It is too bad that we do not have closer inspection and a more rigid enforcement of the law.

Judge J. W. Adair will again engage in the practice of law at Columbus City. He will go back to his old office, left twenty years ago, to take up the work laid down by Judge Walter Olds, who had been elected to the supreme court. He will enter a partnership with his son-in-law, E. C. Strong, reviving the old firm of Adair & Strong. It is safe to say that the firm will get their full share of the legal practice in this part of the state.

The White Cafe has been moved into the new room just south of the post office. Mr. White has fitted up a fine place that would be a credit to any city many times the size of Ligonier. He has spared no work or expense in making the place attractive and tidy and he proposes to keep the restaurant up to its former high standard. Mr. White is certainly entitled to great credit for his enterprise in giving our city a first class v.p.-to-date cafe.

Rev. Father J. C. Keller will leave Sunday night for his old home at Wilkesbarre, Pa., to spend Thanksgiving with his mother and incidentally to attend the fiftieth anniversary jubilee of his former pastor the Rt. Rev. Monsignor P. C. Nagle. This will be the first time in twenty years that father Keller will have spent Thanksgiving at his old home and he will be prepared to enjoy his visit. His former pastor has been in the priesthood for fifty years and the celebration of his ordination anniversary will be an auspicious affair.—Kendallville News.

Since the granting of letters patent to the Haney Gas Engine there has been some talk that the machine would be put into Fort Wayne. Col. A. W. Lyon is one of the principal stockholders in the enterprise and with ex-Mayor F. H. Green has a goodly amount of money in the experiments that led up to the perfection of the engine. In the face of the treatment that Col. Lyon has been getting from a certain element of our citizens, on account of his having loaned the Draper several thousand dollars, it would hardly seem strange that he would feel like investing his capital elsewhere. His treatment is an outrage and a disgrace not only to the fellows back of it but to the city.

What a misguided lot!
