

Interest Rates Reduced to Borrowers

Effective Monday, May 15, our rates of interest to borrowers were substantially reduced.

Our aim always has been to offer the maximum aid to the community, and especially to retain the lead in benefiting the farmers.

We are glad to take the initial step in giving our patrons and friends the benefit of improved conditions in the money market.

NEWS NOTES

Contractor Lon McNutt has finished the brick work for the Albion light plant.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Martin, of Albion were guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Zimmerman in this city.

William S. Thomas, a Wolf Lake farmer, aged 80 years, 5 months, 18 days, died May 16th, 1922.

Miss Bonnie Lane spent the week end with her grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Charles McDonald in South Bend.

Washington Cook Parker and Miss Florence Wilke Stevenson were licensed to wed by County Clerk Deter in Albion Tuesday.

The dates of the Cromwell chautauqua are July 22, 23, 24 and 25. The chautauqua will open on Saturday and close on Tuesday.

Mrs. Sam Kuhns visited Mrs. Sadie Huston at Albion Wednesday. She was accompanied home by Mrs. Huston who is spending a couple of days in Ligonier.

L. R. Lepird & Co. have purchased a desirable lot in Angola and will build a brick building two stories in height to be occupied by their shoe store and a flat dweller.

For the first time in two years LaGrange county has a grand jury at work. An indictment was returned against Walter Gage charged with operating an automobile while intoxicated.

Glen Rimmell, democratic candidate for county treasurer, was in the city calling on old friends. Mr. Rimmell is a progressive farmer and stockman and makes a strong appeal to the voters.

By the nomination of Gifford Pinchot for governor of Pennsylvania and Albert J. Beveridge for U. S. senator in Indiana the women voters seem to have shown a disposition to purify the republican party.

Cromwell Advance: "Mr. and Mrs. Ed Belts of Ligonier were Sunday guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Maggart. — Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Reed and daughter of Ligonier were Sunday guests of Mrs. Reed's parents, West Seneca and wife."

Mrs. Reginald Duke and little daughter Alice went to Peoria, Ill., Saturday to visit Rev. Glenn Rice and family for a few days. Rev. Rice has resigned his pastorate at a Peoria Presbyterian church and accepted a call at Grand Island, Nebraska, near his boyhood home. The Rice family made many friends during a residence in this city and Peoria.

Mrs. George W. Brown visited Gothenburg friends Thursday.

William Jennings Bryan will be a headliner at chautauquas this year.

Jay Ramsby says last week's weather was good to develop rheumatism.

A revival meeting is to be held at the Topeka Mennonite church with Rev. Shelby in charge.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Hile drove to Elkhart Saturday and visited over Sunday with their son.

Myron Kirkland is having a large porch built at his residence and the house is being remodeled.

Wakarusa has three well developed cases of smallpox and an epidemic of the disease is feared there.

Mrs. J. D. Kreager and daughter, Miss Beatrix Flick visited South Bend and Elkhart friends Saturday.

The Indiana Society of Chicago of which Ligonier has a number of members will visit Culver, May 27.

It cost Samuel M. Ralston a trifle over $2,000 to secure the nomination for U. S. senator on the democratic ticket.

Mrs. J. S. Smalley and Mrs. Osie Nelson will represent the W. R. C. at the department convention at Connersville this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Price delightedly entertained a company of friends the other day at their Elkhart township home.

The revival meeting is in progress at Indian Village. Rev. William Master is pastor and Henry Klopstein the evangelist.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Presbyterian church will hold a bake sale at Sisteren's grocery Friday morning at ten o'clock.

When Miss Dumas fainted while driving a car on Main street in Goshen Friday the machine upset a Ford and damaged another at the curb. The girl was not injured.

Gifford Pinchot for governor carried 60 of the 67 counties in Pennsylvania at the recent primaries, so his success may be regarded as popular. The machine carried the big cities by large majorities but lost in the country.

The local W. C. T. U. held a public meeting at the Presbyterian church. A picnic supper was served in the dining room, after which a fine program was rendered consisting of songs readings and papers appropriate for the occasion.

Identify Wawaka Robbers.

Two of the men convicted at Wawaka for burglary have been positively identified by Earl Schwab, 14, of Wawaka, as having taken part in the Wawaka bank holdup. The lad and his mother, suspecting a holdup, rushed from their home at the time of the robbery. Their home adjoined the bank. The boy was armed with a gun and covered the driver of the waiting auto belonging to the bandits. The driver talked with the lad and convinced him that he was not a robber. During their conversation another member of the band slipped out of their car and felled the boy. It is understood the bank lost $1,500.

Hold Big Farmer Meet.

Many farmers and their wives were present at the Farm Bureau meeting held at Community Hall, Coserville, Chairman John E. Hulse presided. Wool pooling and a demonstration of blanket making by Glenn Rimmell were among the interesting features of the meeting. The Woman's Division met at the same time with Miss Grace Spurgeon presiding.

Married at Topeka.

Clarence Lung, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eaden Lung, and Miss Mary Ellen Rice, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rice, both well known and highly respected young people of Noble county, were united in marriage at the home of Rev. Ernest Hostetter Monday evening, May 15th at Topeka. The Banner extends congratulations.

Elkhart Township Club Boys.

D. A. Rose was appointed the Elkhart township club leader by the Farm Bureau. He has enrolled Ivan Rice, Homer Emmert, Donald Rose, Wayland Rose, Walter Zimmerman, Webster Pierce and Donald Cook in the 1922 Corn club and Robert Geiger, Forest Lower, Donald Cook, Bernice Elijah in the Boys' pig club.

Killed in Arkansas.

Ira Culp, who until three years ago resided on a farm north of Ligonier in LaGrange county, was killed the other day presumably by his colored help on his plantation in Arkansas and his buildings were burned. Details of the crime have not yet been received.

Danger Signs to be Posted.

Standard uniform grade crossing danger signs will be placed at every road approach in Indiana by the railroads, cooperating with the commissioners of the respective counties under a recent act of the general assembly, in an effort to reduce the number of grade-crossing accidents.

Gets Heavy Dose.

William Keeth, an Elkhart cafe owner, was fined $250 and sent to the penal farm for four months by the Elkhart superior court on conviction of violating the prohibition law. His place of business may be declared a nuisance and closed permanently.

Over the Top.

Kendallville subscribed $923 to the county Salvation Army fund, her quota being $705. C. J. Munton says Noble county will easily reach her quota or $2,250.

Attention W. R. C.

All members and others interested will meet at G. A. R. hall on Saturday p. m. May 27 to make wreaths for Salem cemetery, and on Monday all day to prepare wreaths and drapery for Decoration day. Bring your lunch and plan to work all day. Every member should be at the regular meeting Friday at 7:30 sharp, May 26.

Press Correspondent.

Big Cattle Shipment.

John H. Green shipped eighty-three head of Hereford steers the latter part of last week to Swift & Co., Chicago packers for export. The cattle weighed 1,537 a head or a total of 126,580 pounds. Five cars were required to transport the cattle to market. The price received for the stock was a fancy one.

Chance for a Boy.

The Democrat says Capt. Albert Black of Albion, has received notice that one boy from this district will be admitted to Camp Knox, training camp, in Kentucky. The government furnishes all transportation and other expenses and furnishes uniforms.
