

Storing Prosperity

The squirrel is smart enough to gather his winter's supply of food during the months of plenty.

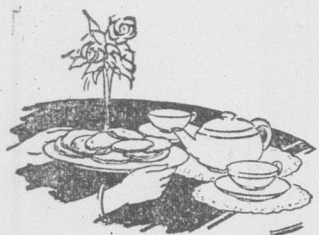

What the beast does by instinct, man has learned to do through experience.

The man without a financial plan is as unlikely to achieve any financial success, as the man who would start to build a house without a blueprint or a drawing to go by.

A great many people, hard working and sincere, fail to build for themselves a successful financial structure, because they are working without plans.

Part of our business is to help you make successful plans. Come in and talk to us, and we will be glad to advise with you about savings, investments or financial matters.
