King & Weaver

Cromwell

Chris Wyland has returned from the northwest where he has been sojourning for the last two or three weeks. The lake in the woods did not furnish sufficient sport on account of the drought, the game making for the swamp land, yet there were good bags. A look in at St. Paul for a short time and a visit in Wisconsin on the way coming home added pleasure to the short trip.

Quite a few of our farmer friends are visiting Chicago this week taking in the Stock Show.

Jessie Cottes has his enlarged barn now fixed for winter. A cement floor will be added in the spring. Dan Cress was the contractor.

Lon Brown and Lena Brower attained a marriage license last Saturday in Albion and after being united in the holy bonds by Rev. Graves returned home. A family dinner was held on Sunday, at which Eli Pollock and wife, now of Kimmell were present. The bell ring took place Monday evening.

Chas. Slabaugh left last Monday morning for Mount Clemens, where he intends undergoing a treatment for rheumatism.

Roscoe Kiser is at present suffering the pangs of voluntary bachelorhood having accompanied his wife as far as Chicago on the way to her former home at Warsaw, Wis. His troubles he says will last for another week or so when there will be a reunion.

Lucille Thomas visited her aunt and friends the latter part of last week at Albion accompanied by her mother and family of Bamji, Minn. According to this Dan is doing well, having acquired 160 acres and a town lot as well. His many friends here will be glad to know of his continued prosperity.

On account of weather conditions the new store has been making slow progress last week. The plate glass window has arrived but has not been put in position.

J. D. Krazier has put in new windows in his saloon which makes quite an improvement.

Harley Moore and family have moved to South Bend where he has been engaged in the street railway company.

John McMann having finished his dredging contract north of Nappanee has now returned home to hibernate for some time.

Jake Davis, who has been an invalid for some time past, died at his residence at Willmot last Sunday afternoon. He had reached the age of four score years and more, was a soldier of the revolutionary war, widely known and respected. He has left a widow and a grown up family to mourn his loss.

Good Medicine for Children
The season for coughs and colds is now at hand and too much care cannot be used to protect the children. A child is much more likely to contract diphtheria or scarlet fever when he has a cold. The quicker you cure his cold the less the risk. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the sole reliance of many mothers and few of those who have tried it are willing to use any other. Mrs. F. F. Starcher, of Ripley, W. Va., says: "I have never used anything other than Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for my children and it has always given good satisfaction." This remedy contains no opium or other narcotic and may be given as confidently to a child as to an adult. For sale by S. J. Williams.

Small Patterns of Mankind

The story of the woman who bought eggs on credit of one grocer and sold them for cash to another may or not have a pathetic side. In many cases it would have. Many women are kept so penniless by their selfish husbands that they hardly know what money is. If a husband and wife are mutually self sacrificing, if the husband gives to the wife her share of whatever pleasures their income will buy, there is no excuse for such acts on the part of the wife. But if the husband spends for selfish enjoyment that which belongs to both and keeps the wife humiliated and ashamed for want of a little money she might and ought to have need not wonder if she does things in a roundabout way, and the world should not ridicule her. She is entitled to credit for shrewdly getting her own.—Elkhart Review.

A Multi-Feathered Flock

A woman living near Martinton, Ind., has all her life been afflicted with strange names. She has been married three times. Her maiden name was Partridge; her first husband's name was Robin; her second Sparrow, and her present husband's name is Quail. There are now two Robins, one Sparrow and three little Quails in the family. One of her grandfathers was named Swann, Chicago, will give a talk on "More corn to the acre" while C. A. Rowe of Jacksonville will criticize the exhibits of corn at the state show.

Everyone interested in corn improvement should attend this meeting and hear these speakers. It will pay to do so.
Programs for the meeting, premium list for the state show and other information can be had by applying to G. I. Christie, Secretary, Lafayette, Ind.
D. E. Scott is engaged this week in putting on the finishing touches at the new home of F. P. Wood.

Corn Growers' Association

The ninth annual meeting of the Indiana Corn Growers' Association will be held January 13, 1909 at Purdue University, Lafayette. Short Course, receiving a prominent place on the program for the week. It is found that by holding the association meeting at this time and in connection with the Farmers' Short Course that the speakers secured at a great cost, are heard by a large number of farmers and there is a great financial saving both to the individual members and the association.

The program this year is an unusually attractive and strong one. Professor W. H. Stevenson of the Soil Department of the Iowa State College, will discuss "The Conservation of the Soil"; Mr. A. E. Reynolds, President Crabbs, Reynolds, Taylor Co. of Crawfordsville, will discuss "Pure clover seed and how to obtain it." DeWitt C. Wing, Associate Editor of the Breeders' Gazette, Chicago, will give a talk on "More corn to the acre" while C. A. Rowe of Jacksonville will criticize the exhibits of corn at the state show.

A State Institution

Every county in the State was represented at the Chapel Exercises at Indiana University last week, held in honor of the Indiana Legislative Committee. This Committee, appointed by the Governor to investigate the condition and needs of the state institutions, has just completed its inspection of the University, its buildings, grounds, accounts, reports etc. The Committee consists of Senator Horace Hanna, Plainfield; and Representatives, Grieger, of Laporte, and Sicks of Lebanon.

This is only one of three reports that the University makes to the State. In addition to this one the University officials reported biennially to the Governor of the and semi-annually to the state Auditor.

"The fact that Indiana University is a state institution cannot be emphasized too strongly," said President W. L. Bryan today. "It belongs to the state, is supervised by the state and makes its accounting to the state. It is part and parcel of the free educational system of Indiana."

A New Special Delivery Stamp

Approval has just been given by Postmaster General Meyers to a new special delivery stamp which will be placed on sale within the next ten days. It is patterned after stamps of French design, measures about one inch square and is dark green. Running diagonally across its face is an illustration of an olive branch, the leaves of which entwine a Mercury hat, symbolic of peace and haste. In the upper left hand corner is the inscription "10," while in the lower right hand corner in bold letters are the words, "U. S. Postage, Special Delivery."
