NEWS NOTES

Roy K. Riddle, former county treasurer is now selling Ford cars for the George Bryan garage.

J. W. Fester, of Indianapolis, republican candidate for governor, is utilizing newspaper space in advertising his candidacy.

Prof. E. E. King, who for 20 years has been principal of the Kendallville high school has resigned and will go on a farm near Peru.

Rev. J. L. Lutey, the new pastor of the Methodist church will fill the pulpit both morning and evening next Sunday. All are invited.

Rev. H. Lewis Meyer and Arthur E. Kelley will attend a meeting of the Fort Wayne Presbytery to be held at Goshen Monday and Tuesday.

The county commissioners were in Ligonier Tuesday viewing the Cochran road. This road is to be improved with gravel at the expense of the county.

The republican candidates for governor of Indiana are now charging each other with a lavish use of money and strong-arm methods in the primary campaign.

Meers and Mesdames Frank Raubert and Hod Ullery visited Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Cole out on the farm the other evening and enjoyed an old-fashioned taffy pull.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Crothers, who spent the winter in Florida and have been visiting their old friends here left Thursday for their home in Wray Colorado.

Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Miller and two daughters and Mrs. Clarence Hollister and son, of Topeka, were first of the week guests of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Miller of this city.

The N. W. Manrow cottage at Wawasee was robbed of rugs, carpets and curtains some time during the winter. The loss was discovered by Mr. Manrow of Goshen when he visited the cottage Friday.

Sidney Slabaugh has received word from his sister Mrs. John Larimer at Glendive, Montana, that the whole family is stricken with smallpox and that a daughter is very ill. Much concern is felt for them.

to the investor have demonstrated the intrinsic soundness of the Straus Standard. This Standard for investment requires:

- (1) That a business or property proposed for underwriting show an established record of earnings, capable management, quick assets and no funded debt; and
- (2) That it shows strength and permanence entitled it to rank on even terms with Straus offerings during a period of over a century.

Every issue of Preferred stock offered to investors by the Straus Brothers Company has been tested for these requirements—and has met the test. By accepting for underwriting only such concerns as possess all of the above qualifications, we include in our list only sound and conservative investments yielding 7 per cent or better.
